

Socially Speaking

Jo Duřee

BY CHRIS PETERSEN.

On the social merry-go-round, ten mills F. O. B. Lincoln, complete with broken down clothes horses, parlor organ music, and brass rings for those who will take the vows come this Christmas vacation.

Duřee off on a social tangent sitting in as a fourth at bridge at the Uni Club; Sunday with nothing to look forward to but Monday; and the thought that the only person who can raise the devil around here and get away with it is a spirit medium.

And lots of people at the Gamma Phi formal last night including the blonde Kansas importation (minus the tariff) Virginia Appel with Kappa Sig Ralph Combs. All of which brings to light the reason for the Awgwan's delayed appearance. It seems that Combs is one of the key men on the publication and that work just doesn't move along without him. Diversion on each of the afternoons during the last week in the form of Miss Appel has kept the man from his work and so on Friday, Editor George Frischer remarks blandly: "To quote an old axiom, quote, 'An Appel a day keeps Combs away.'"

And additional pairings at that starched shirt affair included Louise Eppinger with Proky Nuernberger, DU; Triva Muchmore on the arm of Frank Matton, Beta; Jean Saeger coupled with Sig Nu Dick Svoboda; and Lougene Everson with SAE Dick Drayton.

A Mortar Board reverse that reversed itself was that of Georgia Covey, Alpha Phi and Ed Calhoun, ATO, when the latter messengered a corset to the lass during the dinner hour at the Uni Club with a note reminding said lass to wear said squeeze jacket when appearing in said place. 'Nuff said.

Now that we have six eligible bachelors we want to venture one query, "What are they eligible for now that they weren't eligible for before?"

Santa Claus came early to avoid the Christmas rush bringing Pi Phi Betty Roach a sparkler from Robin Hemphill, Sig Alph who spirit writes for the Pink Rag and goes to law school on the side.

And Vike Francis ensnared by an arm of the law the other day. The arm walked up to the side of the car and said, "Where ya goin, bud?" Reply came, "I don't know." The arm counter-queried with, "What's your hurry?" And the reply thus, "Oh, I wanted to get there before sundown."

Speaking of irons in the fire, which we weren't, Sig Chi Jack Castle pops up as a steady with Lorraine Chant of the AOPi house yet has a dinner dance deal next Saturday with Frances Bodinson, Triple Delta.

Kappa Ellie Lutz at the Mortar Board the other night to SAE Clark O'Hanlon who is the other half: "This is the smoothest floor I've ever danced on," to be shadowed by the retaliation, "Yes, I've just had my shoes shined."—And it looks like messages to the Sigma Nu house will be by carrier pigeon from now on because the phone company wants their money for all the calls the lads made, supposedly free, to the 20 corners of the country on a broken pay phone. People of the speaking wire company found out and are going to collect or else. Crime Corner for today—Kappa Signs dining dates tonight at the house with Christmas turkey—And how can one standing in the parlors of the Theta or D. G. house on a formal night help but accept Phi Psi Monk Meyer's remark that a girl is "Certainly willing to take what is becoming to her."...So it is here that we give this writing the axe and say, in the best Chinese manner, "Chop, chop."
