

An eye on
Girls Sports

By Jeannette Mickey

A friendly battle between sisters of the bond occurred Wednesday in the finals of the deck tennis tournament as the two Gamma Phi teams played to decide the championship. Maryellen Robison and Ruth Coordes, league II winners, defeated Mary Ellen McKee and Jean Geddes, league I winners, to settle it. Now we're wondering if the plaque will reside among "Robbie's" horse collection or will be shared by all.

Now that the round robin bowling tournament is over, the serious work begins. Scores for the three games have been totaled, and the following 15 high teams (in order of rank) are entered in the elimination tournament which begins Monday:

Theta 4, Pi Phi 1, AXO 1, DDD 1, Gamma Phi 1, Theta 2, Theta 3, DG 3, Phi Mu, SDT 2, AXO 2, Kappa Delta, Alpha Phi 1, and DDD 2. If numbers mean anything, the Thetas and the Alpha Chis have a head start with three teams each. A new addition to the tournament will be the entrance of an ag college team, the winner of their own round robin contest, making 16 teams for the tournament.

Speaking of ag college, special mention should go to Mrs. Jean Danielson, ag phys ed director, and the comparatively new WAA council who have set up the intramural program for the girls on that campus. Not only are they enthusiastic, but they're good having defeated city campus varsity teams in Nebraska ball and soccer baseball. Quite a record!

Basketball practices began last night with the newly installed public address system being initiated into intramural duty. Miss Loize Montgomery doing the honors. The Pi Phis, Thetas, Kappa Deltas, and Bouton Hall are scheduled for their first practice tonight.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Arthur H. Steinhaus, prominent man in the fields of physiology and physical education, spoke to a group of women phys ed majors and teachers, and showed films of physical education taken in Europe. Miss Nancy Miner, now teaching here, figured in several scenes which she promptly stole. She was in the group accompanying Dr. Steinhaus on his trip thru Europe.

Call for track enthusiasm in barb sports

With barb sports on the upward trend, this year, for the first time, a barb track meet is possible. The event, if sufficient interest is displayed, will be repeated annually, becoming a regular part of the barb program. Tentatively scheduled for late March or April, all barbs interested may use the varsity facilities in preparing for their pet events.

Ping pong is the next sport on the barb calendar, beginning shortly after the current basketball program is completed. Entries are being accepted now in the intramural office. Teams, consisting of at least five players, may also enter at the barb office in the Union, or by calling Budd Walker at 2-5053.

Immediately after ping pong will come handball, provided sufficient interest is shown. A handball team consists of three men, who will play either three singles matches or one singles and one doubles. Other sports on the barb agenda are tennis, tentatively, and softball, positively.

Ag engineering society elects Munter president

Ernest Munter will serve as president of ag engineer's society this semester, Dean O. J. Ferguson of engineering college announced Wednesday following an election of officers for the society. George Lewis will serve as vice-president, Winston Hedges as secretary-treasurer, and Walter Sanderson as reporter.

Huskers sink Iowa State, 45 to 39

Swimmers nip 1940 Big Six pool champs

By Bob Miller.

Nebraska swim fans who were on hand at the Nebraska-Iowa State aquatic duel, last night at the coliseum pool, were also present to see history made as the Husker's took a 45-39 decision from the Cyclones.

Iowa State started out in a high speed manner annexing the 300 yard medley relay to gain six points to the Husker's three. The next race evened the count and provided the opportunity for Bill Edwards, junior free styler, to prove what he was worth.

And prove it, he did by not only turning in an upset victory over Roger Adams, Iowa State Big Six conference champion, in the 50 yard free but also pushing the same Adams to the shore in the 100 free, to garner second place in that event. That was not all for this swimmer because in the 400 yard relay, the deciding event, he picked up a lead which he gave to Hilgert and allowed the Huskers to come out first.

In the diving event Ralph Worden took the spotlight for Nebraska while capturing first with 102.2 points. The surprise in this event came when Bill Hull of Fairbury took second place.

About this time in the meet it was Les Oldfield's turn to take over. In his specialty, the 150 back stroke, Oldfield not only broke his own pool record that he set last week against Grinnell but also unofficially clipped 2.9 seconds off the Big Six mark in this event. His time was 1:44, and the conference record that was set by Davis of Oklahoma in 1936 is 1:47.5.

Don Hilgert, high scorer for the meet, got off to a good start when he won the 220 free style event, then came the 440 free which Hilgert also took in his stride. In the next event he swam anchor on the winning relay team.

