

Daily staff yells . . .

'We want our hatchet back'

... after humbling Yearbookies

By George Abbott.

Last October the Cornhuskers barely eked out a victory over the staff of the NEBRASKAN in football—and dishonorably. Last Friday the staff of the NEBRASKAN romped over the Cornhusker staff in basketball—honorably, and WE WANT OUR HATCHET BACK!

In a game marred by 228 personal fouls (four of them called on NEBRASKAN players) the highly vaunted Yearbookies fell before the merciless onslaught of the modest members of the NEBRASKAN'S team.

Yearbookies bribe ref.

Getting off to a slow start, the NEBRASKAN team let their opponents score two baskets (Ah! what a truly sportsmanlike gesture) before they turned on the heat, and from then on the Martzmen were never led.

The scorekeepers for the game, consisting of the female members of the Yearbook staff, had some little difficulty in keeping track of the baskets made by the marksmen representing the DAILY.

Quoted at half-time, Shirley Russel, head scorekeeper and business manager of the Cornhusker, said, "Well, what if we did miss 10 or 12 of the baskets the DAILY team made?"

Yearbookies score!

"The referee said he would raise his arm every time a point was scored, and anyway if he doesn't do a better job the last half he won't get the free yearbook we promised him, so there."

Incidentally, the score at half-time was 29-17, but after the mumbo-jumbo point juggling of the scorekeepers, the scoreboard read 23-17, with the score at the end of the game, again quoting Miss Russel, "within 10 points—for the DAILY, 33—for the Cornhusker, 27.

Deduct from DAILY score.

Asked to explain the mysterious mathematical process by which they kept score, Lois Christie, with an angelic look on her pretty face, sighed, "Ohhh, it was simple. At half-time we merely deducted five points from the DAILY team's score, and so that the points would not be lost entirely, we compensated matters by adding them onto the Cornhusker score."

Avery "Floogie" Forke, who lost a pint and a half of blood in a transfusion Thursday night, it was easy to see, was left by the transfusion—a half-pint. Bob "Bucketless" Aden and John "Jointless" McDermott, the two aces of the yearbookie quintet, showed their complete ignorance of the game by arriving clad in ear-muffs, gloves and ice-skates.

The game, which was scheduled to begin at 4 o'clock, was delayed for 30 minutes, while three of the athletic members of the Cornhusker team struggled to re-

Company holds interviews here

Personal interviews and group meetings will be conducted at the university by the Omaha manager of the International Business Machines corporation on Monday.

Group meetings will be held in social science 309 at 9 a. m. and 1:30 p. m.

PICTURED ABOVE on the left is angelic Bob "Bucketless" Aden, coach, player-manager, and employer for the members of the Cornhusker's highly-touted basketball team, which was so decisively humbled in the annual battle with the flashy DAILY NEBRASKAN quintet, coached by Jim "Size 43 Pants" Evinger, pictured on the right.

Palmer and George Abbott, with high scoring honors going to Abbott and Walker. Harris acted as spark-plug for the team with brilliant passes from back-court, with brilliant assistance by Palmer and Jim "Size 43 pants" Evinger.

Intermittently collapses.

Palmer and Svoboda amused the crowd of spectators by intermittently collapsing from exhaustion, while Walker, Smith and Abbott amused themselves by mixing brilliant shots from mid-court with collegiate-like under-basket work.

The yearbookie staff, made up of several men never before seen on the campus, was bewildered from the start. They were outplayed in every department, and when Aden was evicted from the game for carrying (and making use of) a 48 ounce baseball bat, their morale collapsed completely.

Put lid on DAILY basket.

After Aden's eviction, a lid was placed on the basket of the Daily staff to make the game a little less one-sided, so the Daily concentrated on defense, holding the yearbookies scoreless. The referees for the game, Dick Young and Neal Felber, turned in a brilliant performance for the Yearbookies, and should be duly commended for that.

However, the Daily forgives the hammerheads of the Cornhusker team for their ignorance, their unsportsmanlike conduct, their continual fouling, their amazingly large staff from which to draw players, yes, for all of this we forgive them, but, since they received the hatchet trophy for the winning of the football game last fall (dishonorably), and since we won the basketball game 40-19 (honorably)—WE WANT OUR HATCHET BACK!

move their girdles. All in all, however, the yearbookies turned in a brilliant, consistently unsportsmanlike game, considering their bulging paunches.

