

Socially Speaking

Among suggestions any soul might make for an improved U of N let us add that laudable thought of commemorating Armistice Day every Monday . . . A long weekend, this, that most people took home with them . . . some went hunting, like Delt Barney Buehl—minus date this time—the publications chiefs convened in Detroit . . . with Aden and Forke stopping over in Chicago; Harris delayed his back-to-Lincoln movement in Omaha but Ed Siegrist came straight home . . . he telephoned DDD Martha Whelan whose intentions also . . . Karl Arndt's Ec class heard from Forke . . . Avery sent a singing telegram in greeting that punctuated Friday morning's quiz.

The rest of the people—or stoopeds—took in a house party . . . there were only ten . . . all darn good parties also . . . Friday night rain didn't seem to put the damper on any good times . . . Sightseen: Betty Baker and ATO Bob Sandberg at Pi Phi; Ren Bucacek's classic remark to Chi O Ruthie Millar's date, Kris Berger—he hadn't even met Eric Thor whose pin she wears—the cute Phi Mu decorations . . . and the color the costumed Sig Chi's added to all the other parties . . . they left their closed party for look at the others.

Saturday nite the DU's tossed another good deal . . . it's their second you know—they've got the right idea . . . the AGR's closed down and it seems that they dated a lot of lasses away from the AXIDelt Round Up . . . De Schill was out there with Bob Rupp . . . nursing her broken ankle . . . Tri Delt's threw a fine party and the Sammys were in top form and the Beta Sigs Husker party was as good as it was supposed to be . . . we hear . . . it was sort of closed . . .

Plenty popular lass must be DG Betty Lemon . . . some five Iowa lads came to town to see Betty and the game . . . DU's weren't they?

Sorority mothers will have to cross Phi Gam Byron Deck off their definitely on the loose list cause it seems that his real true love and stuff is in Sullins College, state of Virginia, and there is quite some speculation that maybe she wears a Figi sweet-heart pin . . . the lady called the lad the other nite also . . .

The Delta Tau Deltas pledged Chuck Shubert, Harry Poppas, and Wally MacDowell . . .

Have you seen Beta Bell—Ned—strolling toward the KKG house, also . . . a pledge seems to have caught the roving eye or something . . .

Purely in the interest of three lads and their slight request we're taking a page out of the Business Manager's little book and inserting an ad—by request: Wanted: Military Ball Dates by Bus Black, Benny Kohout, and Bud Boyden. Slight specifications . . . not over five-five, weighted accordingly, must have the ability to dance, chat, and they'd prefer beauty queen material. Any young woman filling these shoes are urged to call the Phi Delt house at once . . .

would quit if they could." Father Hubbard displayed both his genial wit and biting sarcasm in his comments on the military situation in the far north.

He spiked rumors that Soviet Russia was building an air base within striking distance of Alaskan shores by pointing out that all his investigations of such a move had proved it to be propaganda. He also criticized the use of politics in the selection of two very poor naval and aviation bases in southern Alaska.

By the results obtained from his expeditions in Alaska, Father Hubbard expects to prove that the Eskimos are Tartar refugees from China. His investigations showed that they spoke a language akin to Chinese, and he hopes some day to compare recordings he made of their tongue with their Asiatic relatives to show he is right.

thinks Anne is far below the family's social standard.

After the marriage, Victoria levels all her naturally vindictive nature against the young bride. When her own sister, Caroline, attempts to befriend the girl, Victoria turns against her also. The family remains under Victoria's hard thumb.

But—just as a nation sometimes turns against its dictator—the family slowly rises in revolt. In one of the play's tense dramatic scenes, Rip and his wife "tell off" Victoria. A plot to murder Anne follows the revolt.

COOLER, Milder, BETTER-TASTING

With Chesterfields the smoking situation is always well in hand—because Chesterfields have what smokers want.

Chesterfield's right combination of American and Turkish tobaccos makes it the smoker's cigarette.

Do you smoke the cigarette that SATISFIES

YEARS OF PAINSTAKING STUDY and research have put Chesterfield far out in front in the blending and preparation of tobaccos to give you a cooler, better-tasting and definitely milder cigarette. (As seen in the new film "TOBACCOLAND, U. S. A.")