This was the meet that the Nebraska mermen have been pointing for and it is their fourth victory of the 1941 season. Saturday afternoon at 4 Nebraska swimming enthusiasts will have another chance to watch the team in action. This time it is Oklahoma who will be coming from Norman with a strong team in the hope of defeating the home team.

BENNIE RIGGS: is the tough looking bruiser above who wrestles in the 155 pound class on the Michigan State team which grapples here today.

Grapplers host to Michigan State today

Beaten in all four early season starts, Nebraska's wrestling team will attempt to swing over to the victory column Friday afternoon, when it is host to the Michigan State grappling squad in the coliseum.

The East Lansing team has won all four of its matches this year, winning over Wheaton, Ohio State, Michigan and Case.

Leading the Michigan Staters are Co-Captains Charley Hutson, 175 pounder, and Bennie Riggs, 155 pounder, both from Ponca City, Okla.

Heading the Husker grapplers are two lettermen, Milton Kuska, 121 pounder, and George Cogle, 136 pounder, are the better wrestlers. Ken Husemoeller, 145 pounder, stands a good chance of coming up with a victory. The lineups:

- 121: Merle Jennings, MS vs. Milton Kuska, N.
  - 128: Burt Jennings, MS vs. Roy Shaw, N.
  - 136: Leland Merrill, MS vs. George Cogle, N.

Sid Held elected as 'N' club secretary

Sid Held, Nebraska basketball guard and baseball pitcher, was elected secretary of the "N" club Wednesday night at a meeting held at the chamber of commerce.

Held fills the vacancy left by Bob Burruss, Omaha football center, who graduated from school at mid-term. Fred Meier, Lincoln junior and football center, and Clarence Herndon, Grand Island football tackle, fill the posts of sergeants-at-arms to succeed Roy Petsch and Harry Hopp who have left school.

United States naval academy's regiment of midshipmen, numbering 2,601, is the largest since World war days.

Illinois Relays call Nebraska cinder squad

Nine Cornhusker trackmen with minds full of thoughts of winning events and breaking records will leave by train tonight for the Illinois Relays to be run tomorrow.

One speedy little redhead, Gene Littler, has visions of breaking the tape for the 300 yard dash Saturday with a new world's record. Sports fans who seen him run or recall that he tied the present record when he ran the 300 in 31.2 second at the relays last year believe he can do just that.

Littler's performance in winning the quarter mile classic in the Sugar Bowl New Year's day and in surpassing two varsity records during practice supports this belief. Within the past week "Red" has passed the record for one lap around the indoor track with a speed of :26.9 and has dashed to a new university speed in the 60 yard dash with a time of 6-1.

Harold Hunt, who has cleared 13 feet 9 1/2 inches this winter in the pole vault has cause for hope also to repeat as a victor. Hunt tied with Higgins of Missouri in the Relays last winter.

Sophomore Bobby Ginn of Madison will be out after the 1,500 meter title. Early this week, Ginn toured the indoor oval in the time of 4:20.9 for the mile.

Bill Smutz, and Bob Kahler will represent the hurdle contingent from Nebraska. Harold Scott, in the pole vault, is the other veteran going to Illinois.

Newcomers list Don Morris of Scottsbluff who will travel along with Littler over the 300 specialty and possibly the 75 year dash. Two more sophomores are Vic Schleich and Wayne Blue, football weightmen, who will be showing the shot put about. These latter two have both exceeded 48 feet in the shot.

The nine Huskers and Coach Ed Weir will leave by train Friday night arriving in Urbana for the preliminaries Saturday afternoon. The finals will be held that night.

Husker quintet on Tiger court Saturday night

Nebraska's basketball quintet, still within range of a share in the Big Six cage bunting, travels to Columbia, Mo., tomorrow night to battle the league dwelling Missouri Tigers.

The Bengals have lost all five of their conference starts, while the Huskers have a four-three record. The first meeting of the two here in Lincoln last month found the Tigers on the short end of a 40-29 score.

Coach A. J. Lewandowski named a squad of ten men to make the Missouri trip, leaving by train tonight.

The starting lineup will probably be John Thompson and John Fitzgibbon, forwards; Al Randall, center; and Don Fitz and Sid Held, guards.

The second five going is comprised of John Hay and Les Livingston, forwards; Lyle King, center; Hartmann Goetze, and Max Young guards.

New York university has received a $50,000 gift from Bernard Baruch for establishment of a professorship in therapeutics.

Tiger cub for nom de plume...

Above is little Herbert Gregg, diminutive Missouri Tiger forward. Gregg stands but 5-8 and weighs only 145 pounds but is still one of the leading scorers on the Bengal quintet. Missouri plays host to the Huskers in Columbia Saturday night and little Herb promises to make things tough for the Nebraska five.
