Jo Duree

By Yvonne Costello.

Poor Duree lies in a prone position suffering with the flu, so I'm elected to let you in on the sayings of those who seem to know what goes on. First of all the DU formal this weekend was a huge success and the usual comment is passed around in regard to the absent DU's at their own formal. Lots of people were there, including Theta Hattie Costell with Sig Chi Don Hartman, Phi Delt Bob Poe and Kappa Mary Jean McCarthy which brings up the Kappa formal last night where Sigma Nu Stan Truhlsen and Ruth Haney will again get back in the harness. Creighton's Military Ball took several localities out of town Friday night, but we don't know what special occasion called SAE

Frank Roth and DG Kappy Horner to at least get started for Omaha —last reports couldn't verify their safe return. Not only formals have occupied the little boys and girls over the weekend but a jitterbug contest kept Alpha Phi Pat Herminhouse happy, at a local theater.

You'll probably see several of the stronger sex enjoying themselves to the greatest possible extent from now on because of the draft tidal wave which will sweep several away in June. Kappa Sig Bob Kerl and Sigma Nu Joe Walla will be among the absentees.

Back from vacation came Pi Phi Georgia Swallow with a bountiful picture of Kenny White, a Sigma Nu at C. U.

Wedding bells will ring on February 1 for Gamma Phi Virginia Apple and Jim Melson, Phi Gam at Kansas U. Best wishes and may they live happily ever after. The same greeting goes to last year's Mortar Board, Marion Bradstreet, who will speak her vows with Bill Arrowsmith on February 9.

Back in town for a visit is Phi Psi Tom Kyser who is enjoying his stay by seeing Pi Phi Maxine Fuller. By the way, what happened to Dale Russer in that Fuller league? Walter Rundin of SAE fame is now reverting back to the Fremont Variety—the name is Jean Monnich at the Monarch apartments and phone number is 202—ask information.

And, congratulations to Miss June Pettit of Lincoln who won the Lincoln Ella Bishop contest and gets to hobnob with the movie stars...Miss Pettit is 22 and works in a department store.
