Coll-Agri-Fun selects skits for annual show

After long debate, Coll-Agri-Fun board members have accepted nine skits and four curtain acts for the annual show to be held in the college activities building, ag campus, Nov. 16. Tryouts for skits were held the latter part of this week.

Those accepted are Alpha Gamma Rho, 4-H club, Ag Cafeteria, Loomis Hall, Robison girls, Dramatic club, Ag College Boarding club, Farm House, Concordia club, Baldwin Hall, Home Economics club, Hackman House, and Erwin Klein.

Big range.

The skits will range in subject matter from the AGR's "UN Pest House," claimed to be hilarious comedy, to the more serious entry of the 4-H club, "When Old Songs Were New." The Dramatic club's theme concerns "Blondie," while the ACBC will hold forth with a comic "Radio Book Review." Loomis Hall's skit, entitled "Loomis Hall Behind the Blind," depicts a day in the life of a Loomis Hall girl. "All This and Hash, Too," will be the Ag Cafeteria club's entry, while the Robison girls will present "Lily of the Bally," a burlesque dance. "The Widow's Mite," dialogue between two small school boys, will be given by Concordia club; Farm House will enter "Dog Patch Saves the World."

Curtain acts.

Curtain acts include the Home Ec club's "Seven Lessons," based on "Madame La Zonga." Erwin Klein will present a saxophone solo; Baldwin House, a "Jungelets"

Counselors to hold annual 'sister' dinner

Thursday event features Hosp, Piper, Clark talks, fashion show, dancers

Annual coed counselor dinner will be held Thursday at 6 p. m. in the Union. According to Mary Bullock, coed counselor president, the purpose of the dinner is to acquaint new students with their "big sisters" and other girls on the campus.

Charm School will entertain the diners with a fashion show and the coed counselor tap dancing group will perform. Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women, and Miss Elsie Piper and Miss Letta Clark, sponsors, will speak.

Tickets may be purchased for 40c Monday night at all sorority houses, dormitories and other organized houses. Little sisters may purchase their tickets from their big sisters.

Ruth Clark is general chairman of the dinner and members of other committees are: Irene Hollenbeck and Margaret Lorrey, food; Harriet Talbot, Beth Howley and Betty Pierce, entertainment; Ruth Grosvenor and Jean Powell, tickets.

Frolich, Hosman, O'Connell sell most 'N' stamps

Louise Frolich, Phi Mu, Katherine O'Connell and Aline Hosman, Kappa Alpha Thetas, were top saleswomen in the annual AWS "N" stamp sale. Louise was first, with total sales of 2,045 stamps. Aline and Katherine tied for second with 1,775 stamps each. Gold "N" pins were presented to the three at the last upperclass AWS meeting.

number. Hackman House entry is entitled "My Feet's Too Big."

The orchestra has not yet been selected. Board members for the event are: Milo Tesar, manager; Vivian Brown, assistant manager; Florence Hamer, secretary; Joe Shaughnessy, treasurer; Jack Carter, and Mary Bell Haumont. Faculty advisers are Prof. D. B. Whelan, Miss M. E. Carse, Miss R. E. Elliff and L. W. Hurlbut.

After 17 years . . .

Vast Morton collection will go to new library

. . . as invaluable gift

One of the most valuable collections which the proposed new library will house is the J. Sterling Morton historic collection of letters, reports, books, diaries, pamphlets, photographs, and clippings. The collection reached the university after being shipped from Lisle, Ill., where it had lain untouched for 17 years at the home of the late Joy Morton, eldest son of the great pioneer.

Announcement of the gift of the collection to the university was made by the Morton family last spring. Much historic material recently discovered in the basement of Arbor Lodge at Nebraska City also is included in the gift.

"Although no one has ever attempted to value the collection in terms of money, historically it undoubtedly is one of the most valuable in the Midwest," stated James C. Olson, recipient of a three year fellowship established in 1939 by Mark Morton of Chicago, only surviving son of J. Sterling, for research in early Nebraska history and writing of a

AGR's lead contest

Results in the Cornhusker picture-taking contest for fraternities yesterday showed Alpha Gamma Rho in the lead with 39 percent of the pictures of its members already taken. Tabulations yesterday were:

Alpha Gamma Rho	39
Beta Theta Pi	11
Farm House	17
Kappa Sigma	22
Phi Kappa Psi	14

Gamma Phis win panhellenic cup

Gamma Phi Beta, ranking highest scholastically among the 15 sororities on the campus, was presented the panhellenic cup Friday afternoon at the annual panhellenic scholarship tea in the Union ballroom. Sororities who ranked in the next six places and who were also awarded cups were Kappa Alpha Theta, second; Alpha Xi Delta, third; Kappa Kappa Gamma, fourth; Delta Gamma, fifth; Delta Delta Delta, sixth; and Sigma Kappa, seventh.

The program for the afternoon included a collegiate skit presented from the ballroom stage by members of Kappa Delta, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, Phi Mu, Alpha Phi and Sigma Delta Tau. Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women, spoke on scholarship, and Mrs. Earl Deppen presented the awards.

