

The Chancellor meets Hollywood...

Chancellor C. S. Boucher smiles warmly at his lovely dinner companion, blond Barbara Pepper, Hollywood actress. Both were guests at the gala premiere banquet in the Cornhusker, given in connection with the premiere of "Cheers for Miss Bishop," movie based on Bess Streeter Aldrich's best-selling novel with a university background. The Chancellor was an honored guest along with Mrs. Aldrich and a number of Hollywood celebrities. Irvin S. Cobb was the speaker of the evening.

Socially Speaking

Jo Duree

With a couple of incomplete sentences and a...we're here to tell you that with the weather like soup the only thing that keeps us from being mired in the depths of despondency is the knowledge that the world is peopled with lovely souls...

Say, ambitious lads like Sigma Nu Preston Hayes and Kappa Sig Donn Curtwright who are lining up a couple of student bands to make music and money...

And sociably inclined houses like the AOPi's who exchanged dinner with the Sig Chi's...to say nothing of the Fiji-Alpha Phi dinner deal, which of course made Carl Olenberger very happy because he is especially fond of the gals over there...

Steady go Lois Williams, Pi Phi pledge from Fremont and Alpha Tau Omega Thomas Hood...

And because Walter Charles Randin is the unwilling, unwitting object of so much unfavorable publicity we go on record—two or three of them—as saying he is a charming youth...

Candy went the rounds to the Palladian pals the other morning when Marjorie Hush and Vernon Wiebush did a turn with the chocolates...

Official news on the Delta Sig side says that Joe Flammang is contemplating seeing his pin beside Glory Hanson's ChiO pin... but where does that put all the supposed Flammang unhappiness over some supposed fun Glory had California bound?

Some little lass is keeping just plenty good track of ATO T. Miller...she calls nightly in a checkup sort of way.

Sort of a thrill for ChiO Lois Becquet was meeting Wayne Morris and the other folks who were here from the west coast... Morris is DU Ed Coffee's cousin and Ed spent most of the day with the brawny actor, taking date Lois right along...

That pin that Betty O'Shea of the Thetas wears is traced to Jack Morrow, Phi Psi. No Phi Psi pin, however, the little gadget is a Geo. Washington Uni. ditty... class pin or something like that.

So you will KNOW it's a GO!

Paleontologists to gather here

Paying honor to Dr. E. H. Barbour, museum director, members of the Society of Vertebrate Paleontology, international scientific organization, will gather in Lincoln next summer, according to C. Bertrand Schultz, assistant director of the museum, just returned from the society's winter meeting in Cambridge, Mass.

An expedition, marking the 50th anniversary since Dr. Barbour organized the first museum field party will be made into the Republican, North Platte, Niobrara and White river valleys following the convention.
