

Barb council plans budget revision, winter parties

Committees for the barb winter party, discussion of a method of improving the music presented at the barb dances, and a revision of the Barb council budget were the items of business taken up at the meeting of the Barb council last night.

Budget revision was necessary due to the sale of activities tickets which did not bring in enough money to meet the budget planned last year.

Party committees are: Bob Simmons, Dorothy White, Tim Higgins, Bill Green, publicity; Vernon Wiebusch, Blaine Sloan, Jean Echtenkamp, Marilyn Barr, program committee; George Gostas, Harold Alexis, Gilbert Heuffle, ticket committee; Betty Hutchinson, Louise Woerner, decorations committee. Others are Ida Schweiger, Janet Swenson and Ruth Grosvenor.

Passes fail.
Special work on the opponent's passing game has netted the Huskers profits this year. All teams that have boasted outstanding passing games thus far have been held practically helpless in the season's play. Missouri, Indiana, Kansas, Oklahoma and even Minnesota had their passers and all but Minnesota were soundly thumped by the Huskers. Also Nebraska has developed a formidable passing game of its own.

It looks like another case of Nebraska against a team that is hot after its skin and also has a good chance of realizing its objective.

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree.

This social life is getting two faced these days...we welcome one lad who seems quite capable at keeping tab on the times when he sees the world through only one orb...it shore looks like some cruel soul stepped in Bub Burruss' puss...Right face, readers...we give you the writings of Robert...

On Harold Howell, of the Beta Howells, we'll mention that he's interested currently in little KKG Zimmer...quite interested brothers' comments of Sunday form fit basis for such a supposition....

On that lengthening list of steadygoers there's the addition of Theta Dorothy Chase and Phi Sigh Carl Harnsberger...

The Sigma Nu's were really out Monday night...Jim Jones and Jim Roberts were quite out in the cold with very little raiment and an awful lot of water...The brothers craved cigars...and come to think of it we can't blame them...it must have been chilly out serenading...the Delta Upsilon's would know about that, too...real good serenades.

Different with a couple of capital D's are the invites which the Beta Sigs have involved to announce their Husker party at the Cornhusker, Nov. 9...real husking mitts.

More different parties would be a boon...how about a Sadie Hawkins party—if spring comes back again this fall...

The Chio's and the Tri Deltas must've gotten together and planned their house-parties...invitations are big black noses—musical notes—and they look so much alike they might have been cut with the same pair of shears.

The Sig Chi's are coming forth Friday night with a closed party...a pledge affair that goes completely "Nuts"...you tell us what a nut party is...

In the Tri Delt house on Dorothy Kunkel, pledge, is a Delta Chi pin...from Stanford...

Plenty intrigued by Frankie Haberman, Alpha Chi, is the pledge prey of the Fiji's...Ray Treinen fits the rescription...

Dick Hitchcock and Verne Ingham are going to be with the Clark twins this week-end...Saturday night will be that double date...sort of a Kappa Sig-Kappa combination...Maybe friend Hitchcock found that dating girls with DU pins less than fine...

Slight and impressions of college life at Nebraska... all "eligible males" on the campus with their hungry fangs dripping, eyeing Theta Klopp's new convertible which is now being body-guarded by SAE Leonard Jacobsen....

While on the subject of Theta we might say that Tish Trester thinks that Wendell Baysé is cute and very smart, but she is keeping one on Bob Sconce of Omaha...Don Fitz and Marie Anderson studying (?) at the library Monday night.

Week end notes...Post-post graduate Web Mills was making the rounds last Saturday evening shaking hands...might ask George Gostas who that smooth bonde is that he is keeping to himself... Jack Hitchcock, KFOR announcer, was swinging out at the pike Sunday with ATO Bob Leadly's sister, Betty Jo, (smoothie too)... Toddy and Lud also there eating popcorn... Paul Amen and Florence Moll dreamily dancing into a corner...It appeared that Kappa Sig Bob Sinky was enjoying himself at the house party Saturday night...Oh yes Kappa Sigs, how about those cartoons on the walls? At Oklahoma we saw Nancy Halligan with someone else... In Lincoln we saw Tom Woods with Marg Jones...Wow!

The SAE's are having one of their fall brawls this Saturday night...understand that Dick Herman and Al Randall are anxiously awaiting next Friday November 15th...Duschenne formal at the Fontenelle in Omaha...Dow Wilson returns for the game Saturday to gladden the heart of Betty Hillyer, KAT.
(It couldn't happen) Monk Meyer staying home one night, or even studying...Has anyone seen Jean Woods' glasses? Marion Bowers and Bob Luther "yum yuming" Monday noon...That down slip we all got, was sure a blow.

Workers report on 'Y' campaign at drive dinner

About thirty workers attending the first report dinner of the university YMCA student campaign for funds on the city campus last night reported $135 collected or pledged to date. The dinner was held at the city YMCA cafeteria at 6.

Contributions from students at Pioneer Co-op house totaled $26.50, the largest sum received from any one group. A partial report from Acacia placed that house at the top of the list of fraternities with $11.50 reported to date.

Organized barb houses gave $55 to the fund, while fraternities contributed $27. $53 was collected from unaffiliated men not living in regular barb houses. Ray Murray and Ralph Schroader were most successful in soliciting this group, each turning in $10.50 in money and pledges.

The campaign will be continued until Friday, for the benefit of those who have not as yet made complete reports.

'Double Door' . . .

Cast set for Theatre's second production; to open Nov. 13

. . . in Temple

"Double Door," second University Theater production opening Nov. 13, is "rapidly whipping into shape," Armand Hunter, play director, declared yesterday.

Hunter explained that the play started out with a double cast, using the same theory that Biff Jones does, but added that "because of lack of coaches he was unable to handle two casts in the rehearsal process."

"I cannot devote enough time to obtain the best results with each," he declared. Consequently, Hunter has selected one cast with several doubles, which "is being groomed this final week for the production."

In this show the part of Louise the Maid will be played by Betty Waite and Dorothy Filley on alternate nights.

Turning to the show, Hunter stated that the play, a mystery melodrama, is strong in atmosphere and is in direct contrast to the opening production.

The set is being constructed of solid wood, a new and experimental process in set construction on the Nebraska campus and one calculated to give the necessary weight and oppressive quality needed to develop the atmosphere of the play.

"Costumes depict the year 1910, and," says Hunter, "every attempt is being made to render the play authentic in every detail. It should be one of the outstanding theatrical events of the year on this campus."
