

Thumb-nail sketch of swim team

By Bob Miller.

Just in case you wonder who make up the 1941 Nebraska swimming squad that is getting so much deserved credit, the DAILY presents a thumb-nail sketch of each of nine swimmers.

Ralph Worden is a two year senior major letterman from Alliance. Competes in the diving event and has been defeated once this season by a team mate. Held the Big Six diving title in 1939. His best point record this year in dual competition is 120 points against Oklahoma.

Bill Edwards is a junior letterman from Lincoln and is the individual high scorer so far this season and last season also. Bill competes in the 50 free, 100 and the 400 relay, which helps to roll up a 60 point total this season. Has been defeated once in the 50 by Yeo of Kansas and in the 100 by Adams of Iowa State. Best times in the two events are :24.5 and :55.9

Foster improves

Le Roy Foster is a junior minor letterman from Lincoln and competes in the 200 yard breaststroke event besides swimming breast on the 300 yard medley relay team. Thus far Roy has not shown all that he is capable, but showed improvement when beating out Kansas last Friday in his specialty.

Les Oldfield is a sophomore from Lincoln who is slated to crack every record in the books concerning the 150 backstroke before hanging up his suit. Thus far this season, Les has second place in number of points scored. He set a new school record and has bettered the Big Six mark every time he has swum this season. He also swims on the 300 relay besides the 400 relay. His best time this season is 1:44.6 or 2.9 seconds under the Big Six mark.

Hilgert beaten once

Don Hilgert is another sophomore from Lincoln and is a big reason why Nebraska is undefeated. He stars in the 220 and 440 free style and has been beaten only once in each event by Stover and Lemer of Kansas State. All of his times this season have been low and he is third high in total points scored. He also anchors the 400 relay.

Ky Rohman is also a sophomore from Lincoln, but has been hampered due to sickness this season. Ky competes in the 150 yard backstroke and swims the free style events in some cases. He has taken second to Oldfield in several meets.

Hull a good diver

Cliff Lambert is a sophomore from Lincoln and in the words of Coach Hagelin "has made more progress this year than any other two fellows on the team." Cliff did not compete in high school and Grinnell was his first race against competition where he came in third in the 220. He also competes in the 440.

Bill Hull is a sophomore from Fairbury and holds the distinction of being the only sophomore to ever get one win from teammate Worden in diving. Bill has shown

Edwards has eye on two firsts . . .

Lincoln Journal and Star.

On the mark and with an eye on a pair of two Big Six swim victories in the conference swim meet Saturday is Husker Bill Edwards. This junior letterman from Lincoln is the chief man of the Nebraska 50 and 100 yard free stylers. In addition to his specialty races, Edwards is one of the main cogs in the 300 yard relay team.

Cornhusker vs. DAILY . . .

Here's the Yearbookie idea of advance on battle of week

. . . at 4 p. m. today

BY LIGHTIN' GORDON.
Cornhusker staff writer.

Friday afternoon at four on the coliseum maples the Cornhusker Yearbookies meet the DAILY quintet in one of the outstanding basketball games of the week in the Capital City.

The coliseum record of 7,200 persons, set in 1937, will undoubtedly be broken today as enthusiasm continues to run high. The coaches of both fives have been holding secret sessions this past week.

Coaches Weirich and Russel of the Yearbook quintet have not revealed their carefully laid strategic plans but it is expected that they will "shoot the works from the opening gun."

The Nebraska workouts have been confined to the Union basement gymnasium the past week, and one scout reported that the DAILY will put at least two men on "Wildcat McDermott," who is the leading exponent of the "soft touch" shot.

Frosh cagers in curtain raiser to Husker-Jay game

Nebraska's crack frosh basketball squad will give another preview to next year's cage team when they do battle again in an intra-squad game, Saturday night, in the coliseum as a warmup attraction to the Husker-Jayhawk tussle.

The Red and the White squads have each a victory over the other in games thus far. Saturday's fray marks the championship game between the two frosh teams.

The game will start at 6:30 and will last until about 7:30. It will be the frosh basketball workout until the spring practices begin. Young Paul Amen is the head frosh cage mentor.

The probable lineups.

Reds	pos.	Whites
Bob Bramson	f.	George Gribble
Warren Marquis	f.	Ken Eison
Don Anderson	c.	John Bottorff
Bob Heinzelman	e.	Wayne Kellogg
Allen Artman	e.	Ed Smith

Substitutes.

Tom Rice	Tom Dworak
Bill Rupp	Allen Canfield
Perry Fuller	Ken Johnson
Bill Leininger

"Wildcat" and will probably run rampant since the DAILY will attempt to bottle the "Wildcat." "Stalwart Stewart" the Cornhusker center will round out the first line of defense and this trio is one of the most fearful front lines to ever appear on the Coliseum floor.

"Fireball Forke" the "forty-pointer" will be at his regular right guard post, and "Roving Rundin," a fine floor man will start in the back court with Forke. "Click Royal," "Eat-em-up Edholm," and "Crasher Calhoun" will see service in the second and third quarters. (Assuming of course that the DAILY will need to play quarters in order to get their wind.) Early predictions according to bookmakers indicate at least a 40 point victory for the Cornhuskers.

Hooper attends meeting

Dean Hooper represented the College of Dentistry at the Congress on Dental Education and Licensure at Chicago on February 15.

Coach Weir, 16 tracksters go to cinder meet

Bound for Kansas City and the Big Six indoor track meet, a bus carrying Coach Ed Weir and 16 Nebraska trackmen will leave Lincoln at ten this morning.

Leading the Cornhusker aggregation is "Red" Littler, who will compete in the 60 yard sprint, the 440 and the mile relay. Harold Hunt, defending his conference vault mark of 13 feet, will be out to beat that mark. The tossing trio of Wayne Blue, Vic Schleich and Ray Prochaska, if in top form, may take the shot put event one-two-three.

Smutz on deck.

Bill Smutz is scheduled to compete in the broad jump in addition to both hurdles. Bob Ginn, the sophomore distance man undefeated this season, will perform in the mile and two mile.

Making the trip, but unlikely to see any competition are Don Morris, who cut his ankle Tuesday, and Harold Scott, who has a pulled ankle muscle. Missing from the team will be Sophomore Ralph King in bed with the measles.

Kahler returns.

Bob Kahler will see action in both the hurdles and the 60 yard dash. Dale Garrels and Bill Cook ought to garner points in the distance events for the Huskers. Arden Kersey in the 880 may come thru with a score.

Harlan Culwell, miler; Bob Bowles, in the 440 and the mile relay; and Jim Brogan, half mile and relay man complete the roster. Preliminaries will be held Saturday morning and afternoon with the finals Saturday evening.
