According to the Azzi-Ratem system, Nebraska rates 14th in this week's national standings of the college football teams... The Huskers are also rated 7 points better than the Sooners in the Saturday clash by the same system...

Add tales about Missouri's Paul Christman:

During the heat of the Pittsburgh-Missouri football game, Capt. Ed Konetsky of the Panthers broke through and smeared Christman after he let loose one of his precision passes.

Christman looked down and jested, "Is that any way to treat a Kappa Sig brother?" "It's what the doctor ordered," the Pitt leader retorted.

"What a sense of humor he must have," the conversation continued.

By that time play was ready to resume, and after helping each other up, Konetsky called back over his shoulder as he trotted back into position, "Don't forget to stop by the house tonight."

Little Jack Welsh is one of Penn's star backs yet he weighs only 147 pounds... Nick Loncaric and Franklin Yoder are the promising frosh athletes at Gonzaga... Both are grads of Boys Town of Omaha...

There has not been a major undefeated, untied, unscored-on eleven in the nation since 1933 when DePauw so honored itself... In 1917 and 1919, Coach Dana Bible, then with Texas A. & M., sent his Aggies thru UUU years... This also happened to be consecutive as Bible did not coach in 1918...

Logan Ware, first string half-back for TCU, played only five minutes with freshmen team in 1937... He failed to win his frosh numeral, but this fall he will win his third varsity "T"...

Choice for All-American substitute: Johnny Butler, second string quarterback for Tennessee, should hold this title... He'd probably be the number one signal caller on any other college eleven...

In 1939, Butler subbed for a sub against Alabama and set the Vols going with a 47 yard touchdown sprint... In the same game this year and still a sub, Butler made dashes of 50 and 67 yards and threw a scoring pass...

Funny people, these football wolves... When Clark Shaughnessy came to Stanford last winter from Chicago, there were many disgruntled remarks from the Indian grads... Now, that Stanford is flying high, wide and handsome toward the Rose Bowl, one doesn't hear those caustic remarks anymore.

After three games this fall, Stanford was the only unbeaten or untied coast conference school... The Indians were victorious only once in 1939... When the Indians defeated the Santa Clara Broncos, it was the first win in five years over the Claras for Stanford in five years...

Big line fronts for speeding Sooner backs

The Okies from Oklahoma are big. Thus is the theme of all dispatches from Soonerland. Blessed with the heftiest squad east of the Southern California campus, Stadium Stidham seems prone to quite repeatedly wish for more speed.

Again as in the past, the Huskers will be out-weighted. The Sooner line will tip the scales at a mere 205 average and the backs weigh in at 180. On the face of things Nebraska will be right at home against a team on the heavier side of things.

Rumor has it that Tom Stidham is preparing for next season and is merely using this season as a sounding board for his freshmen. Using a big line in front of his speedy secondary is paying dividends, however.

Speediest of the backfield speedsters is Orvie Mathews. Hampered by injuries the past few games, Mathews is once again in the groove and is gunning for action.

Along with him we find John Martin. Martin is the pace setter for the conference scorers thus far and will be after an increase on his side of the column Saturday.

Up front doing the blocking for these backs of course will be jolting Harold Lahar. Lahar thrives on destruction and will be teaming with others in the Sooner line against the Huskers. Chief of the headaches for the Nebraskans will be Cliff Speegle at center, Bill Jennings, last year's halfback and now end, and tackles Teeter and Eason.

Speegle is the only "Old Timer" from the champs of two years back and has lost none of his cunning. Eason and Teeter at tackles are intent on jamming the opposition's plays. Jennings, converted into an end this year to bolster those ranks, has proved to be as adept at this work as he was at lugging the ball in the backfield last term. He loves the game and intends to keep the end sweeps in check Saturday.

A big line and speedy backfield will be the problem for consideration by the Huskers this weekend.

contest, may begin at any time to work for the 100 percent average for their free Cornhuskers.

Brain truster...

Tom Stidham.

Above is Coach Tom "Stadium" Stidham of the Oklahoma Sooners. He directed his Oil State boys to a Big Six conference championship in 1938 and has hopes of repeating such a performance this fall. That game with the Huskers Saturday should settle the conference question for 1940 as both are undefeated in their Big Six starts.