Individual winners.

Individual scholarships went to Jewel Tinker and Virginia Kirkbride, Sigma Kappas; Betty

Vote for one!

"It doesn't matter who you vote for—but vote!" Norman Harris, NEBRASKAN editor, said today in urging all university students to vote in the DAILY NEBRASKAN straw vote which closes at 5 p. m. Monday.

The NEBRASKAN has had its voting booth in the lobby of the Union open Friday and Saturday; Monday is the last day to vote.

Husker power jilts Sooner's title hopes

By Jim Evinger. (Compiled from radio broadcast.)

We don't know where we're going, but we're going. That can now be the apt theme for the 1940 Cornhuskers. The latest obstacle in the path of Nebraska was hurdled, Saturday afternoon, at Norman, Okla., when the Huskers downed Oklahoma 13-0.

Faculty gives third recital in Union today

The school of fine arts presents Mrs. Lenore Burkett Van Kirk, soprano; Earnest Harrison, pianist; Emanuel Wishnow, violinist, and Herbert Schmidt, accompanist, in the third faculty recital of the fall series this afternoon at 3 in the Union ballroom.

Sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota, national music fraternity, the program follows:

Rhapsody, Dohnanyi; Malaguena, Lecuona; Volles, Debussy; Scherzo-Valse, Chabrier, Mr. Harrison.
Sighing, Weeping, Trouble, Want, Bach; Sometimes, Walther; Tacea la notte placida (Il Trovatore), Verdi, Mrs. Van Kirk.
Largo, Veracini-Corti; Short Story, Gershwin; Nocturne, Boulanger; Andante-Moderato from Concerto in D Minor, Vieuxtemps, Mr. Wishnow.

Since the season opener (a 13-7 loss to Minnesota), the Huskers have been rolling. And yesterday, 35,000 fans at Owen field saw the Huskers literally roll over their Sooners.

for the Sooners left Nebraska the only undefeated Big Six team in conference play.

The first Husker score climaxed an 80-yard march with only 45 seconds remaining in the first half. The other touchdown started with a 55-yard ruckback of a punt by Walter Luther from his 5 that found the drive ending in a marker in the final period.

Ticket sales for Fall Revue start Tuesday

Coeds to select Prince Kosmet at fall election; show date set for 16th

With the official notification of 15 sororities and fraternities that they would present skits in the annual Kosmet Klub Fall Revue at the Nebraska theater Nov. 16, Carl Harnsberger, business manager of the club, announced yesterday that tickets would go on sale Tuesday.

In the hands of some 20 workers whom Harnsberger explained would each have a large sales force of his own, the tickets are to be sold in limited numbers only. Hoping to avoid the embarrassment of having to turn back money at the door to those who don't have seats, as was the case last year, the business manager declared that the sale of tickets will be stopped as soon as the house is filled.

Prince Kosmet

In addition to the 15 acts and the presentation of the Nebraska Sweetheart, which has comprised the show in the past, President Leo Cooksley emphasized the selection of Prince Kosmet. For the first time, the Prince, who presents the Sweetheart to the school, will be chosen by the coed student body.

Reporters from Nebraska high schools gather

Speakers for convention are Grimes, Lawrence; first meeting Friday

Five hundred young journalists from 50 Nebraska high schools will attend the Nebraska High School Press association convention here Friday and Saturday as guests of the university.

Beginning with registration at 8 a. m. Friday, the convention program will feature as guest speakers George Grimes, managing editor of the Omaha World-Herald at the banquet Friday night and J. E. Lawrence, editor of the Lincoln Star, at a general meeting Saturday morning.

Writing contest.

The general program includes a news writing contest Friday morning sponsored by the UN chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity; a special edition of the DAILY NEBRASKAN put out by visiting high school journalists; an exhibit of high school papers; tours through the plants of the Lincoln Star and Journal, the capitol, Morrill, and other points of interest in the city; a convention dance Friday night; and attendance at the Iowa-Nebraska football game Saturday.

Prof. Gayle C. Walker, director of the school of journalism, is making arrangements on the campus for the convention.

Willkie-ites will hear Fraizer

Betty McGeachin, local Willkie Clubs head, announced today that Cecil Fraizer, state chairman of Nebraska Willkie clubs, had been secured as speaker for the final pre-election meeting of the university Willkie club at 5 p. m. Monday in room 316 of the Union. All Willkie club members and other students are invited to hear Mr. Fraizer speak. Paul Svoboda, president of the university club, urged that all Willkie clubbers turn out for the final fling.

Klingel and Ruth Clark, Alpha Xi Deltas; Betty Belle Barney and Jeanne Meier, Chi Omegas; Dorothy McCartney, Phi Mu; Jean Humphrey, Alpha Omicron Pi; Marion Bremers, Alpha Phi; Shirley Polsky, Sigma Delta Tau, and Betty Baker, Pi Beta Phi.

The remainder of the Greek letter groups rated in the following order: Alpha Phi, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, Sigma Delta Tau, Kappa Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Chi Omega and Phi Mu. Scholarship rating was based on the two semesters of 1939-40.