Outstanding players for the DAILY team were Norman Harris, Jim Evinger, Bud Walker, Bert Smith, Paul Svoboda, Bill

Skit deadline set by Union

Tomorrow is the deadline for the entrance of scripts for original one act plays or skits to be used in the Union program Sunday, March 30. All scripts should be given to Pat Lahr, social director of the Union or Armand Hunter of the speech department. A prize of $5 will be awarded to writers of all scripts used.

Church Notes

Honors convo hopefuls must remove 'downs'

All students wishing to be eligible for recognition at the Honors convocation April 22 should remove any incomplete, condition, or "no report" not later than March 17, Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, registrar, announced today.

Each student who believes his record to date is of such a nature as to merit consideration for the recognition should confer with the proper instructor if he has any incompletes or conditions and have these matters cared for at once.

Lutheran

Lutheran Chapel service will be held today at 10:45 a. m. in Parlors XYZ of the Union with Rev. Erck presiding.

Episcopal

Sunday services will be held at 8:30 and worship services at 11 a. m. today. Tuesday the confirmation class will meet at 7 p. m. and Wednesday Holy Communion will be held at 7 a. m. and 10 a. m.

Baptist

Services will be held at First Baptist Church at 14 and Q at 5 p. m. Refreshments and social hour will be held at 6 p. m. A lecture will be given on Christian Science by J. Simon Davis, executive secretary of Christian Science Commission of Publications for Nebraska. The meeting will be presided over by Catherine Phipps. A social meeting will be held Friday, March 7 at the First Baptist Church.

First Christian

Wednesday evening at 6:30 the First Christian Church will hold family program with a fellowship meeting. At 8:30 p. m. Wednesday there will be a discussion meeting.

Vine Congregational

From 6 p. m. to 8 p. m. the university group meeting under direction of C. P. McNeill will be held. A discussion period, worship and supper will also be included.

First Plymouth

Congregational

University Sunday School class will meet at 9:45 today. The 11 morning worship subject will be "What Is Man?" At 7 p. m. a buffet supper will be held with Mr.

Raymond A. McConnell speaking on "How in the World can We Keep Lent?" At 8 p. m. a social period with Ed Hitchman presiding will be held.

Methodist Student House

Wednesday at 7:15 a. m. to 7:45 a. m. a lenten worship service will be held at the student house. Student classes will meet at St. Paul's church, 12 and M at 10 a. m. today. Morning worship is at 11 a. m. and the evening youth program will be held at 5 p. m.

First Evangelical

The college class will be held at 9:45 today under the leadership of Miss Edna Zanzow who will lecture on Personal Problems. The Sunday worship service will be held at 5:45 p. m. at Warren Methodist church. Supper will be served and proceeds will go to the World Student Service Fund. Evening worship will be held at 7:15 in the Union.

Catholic

Masses at St. Mary's Cathedral are held Sunday at 6, 7, 8, 9:30, 10:30, and 12 a. m. Novena services will be held at 4 p. m. today. At 7:45 p. m. mission services will be held. Weekday Masses are held at 6, 7, and 8 a. m. at St. Mary's

TIME and place

Compiled by Daily Nebraskan AWS and Union

Monday, March 3

- 4:00 YM-YW leadership class, Ellen Smith.
- 5:00 Ag WAA Council, Mrs. Danielson's office. Barb Council meeting, barb office.
- 6:00 Towne club, Union parlors A and B.

Tuesday, March 4

- 12:00 Pre Social Work majors, Union parlor X.
- 12:20 Ag YW meeting, home ec social room.
- 2:30 Newcomers club meeting, Union music room.
- 4:00 Newman club meeting, Union 316.
- 5:00 Rifle club, on range in Andrews. WAA volley ball, Ag activities building. YW vespers, Ellen Smith, speaker Helen Hosp on "Religion in South America." Ag Social Council meeting, Ag hall.
- 6:00 City campus YM cabinet supper, temple.
- 6:45 Ag square dance club, activities building.
- 7:00 Union ballroom dancing lessons for beginners, Union ballroom. Sigma Eta Chi meeting, Union 313. Newman club meeting, Union 316. League of Evangelical Students, Union 315. Ag campus YM Bible discussion, 302 Ag hall.
- 7:30 Barb Union meeting, barb office. Phalanx meeting, Union parlor B. Gamma Nu Theta meeting, Union parlor C. Ag Executive Board meeting, Ag hall.
- 8:00 Lincoln Bird club meeting, talk by Jose Carvalho, Morrill room 20.

