By JIM EVINGER

Hear ye, all you critics!!! Here's an idea this corner would like to try: we are asking for letters or notes of criticism in regards to the makeup and nature of news content on these sport pages of the DAILY.

'Husker glamour boys'

The University Daily Kansan went over-board for the Huskers, granting five places on its conference team. . . Alfson, Luther, Forrey Behm, Fred Preston, and Harry Hopp were on the Jayhaker first eleven. . . Royal Kahler, Eddie Schwartzkopf, Vike Francis, and Hermie Rohrig (named captain) were second team choices. . .

In addition, the Kansan went a bit further and named an All-Big Six Glamour team. . . Behm and Alfson again, along with Center Freddie Meier and George "Bus" Knight were picked on this "pretty-boy" lineup. . . Ah, bliss. . .

Minnesota survey

In a student poll conducted on the Minnesota campus recently, the Gopher under-graduates voted in favor of the Viking football team appearing in the Rose Bowl. . . The vote stood 64.8 percent for participation in Pasadena on New Year's day. . .

In the Kansas State Collegian, only two Cornhuskers were placed on its All-Big Six eleven. . . Those two were Butch Luther and Warren Alfson. . . Three players, incidentally, were from the Wildcat school and also Oklahoma. . .

Husker attendance

Nebraska gridders played to one more home crowd this season in comparison to 1939 and still gained only 13,000 fans over last year. . . A year ago, the Huskers played to 120,000 in four home games, while 133,000 fans viewed the Scarlet footballers at home this fall. . .

Excuses for this are the cold weather and the fact that both Pittsburgh and Minnesota, Nebraska's great intersectional rivals, were played on foreign fields. . .

Husker cagers depart Friday for S. Dakota

Only one more day and the 1940-41 basketball season at Nebraska will be in full swing. Off to Vermillion, S. Dak., Friday morning will go a squad of 12 Huskers and Coach W. H. Browne to play the University of South Dakota quintet.

Leading the Scarlet cagers will be Don Fitz, senior guard-forward and ex-Jackson high athlete, who is one of the standout basketballers in the Big Six conference. —Journal.

Towering Al Randall, six-foot seven-inch center, will be the other probable senior in the starting five tomorrow night. The ex-Omaha South cage star is counting on this, his last, season to show the stuff that has long been expected of him.

Held stands out.

The other Husker stalwart is Sid Held, rangy guard and junior, who was one of the best sophomore stars on the maples last year in the Big Six loop. Six-foot four-inch Held is very adept at taking the ball off the bankboards and can be counted on for a goodly number of points per game.

The other forward spot will probably be filled by Hartmann Goetze, St. Joseph, Mo., star, who last year as a sophomore more demonstrated why he was classed as one of the outstanding cage stars in the Show Me state.

Sophomore at guard?

The open guard spot will likely be filled by a sophomore, John Thompson, Jackson high alum, and Max Young, Bethany high graduate, are the leading candidates for the fifth spot on the starting five. Thompson is a short and stocky guard but has good defensive ability, while Young has height and a good scoring eye.

Others that will press the first five heavily are Johnny Hay, Lincoln junior; Ted Greene, York sophomore; Bobby Bramson, Omaha soph; John Fitzgibbon, Tobias first year man; and veterans Lyle King, Chuck Vacanti, Les Livingston, Bob Garey, Don Pollock, and Max Hulbert.

Barbs' volleyball leagues lined up

Registration for barb intramural volleyball play was completed with 16 teams on the list. There will be four streamlined leagues of four teams each, and play will commence next Monday.

The following teams are entered: League 1 (American) Davis Hall, The Gauls, Tappa Nu Kegg, and Jerka Korka Club; league 2 (National) Baldwin Hall, Omega Club, Brown Palace, and Pioneer Club; league 3 (Semi-Pro) Mad Russians, Dark Horse, Galloping Gosts, and Termites; league 4 (Amateur) Husk's "U" Kolonels, Cornshellers, Casino Club, Stratford.

The touch football finals are scheduled to be completed Thursday. Wednesday KKK met ACBC and the winner of this contest engages the Termites for the championship. The barb title-holder will then engage the Phi Delt, fraternity champs in the University of Nebraska "Rose Bowl" game.
