

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

Welcome winter and wasn't it Sig Nu Chan Chandler who last observed that five days is a heck of a long time between week ends... Beaming are Chick Roberts and Mary Fran Wilson for their Phi Delt and Alpha Phi pins have gotten together...

Initiations are happening... Bob Sinkey and Ralph Combs are Kappa Sigs now and the Kappas are initiating Winnie Martyn, Shirley Hoffman, Helen Coyne, Anne Craft and Mary McCarthy... today's the day for that... and we add all sorts of congratulations...

More and more are Lois Baker and George Joy getting seen around, together... they make a nice couple...

They say that Anna Margaret Limpp always has a footstool on her front porch because the lads she dates are all so tall...

More and more are those dates of DU Dick Spichel with Gamma Phi Lougene Everson... must be one of those home town friendships growing stronger with higher education for they're both from Valentine...

Is it Lee Miller that Eunice Kensing thinks the most of these days... not an important issue but the Kensing is an awfully cute little girl...

Curt Knudsen and Mary Martin Tunks of the Phi Psi's and DDD's respectively, are finding that they've a public with a photographic complex or so... the latest incident that made them unhappy was the Awgwan Flash lad who is cornering the market on private good-night kisses...

The publications of this, our University of Nebraska, have taken a look at the fun in barn dances and contemplates sponsoring one all their own with everyone invited... everyone who has two-bits... they've even got the barn picked out, etc... Nov. 15 is the day... or the evening...

Ed Rowley, Phi Psi, is thinking quite some of Jeanie Miller, DG pledge, but is finding a big blonde Beta plenty of competition... Jack Weidman... they do make an awfully nice looking couple...

And the Val Lortscher and Elmer Bauer wedding took place Saturday... the culmination of that Pi Phi-Phi Gam pin hanging of last spring... The ceremony was at Sabetha, Kas...

And, also, Harold Larman, ATO had his pin accepted by DG Marion Patton... that's a real good deal...

Newet pledge of the Pi Phi's is Mary Larkin...

And have you noticed that Betty Baker is affiliated with the PiKa's... at least she's listed as one in the student directory with nary a mention of her connection with the Pi Phi's... She has now started a "Change-All-Directories" club...

'Glacier Priest' talks here Nov. 8

Coming under the auspices of the Newman club, university Catholic student group, Rev. Bernard R. Hubbard, the "Glacier Priest" will lecture on his experiences in the Arctic at 8:30 p. m., Nov. 8, at Irving junior high.

With his lecture he will show his film "Oomiak Adventures in Arctic Alaska," a motion picture he photographed on his recent 200 mile trip along the shores of the far north. On this expedition he traveled in an oomiak, a primitive native vessel of walrus hide.

Tickets to the lecture may be secured at the Union office, Miller & Paine's book department, or at the Newman club office, room 205, Temple.

'Y' fund drive workers plan dinner tonight

First report dinner of workers in the university YMCA drive for funds among city campus students will be held tonight at 6 in the city YMCA cafeteria. A call has been issued by George Gostas and Hugh Wilkins, barb and fraternity leaders in charge of the dinner, for all workers to be present and make reports.

A record of amounts contributed by each group will be posted on the blackboard. Workers will recount their experiences in soliciting funds. They are expected to have contacted all students assigned them and to be prepared to turn in complete reports.

Ag YM sponsors transportation film

A motion picture describing Chinese agricultural methods and means of transportation will be shown before a meeting of the ag campus YMCA tonight. Carrol Voss, a university student who lived for seven years as the son of an American missionary in the part of China which the film describes, will explain it to the audience.

The meeting will be held in 306 ag hall at 7:45 following the YM-YW freshman council meeting, and will be concluded about 8:30. It is sponsored by the YM International Affairs committee, of which Voss is a member, and the Tri-K club.

Barbs seek union of unaffiliates on city, ag campuses

Plans to bring about a union of the barbs on ag campus and those on the city campus will be the main point of business at the Barb Union meeting tonight, according to Blaine Sloan, president of the Union.

To determine the representation at the Barb Union meeting a roll call of all barb clubs is planned. Representatives who attend the YMCA dinner at 6 p. m. are asked to be present. The Union will concentrate on the campus elections of November 12 as well as discuss the ag-city merger tonight.

Rosenlof speaks at state high school conference

Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, registrar, university examiner, and director of admissions, spoke three times before the Illinois state high school conference of educators at the University of Illinois in Urbana Friday and Saturday. He discussed "The Biological Sciences in the Secondary School," "The High School Graduate," and participated in a panel discussion of "Secondary School Accreditation."

Kirsch gives illustrated lecture on history of art

Dwight Kirsch, chairman of the fine arts department, will present an illustrated lecture on "Art Through the Ages," at the meeting of the Architectural society to be held in the departmental library tonight at 7:30.

Informal discussion over coffee and doughnuts will follow the lecture.

North Dakota U to hear Reinhardt

Dr. J. M. Reinhardt of the sociology department will speak on "America in the Present Disorder," at a convocation of the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks, N. Dak., on Nov. 12.

He will also address the Rotary club there on "Some Aspects of Hemisphere Defense." On Nov. 13 he will lecture on "Personality and Crime" to the N. Dak. social science students. The same evening he will give a short talk before the Alpha Phi Zeta, faculty fraternity, on "Aspects of Crime."
