Students vote at polls today

The DAILY NEBRASKAN Class prexy races main factional battlegrounds

Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

Vol. 40 No. 38

Lincoln, Nebraska Tuesday, November 12, 1940

Sister rules in 'Double Door'

Pictured above are Mildred Manning and Virginia Thede who carry top roles in the University Theatre's forthcoming production, "Double Door" which will show for the first time tomorrow evening.

Today's election candidates

Honorary Colonel pha.

(All students vote for m sch d

Hortense Casady Betty Groth Janet Harris

Nebraska Sweethead

(All students vote for 1)

Virginia Bergsten Marian Bowers Yvonne Costello

Ruth Iverson Charlotte Statil Dorothy Wind

Prince Kosmet

(All women vote for 1)

Forrest Behm Keith Gilmore Ed Huwaldt Tom Horn Robert O'Connell

Frank Roth Harry Seagren Dale Tinstman Ralph Worden

Senior Class President

(Seniors vote for 1)

Warren Alfson John McDermott John Stoddart

Junior Class President

(Juniors vote for 1)

Vike Francis Gilbert Hueftle Fred Meier

Prom Committee

(Juniors and Seniors vote for 3 men and 3 women)

Jean Burr Jean Carnahan Frances Drenguis Mary Adelaide Hansen Jean Humphrey Ruth Huston Mary Jean McCarthy Miriam Rubnitz Shirley Russel Betty Jean Spalding Harriet Talbot

Flavia Ann Tharp George Abel Norman Davis Phil Ford Raymond Grossman Boyd MacDougall Chris Petersen Blaine Sloan Donald Steele Marvin Thompson

Family dictator is central idea

Mildred Manning plays principal role as second drama opens Wednesday

of Theatreplay

Dictatorship is the central theme of "Double Door," University Theatre production scheduled to open Wednesday. But it's not the kind of dictatorship we're accustomed to reading about on the

The dictator, in this case, is Victoria Van Bret, played by Mildred Manning. As the center of the play around whom the action revolves. Miss Manning is seen as the proud, dominating head of the unusual Van Bret family.

Victoria's absolute dominance over her sister Caroline, played by Virginia Thede, and her halfbrother, Rip, played by Max Whittaker, is broken when Rip marries his nurse, Anne Darrow, portrayed by Roberta Estey. Victoria Newman club will hold a mixer

(See THEATRE, page 4)

Initial debate tryouts set for Thursday

Contestants to argue on hemispheric union; filings remain open

Intercollegiate debate teams will initiate this year's competition when tryouts are held Thursday. Nov. 14, at 7:30 p. m. The place is U hall, room 106. The question will be: "Resolved that nations of the western hemisphere should form a permanent union."

Thus far the lots of those men who have signed up place Roy Byron, Harry Rinder and George Blackstone on the affirmative and Edwin Carraher and Robert Chambers on the negative side.

Newman Club hears Hubbard

Glacier priest relates Alaskan experiences

Calling Alaska the land of promise and dispelling rumors that the United States had any thing to fear from aggressor nations, the "Glacier Priest," Father Bernard Hubbard, S. J., held his audience spellbound with a lecture and movie sponsored by the Newman club Friday night.

Father Hubbard, tall, barrelchested, gray-haired dean of the geology department of Santa Clara university, declared, "I think Alaska is one of the most misrepresented countries in the world," and then he went ahead that salmon fishing alone grosses five times the purchase price of Alaska, that in his travels he has waded in crude oil up to his knees, that Alaska holds enough coal to last the world indefinitely, that that with the sort of pioneers that settled Nebraska Alaska could become the greatest dairying country in the world.

He laughed at the suggestion that America need have any immediate fear of attack—"Hitler has a bellyful," and "the Japs

(See PRIEST, page 4)

JOHN McDERMOTT. Barb

Progressive

JOHN STODDART.

Liberal . . . For senior prexy

Liberal

Daily Nebraskan survey

How often do you read the (Encircle answer) 0, 1, 2, 3,

How often do you read a Lin-

Do you approve of adding

Do you use the coliseum fa-

How often per week? 0, 1,

(See page 4)

cilities for workouts and show-

No 🗌

No [

$1.00 to fall tuition fees for automatic subscription to the

DAILY NEBRASKAN?

Yes [

Yes 🗌

2, 3, 4, 5.

All men answer:

coln city newspaper per week? (Encircle answer) 0, 1, 2, 3,

All students answer:

Progressive . . . For junior prexy

With election fever running high, factional supremecy ou the campus will be decided today when barbs, liberals and progressives throw their political machines against one another as students go to the polls to cast ballots for candidates for eleven important posts, and six "eligible bachelors."

Polls will be open in the Union on the city campus and in Dean Burr's office on the ag campus from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.

To sound out student opinion concerning further use of coliseum facilities, the organization of cooperative houses, and universal subscription to the DAILY NEBRASKAN, the DAILY will submit a questionairre to every student voting in today's election. The following questionnaire will be answered by all students in Tuesday's election:

Affiliated ... Unaffiliated ... See editorial and printed proposals in this issue of the DAILY.

Featuring the election is the selection of junior and senior class presidents. Nominated for the senior class presidency are Warren Alfson, John McDermott, and John Stoddart. Junior class nominees are Vike Francis, Fred Meier, and Gilbert Hueftle.

At the same time, students shall vote on the following proposal as submitted by the Student Council:

Nominations for the class and college representatives of the Student Council, and such other persons as may from time to time be designated, shall be made by the filing of the name of the candidates, together with an affidavit of eligibility signed by the registrar and by the president of the point board, not

(See VOTE, page 4)

Harry Gottlieb . . .

Illustrates silk screen process for printing of reproductions Artist to appear in Morrill

Harry Gottlieb, New York art- ship and he has been lecturer at this week. Opening today and continuing through Nov. 25 will be a large exhibition of the artists' work. The display is open to the public.

Gottlieb, recognized as a promito prove his statement. He said nent American painter, will supervise laboratory groups of those wishing to learn the silk screen process. In gallery B will be a display of 25 recent paintings and drawings by the artist, including several large oil paintings. Many the soil is incredibly fertile, and are of industrial subjects for which he is noted. Steel workers, fishermen, miners, and other workmen are also included in his Winter landscape.

Gottlieb's "A Winter Landscape" was shown as part of the annual 1932 he held a Guggenheim fellow- afford to buy," ist, will give demonstrations of the Columbia university, the Springsilk screen process of print repro- field, Mass., museum of fine arts, duction in the Morrill hall galleries and the New York world's fair.

In gallery A a group of 14 silk screen prints by Gottlieb will be hung, along with a special series of progressive proofs indicating the steps in making a silk screen print. This gallery will also contain recent examples of commercial silk screen printing, a color process which has had widesperad

The artist has said, "The American people cannot afford oil paintings or even water colors, yet they want pictures, in their homes. The sharecropper tacks up pictures from Sunday papers. Thousands slightly better off buy ten-cent store 'old masters.' With increasing public demand, the price of silk screen pictures will quickly decrease to meet the need exhibit here in 1938. In 1931 and for an art which the people can