All-American...

Pete Smith.

Back in 1938, Oklahoma had an all-American end. Above is Pete Smith who gained such national recognition. Pete is now end coach of the Sooners under the coach of his playing days—Tom Stidham. Classy flankmen on the 1940 era are: Bill Jennings, reformed halfback, Louis "Tree-top" Sharpe, and Lyle Smith.

UN band receives praise; will play at David City Friday

Numerous letters flowed into Don A. Lentz's office after the Nebraska-Kansas game complimenting and praising the varsity band for its outstanding performance at Lawrence. The Lincoln Chamber of Commerce also wrote Lentz commending the band on its early fall achievements. According to the director the 1940 band seems to have more volume and ability than any previous UN marching band.

Dick Faytinger, president of the band committee, announced that the band would make a trip to David City Friday. Only sophomores and above will make the trip. They will present maneuvers at the "half" of the David City football game and play music during the game. All eligible bandmen who will not be able to make the trip are urged to see Lentz immediately.

Schools will hear Hosp

Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women, will speak on "The Development of Cordial Inter-American Relationships" before a Lincoln high school convocation Thursday at 9:40 a. m. and before a Jackson high school convocation on Friday at 11 a. m. in First Methodist church.

Mrs. Elias Compton, selected as one of the 10 outstanding women of 1939, is the only woman ever to receive an honorary LL.D. degree for motherhood. She is the motherhood. She is the mother of three famous men.

Sooners have been eyeing UN all year

Coach Tom "Stadium" Stidham is ready to shoot the works against the Huskers, Saturday, at Norman, when his Sooner boys play host to the Cornhuskers.

According to a report by Bus Ham, Oklahoman sports editor, the first question that was asked by the Sooners arriving in the dressing room following their 20-7 conquest over Iowa State was this:

"How did Nebraska come out?" Since the Texas U game early this fall, the Sooners have been pointing for the clash with Nebraska. They have been playing their games with one thought about beating the Huskers and a general thought of winning the game in which they were participating.

Record crowd?

Norman is expecting the Nebraska game to be the year's highlight of the Sooner season. Already, the crowd attendance is expected to top all former records. The record for Owen field is 28,091 set two years ago when Nebraska played there.

Thusly, the Nebraskans have work cut out for them as they are marked men. Oklahoma and Nebraska are the only ones in the Big Six race without a scar on their records placed there by a conference opponent.

The general belief is that the winner of the Husker-Sooner clash will be the ultimate champion in the Big Six for 1940. Therefore, it will be a tooth and nail game down there at Norman on Saturday.

Monday night the squad looked at slow motion pictures of the Missouri game and had a skull session.

Tuesday afternoon, the squad was sent thru more passing drills both on the offense and defense. The Scout Club ran Oklahoma plays against the seconds, while the firsts ran Husker plays on the frosh.

Hermie Rohrig was out for practice but failed to take part in the actual contact work. His ailing arm is still not completely o. k. A newcomer to squad again is Burdette Wertman, sophomore end, who has been out since the Minnesota game with an injury.

hear that song again? Do that dance routine again," were instructions that put would-be reviewers in misery. The answer was always, "The more we do it the worse it gets."

Other questions. Other questions, this is a question and answer contest, went "Do the lights come up then or is it still dark? How much room will the props and set use?"

Enough to put any skit master in a padded cell.

(It will always come out in the end. On Saturday, Nov. 16, at the Nebraska theater will be the real test. There will be a vast audience to judge them. This is simple.)

After much head nodding and shaking the group finally gets the cue to leave. Filing out in the same solemn manner they usually leave this remark. "It always

I-M chairmen

All fraternities who participated in intramural football this fall are urged to send in their choices for an all-opponent team. This team is to be made up of teams in the fraternity's own league and can not include their members. This list must be turned in by the middle of this week to the Daily Nebraskan where the votes will be tabulated. The deadline will positively be Friday.

Members, remind your athletic chairman to determine this list as cooperation will be appreciated.