Wednesday, March 5

- 4:00 Senior recital, Temple Theatre. YM-YW Personal Relations Group meeting, Temple. Tanksterettes, pool in coliseum.
- 5:00 Union matinee dance, Union ballroom. Rifle club meeting on range in Andrews.
- 6:15 American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Union parlor B. Nu Med meeting, parlor X.
- 7:00 Orchestra meeting, Grant Memorial hall.
- 7:05 Corn Cobs, Union room 316.
- 8:00 Phi Upsilon Omicron meeting, home ec parlors. Block and Bridle membership applications due.

Lew Sarett

talks on convo

Among the outstanding events scheduled for the Union next week is the convocation featuring Lew Sarett, poet, who will speak Monday, March 10 in the Union ballroom.

Sarett's subject will be "Slow Smoke," after the title of one of his books of poetry. The poet is a unique literary figure as he is a forest ranger as well as a professor and a lecturer.

Union brings nature lecture

Next in the series of Union special events will take place next Sunday at 4 p. m., when Sam Campbell, naturalist, speaks on "Behind the Scenes in Nature" at a convocation in the Union Ballroom.

With him, Campbell will bring his motion pictures on the North woods animal and bird life. The lecture will be free to all students.

Daily seeks subscription approval

In an effort to probe student opinion on the universal subscription plan, proposed by the DAILY NEBRASKAN, petitions will be circulated this week.

Benefits of a plan of universal subscription include: more features, circulation of the paper to everyone, and an eight page NEBRASKAN every day.

'Time and place' deadline 2 o'clock Thursday

Thursday, March 6

- 12:00 Ag YM-YW luncheon forum, 202 home ec building, subject "Dating Round the World." Sinfonia meeting, Union parlor Z.
- 12:20 Ag YW freshman commission, home ec social rooms. Ag YW upperclass meeting, home ec building, room 206.
- 5:00 Barb Activities Board for Women meeting, Union 307. Rifle club meeting on range in Andrews. Upperclass AWS taffy pull, Ellen Smith. Gamma Lambda meeting, Union room 313. Freshman AWS, Ellen Smith, Leo Cooksley on "Kosmet Klub."
- 5:30 Faculty group meeting, Union parlor A.
- 6:15 Sigma Tau meeting, Union parlor X.
- 7:00 Barb interhouse council, barb office. Christian Science students, Union room 316.
- 7:30 Scabbard and Blade meeting, Union room 315.

Friday, March 7

- 12:00 YM Bible discussion groups, former museum.
- 4:00 Student Panel forum with Dean C. H. Oldfather, topic "Is Japan the Problem of the U. S.?" Union faculty lounge, refreshments, everyone invited.
- 4:15 Bookcast from Union book nook, listen over KFOP.
- 5:00-8:00 YM retreat, temple.
- 8:00-11:00 Barb dance, Union ballroom.
- 9:00-12:00 Junior-Senior Prom, coliseum.

Saturday, March 8

- 8:00-6:00 Visual aids clinic, Union parlors XYZ, rooms, 313, 315, 316.
- 12:00 Visual aids luncheon, Union parlors ABC.
- 2:00-5:00 Bridge benefit, Ellen Smith.
- 9:00 Union dance with Bob Calamie's orchestra, Union ballroom.

Sunday, March 9

- 10:45 Lutheran chapel service, Union parlors XYZ.
- 11:00 Newman club meeting, Union.
- 2:00 Ag YM cabinet meeting, dairy building.
- 3:00 Sigma Alpha Iota concert, Temple Theatre.
- 4:00 Convocation with Sam Campbell, naturalist, on "Behind the Scenes in Nature," motion pictures, Union ballroom.

See the Nebraskan bulletin for late announcements and changes

Turnpike
In Person TONITE

★★ RUDY ★★
RUDISILL
and His Great ORCHESTRA

Featuring
The 4 Dix Brothers & Lovely
JEAN GORDAN

RUDISILL Starred for 15 Years with
JAN GARBER
as Pianist and Entertainer

Enjoy 5 Hours of GARBER Music Starting at 7 P. M.

30c Ea. Before 8 P. M.
45c Ea. After 8 P. M.