

Alfson lands on AP All-America

Eleven other Huskers given grid mention

The Wisner 188 pounder was the only one from the Big Six to land on the first eleven. Missouri's Paul Christman was named on the second team, while 11 other Huskers were given honorable mention.

Those given honorable mention

WARREN ALFSON.

were backs Vike Francis, Walter Luther, Herman Rohrig, Harry Hopp and Roy Petsch, and linemen Royal Kahler, Fred Preston, Eddie Schwartzkopf, Forrest Behm, Ray Prochaska and Clarence Herndon.

Four members of this mythical eleven were repeaters from the 1939 season. They were Paul Severin of North Carolina, Nick Drabos of Cornell, Tom Harmon of Michigan, and John Kimbrough of Texas A. & M. The first team:

- End—Paul Severin, North Carolina.
- Tackle—Nick Drabos, Cornell.
- Guard—WARREN ALFSON, NEBRASKA.
- Center—Chester Gladchuk, Boston College.
- Guard—Bob Suffridge, Tennessee.
- Tackle—Robert Retanhard, California.
- End—Erwin Ered, Mississippi State.
- Quarter—Frank Albert, Stanford.
- Half—Tom Harmon, Michigan.
- Half—George Franek, Minnesota.
- Full—John Kimbrough, Texas A. & M.

Collier's selections.

Collier's All-American selections for college athletes gave Nebraska's Warren Alfson a first team place, and Lloyd Cardwell and Charles Brock were given positions on its all-professional eleven.

Frat volleyball into semi-final playoff rounds

Another phase of fraternity intramural activities is now practically completed. That phase is volleyball and it is within one game of being finished. After this game is played, league 2 will have a winner and then the four leagues can get together in a final playoff.

Sigma Phi Epsilon and Delta Upsilon have almost a championship to play off between themselves when they get together this week to decide the number one team of league 2. Each has won four and lost none thus making this an interesting tilt.

In league 1 Phi Kappa Psi

Sodaks beat Huskers extra periods, 40-39

VERMILLION, S. D.—It took the University of South Dakota two extra periods before turning back the Nebraska quintet here Friday night to win 40-39 in the season's inaugural for both teams.

At the end of the regular playing time the score was knotted at 31-all. Sid Held's bucket tied the game 37 seconds before the end of the playing period, and a last minute fielder by Burton Anderson cinched the game for the Coyotes.

Don Fitz had a chance to tie the score again with 12 seconds remaining, but missed a free shot, and the scoring was over.

Fitz high man.

Both teams took it easy and slow in the first half. The Huskers held a 5-2 first quarter lead and a 13-11 advantage at the intermission. As the game got to rolling, the Coyotes held a third period lead of 23-21.

High scoring honors for the evening went to Howard Taplett, South Dakota sophomore guard, with 16 points, while Don Fitz counted 11 for the Huskers. Sophomore Max Young sifted through 10 and Sid Held 8 for the rest of the principal Husker scores. The box:

breezed through all competition winning their league by a final score of five wins against no losses. The Phi Psis won from Sigma Alpha Mu, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Tau Omega, Theta Xi and Beta Theta Pi.

Kappa Sigma with an evenly balanced team advanced through five stiff games without a setback, deserving a chance at the fraternity intramural crown.

In league 4, winning four and losing one, Alpha Gamma Rho went into the playoffs as the league representative. The finals will be between Phi Kappa Psi, Kappa Sigma, Alpha Gamma Rho and either Delta Upsilon or Sigma Phi Epsilon. Complete postings of all the teams will appear as soon as the latter game has been decided.

A very high complimentary clipping from the sports editor of the Oklahoma Daily, Sooner collegiate paper, concerning Nebraska's going to the Rose Bowl is as follows:

"I can safely say that every student in the Big Six schools will be pulling for those Cornhuskers in their little tussle against Clark Shaughnessy's boys on New Year's day.

"The Huskers have one of the best elevens in the nation. Stanford will have the toughest struggle of their lives trying to halt a team coached by one of the smartest head mentors in the midwest. Just ask any Oklahoma fan who knows anything about the game of football.

"And just think how the prestige of the Big Six conference will go up if the Huskers make a good showing! Yes, the Nebraska bid to the 1941 Rose Bowl is just about the biggest thing that has happened to our little conference."

Those are kind words, Sooner Bill Morrison. I'm sure all Nebraskans appreciate such writing and are glad we have supporters down Oklahoma way.

Bev Finkle, Nebraska sports enthusiast now in New York, sends along some clippings from the nation's largest city. Besides himself, Finkle claims that Radio Announcer Bill Stern of CBS and John Kieran, "Information Please" and sports editor of the New York Times are Nebraska's strongest boosters back there.

Tim Cohane in the N. Y. World Telegram wrote, "... Now Nebraska knows how Cinderella felt." Joe Williams in the World Telegram writes, "The Major (Biff Jones) was one of the best coaches Army ever had, and he's expanded with passing years. He isn't going all the way out to Pasadena for Myrna Loy's autograph. He'll throw a handful of pretty fair footballers at the Californians ..."

According to the Kansas State Collegiate paper, Nebraska rates the cellar in the Big Six basketball loop this winter. In addition, its sports editor goes on to say that "Although they have the tallest squad in the conference, the boys are learning their basketball from a new coach this year and the team as a whole does not have any outstanding individual performers."

UN Tanksterettes invite women to attend meetings

Any girl who wishes to join Tanksterettes may attend meetings during the trial period which lasts until February. In February definite tryouts will be held and all those who pass will become regular Tanksterettes. Those who fail to pass will be dropped from the organization.

Girls who are interested should be safe in deep water, know two good strokes, be able to dive and have fair speed. They should turn in their academic schedule at the intramural office. Regular meetings will be held every Wednesday at 4 p. m.
