

Socially Speaking

Jo Duree

Dear Santa:

It sort of seems that you are the most eligible of bachelors, the season being what it is. For once we thought we'd keep track of the trend, follow the flock and file a wistful missive for your mail.

See, old dear, the way we look at it, if you'd just take care of a couple of little things everything would be hunky dory.

First, can't you cudgel your brain and evolve some way to get the band to the Rose Bowl . . . Santa, the demand's getting plum pressing. All the state papers are full of it . . . it's just gotta be. Please?

And then, after you take care of the big matter . . .

Please arrange an introduction between us and G. Emerson Souders, Beta . . . we'd like to meet the guy who has such appeal that Barbara Stout, KKG pledge, calls him for a date to the Mortar Board party . . . unusual insofar as they weren't together at the social the previous Friday . . .

Then, Santa, line up up a job like Delt Ardin Nestrud's got in Omaha . . . he's got a couple of long titles in the Pontiac outfit . . .

Then, send us some bubble bath . . . the Phi Gams think it's swell stuff . . . a couple of AOPi's posted some over so that Bub Thompson and John Kerl could—well—bubble in their bath . . .

Oh, Santa, you'd better fix up a date for Kappa Sig Rex Weaver for their buffet supper . . . brother Frank Sims snapped off Pi Chi Margaret Koupal while Rex was attempting to call her . . . gee . . .

Bye, now . . . but did you know that Jack Castle and Lorraine Chant are a Sig Chi-AOPi steady combination now . . . likewise Ann Thomas, DG, and Bob O'Connell, Phi Psi . . . plus social note, Roland Finley pledged ATO and the Delta Delta Deltas are entertaining their traveling secretary . . .

Have a happy time at the Mortar Board party . . . and if we don't see you, Merry Christmas . . .

YW vesper choir to sing carols

Singing a group of five carols, the YW vesper choir of 20 voices will present its annual Christmas program at 5 p. m.

After the professional "O Come All Ye Faithful," Marian Cramer will read scripture verses which tell the Christmas story.

The choir will sing a group of five carols: Lo How a Rose (Praetorius), Christmas Carol (Hungarian folk song), Sleep, Holy Child (old French carol) with Milrae Anderson as soloist, Nativity Song (Plympton), Noel of the Bressan Waits (Bressan folk song), Marian White and Ruth Surber will play two flute duets, and Betty Conday will sing a contralto solo.

The service will close with a special arrangement of Silent Night, Holy Night, by the choir.

Frances Keefer directs the choir and Virginia Kent accompanies the group.

On the basis of recommendations made revised zoning rules will be made.

Two hour parking.

Effects of the restriction of R street to a two hour zone, put into effect by the city council upon recommendations of the Innocents society and Dean H. H. Foster to the city attorney early this month, were explained by Donaldson and Regler to be as follows:

1. Those from down town who had been filling the places on R were forced further north onto the campus and particularly north on 10th.

2. An abundance of unfilled parking places are available for students on R street near the centers of campus activity.

3. Office assistants and members of the Law faculty are having to park on the campus and are applying for zoning changes.

The committee recognized that changes of this nature would require alterations in the habits of the various groups. With the diagonal area on the west side of the street, it will be necessary to come on to the campus from 14th or to circle north at the mall in order to be heading south to park. Provision was made for the diagonal zone on the west however, to facilitate the emptying of the campus following classes and at noon when the major traffic is southward, thereby removing the congestion at 14th and S.

Members of the Innocents committee studying the problem are Gerald Spahn, George Frischer, Ed Segrist, John Mason, and Clyde Martz, chairman.

Out where gals are gals; team to train there

You can always count on the chamber of commerce.

From Phoenix, Ariz., yesterday came a special bulletin from that body bringing news of great entertainment planned for Huskers when they take their pre-game training there.

And came the warning that the Big Six champions are not to be surprised when they are met by Arizona's beautiful coeds who will appear in short fringed skirts, cowboy boots, and ten-gallon hats.

So it looks as if "out where the west begins," so does the fun.

hotel while in Los Angeles.

Returning, the train will leave Los Angeles at 12:30 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 2, using the Southern Pacific lines to San Francisco and eastward to Reno and Salt Lake City. The special will make a stopover from Thursday night until 8:35 p. m. Friday at San Francisco. The Great Salt Lake will be crossed at sunset Saturday.

The Union Pacific will carry the train from Salt Lake to Denver.

YMCA sponsors 'all-ag night' party Saturday evening

An "all-ag night" will be sponsored Saturday by the ag college YMCA. The event, which will last from 8 to 11:30 p. m., will be held at the city YMCA building, at 13th and P streets.

Various forms of entertainment are planned including dancing, bowling, games and swimming.

Morris Myers, chairman of the evening's entertainment, will be assisted by Doyle Free.

Leaving Denver at 9:15 on the Burlington route, the special will reach Lincoln at 7:15 p. m. and Omaha at 8:30 on the same date.

Reservations can be made at any Burlington, Rock Island or Union Pacific passenger and ticket office in either Lincoln or Omaha. The university athletic office is not taking reservations.
