Union to offer new amateur talent program

Wilkinson puppeteers cancel engagement; call for student performers

Featuring performances by talented students, an amateur hour will replace the puppet show which was to have been given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilkinson, British artists of the puppet theater, Union ballroom, Nov. 17.

All students talented in music, mimicry, singing, dancing, or any other art are urged to register for the show at the Union check stand before Nov. 11. Contestants will be judged by an applause meter and three prizes of $6, $4, and $2, will be presented to the winners. If a group of entertainers wins the contest, they will split the prize money awarded for their act.

According to Pat Lahr, Union social director, purpose of this amateur performance, the first of its kind to be sponsored by the Union, is "to give talented students an opportunity to perform, and to publicize performers for entertaining at other campus activities."

DG's, AGR's lead Cornhusker picture contest

Delta Gamma sorority and Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity are leading in the Greek picture-taking contest of the Cornhusker. All the fraternities and sororities are far from the free Cornhusker to be given to the president of the first fraternity and the first sorority to reach the 100 percent mark within the allotted two weeks. Saturday, Nov. 9, is the deadline for the fraternities; for the sororities, Tuesday, Nov. 12.

Only 62 juniors from a class of 1,290 have had pictures taken, and only 80 seniors from 1,133 registered seniors have had pictures taken. At least 500 juniors and 500 seniors have been represented before in the Cornhusker, and the staff of this publication feels that at least this number, if not more, should be photographed this year, too.

Sorority results:

Delta Gamma 28%
Chi Omega 23%
Delta Delta Delta 10%
Kappa Kappa Gamma 7%

Fraternity results:

Alpha Gamma Rho 39%
Phi Kappa Psi 37%
Farm House 26%
Kappa Sigma 22%
Beta Theta Pi 21%

Students feel aid to Britain not worth risk of getting involved

By Student Opinion Surveys.
Joe Belden, Editor.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 3.—Unlike U. S. public opinion, majority sentiment among college students today holds that it is more important for the United States to try to keep out of war than to help England even at the risk of becoming involved.

Simultaneously over the nation, Student Opinion Surveys of America has sent its interviewers to query all types of students on large and small campuses, pre-

Cameras flash, worlds crash, heads bash

"Anything for the picture—even if it takes some bodyguards—has become the motto of Awgwan flash photographers who have found there is more to taking "real" action shots than snapping the shutter.

Val Anderson and Chick Edholm needed the aid of two fraternity brothers the other night when their flash bulbs interrupted a pair of romantic couples, and the men involved physically demanded their cameras.

Today, Anderson and Edholm, with aid of cohorts, have their cameras, and the Awgwan has the action photos. But George Frischer, Awgwan editor, wants a bodyguard, for the flash cameramen told the two husky romances to see Frischer if they had any complaints. And that's what Frischer is worried about.

Dorothy Griswold feels 'just swell' after dad's victory

With the state governor race generally conceded late last night to Dwight Griswold, his daughter Dorothy, arts and science sophomore, when asked how it felt to be the governor's daughter exclaimed, "Just swell! I knew dad would win."

A member of Alpha Phi sorority, Dorothy was at first dubious when told that her father was Nebraska's governor.

Six hours grace gives Willkie vote

Just six hours after her 21st birthday, Mary Kerrigan, news editor of the DAILY, cast her vote yesterday in the national election. She voted for Wendell L. Willkie.

senting to them a problem vital to American youth, a question many times discussed in a thousand dormitory and boarding house bull sessions. With the cooperation of DAILY NEBRASKAN and scores of other newspaper members, the Surveys has gathered and tabulated these opinions by means of scientific sampling methods. Here are the results:

Students were asked which of the two following things they thought was more important for (See BRITAIN, page 2.)

Big sisters sponsor dinner

Helen Hosp, Elsie Piper, Letta Clark to speak

Coed Counselors and little sisters will gather tomorrow night at 6 p. m. in the Union for the annual coed counselor dinner. "Coed Counselors," said Ruth Clark, general chairman of the dinner, "invite all women students to attend the get-acquainted meeting."

Tickets for the dinner may be purchased for 40 cents from big sisters, at sorority houses, dormitories, or other organized houses, in the Union all day Thursday, and at the door.

Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women, Miss Elsie Piper and Miss Letta Clark, sponsors, will be the speakers. Diners will also be entertained with a style show presented by charm school, and a performance by the tap dancing hobby group.

The weather

Generally fair and slightly warmer was the weather prediction for Wednesday.

Barb paper out

Second issue of "The Barb," new organ of unaffiliated students, appeared on campus yesterday, featuring the barbs' declaration of independence in the coming student election. The statement of political stand was supplemented in an article by Blaine Sloan, Barb Union president. See DAILY editorial on page 2.
