

Kampus Kaperings

with Marion Cramer

Reverse night

was witnessed at the Phi U formal Friday when the girls paid the way and furnished the corsages. Some of the lucky fellows were Farmhouse Louis Knoflicek with Winnie White; AGR Bob Rupp with Dee Schill, Alpha Xi; Kenneth Worth with last year's beauty queen Eleanor Crawford. Sylvia Zocholl was there with a boy from home . . . which surprises some of us who know that she and Dale Theobald often do their weekend dating together.

Break up

of the semester occurred between Kappa Phyllis Welch and ATO Bill O'Conner who passed the candy last fall, but have decided to call the whole thing off.

Towne club

held an exchange dinner Friday under the direction of Eileen Calahan and Laurel Morrison, with Pioneer Co-op and other barb men. Speaking of directions, many people went south to the Turnpike for their dancing pleasure this weekend. We saw unusual combinations there. Theta Harriet Magnuson was there with ATO Mark Hargraves. Alpha Phi Mary Bird did her dancing with Phi Delt Nick Duvas, while Kappa Betty Anne Nichols was twirling with Acacia Elton Wiley. Betty Anne is the girl who had her pictures taken with all the movie stars about Rose Bowl time. Also saw Gib Huefle there with Lucy Maxwell.

Steadying it

are Rosemary Krause and Beta Norm Yule which leaves Sigma Nu Bus Knight out in the cold. . . Not cold, but hot is the affair between Jean Echtenkamp and Herb Longren, who have decided to call it a steady deal from now on.

Kappa Delt formal

was the gala affair of the evening Friday where the dancing was done to the music of Johnny Cox and his orchestra. Kappa Delt Anna Margaret Limp was there with Kappa Sig Taylor Hale. . . all the Kappa Delt girls went home (after the ball was over) and had a cozy fireside party which seems to be a very nice way to top off a grand evening. Lots of people took in the Kappa Delt formal. . . Dorothy Jean Bryan was there after the Towne club exchange dinner with Ralph Shaw along with Ruth Hastings and Frank Howard who seemed to be having an extra special good time together. Nebraska Sweetheart Virginia Bergsten and Frank White, Phi Gam, took in formals both nights . . . since Saturday the Phi Gams had their formal at the Cornhusker.

Surprise

marriage of the year is that of Kappa Delt Evelyn Hopkins and Sigma Nu Jim Anderson who were married in Fremont last Nov. 30. Jim is now a Phi Rho at med school.

At the swimming meet

we saw Thetas Shirley Woods and Marge Jones with Phi Psis Bob O'Connell and Gordon Johnson, watching the meet very intently.

Practical joker

Beth Howley had a girl friend get all dressed up as a prize spook and go up to ATO Tom Miller with the sad news that beauteous Beth had gone out with another man, but she would be only too glad to act as a substitute for Beth. Tom, sufficiently embarrassed, was very glad to see Beth come down stairs to meet him. . . Quite a scare, wasn't it, Tom?

For dessert

The Alpha Chis entertained their local founders and Lincoln alums last night. The occasion was Hera Day, a sorority celebration observed annually.

Plymouth church presents special Lenten services

During Lent a special series of meetings has been arranged by the Sunday Evening Club of First-Plymouth Congregational church for all Congregational students and their friends.

Sunday, March 2, Reverend Raymond McConell will speak on the subject "How in the World Can We Keep Lent?" March 9 the group will meet at 5 o'clock to hear an organ recital presented by Mr. Donald Ketting.

On March 16 Professor Linus Burr Smith will discuss "Architecture's Contribution to Religion," and Armand Hunter of the speech department will speak March 23.

The monthly Youth Supper served by the women of the church will be held on March 30 at 6 o'clock with entertainment furnished by Mrs. J. Floyd McLain.

Palm Sunday, April 6, the group will again meet at 5 o'clock to attend the special Palm Sunday service by the choirs of the church under the direction of Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook with Mr. Myron J. Roberts organist.

At each meeting a buffet supper will be served.

LENTEN MESSAGE

Lent of 1941, beginning on Ash Wednesday, February 26th, should be a time of renewal of the spiritual emphasis. Education which leaves that out is forever incomplete. Man, like God, is a spirit, and in the things of the spirit must achieve his destiny.

The churches of Lincoln invite students and faculty to share in their services of worship. First-Plymouth joins in this welcome. A beautiful sanctuary, a beautiful service, beautiful music, a cordial welcome await you.

Sunday Mornings at 11 o'clock.

Sunday Evening Club at 7:00 P. M., with thought provoking programs and a social hour. Buffet Supper for 10 cents at 7 P. M. Special programs arranged for Lenten season.

Not men or mice but cakes of ice, not bad, not nice

Chipping the exterior layer off two icebergs that floated into the Kappa Sigma house about midnight last night, the Sig boys found two frozen brothers inside.

As their teeth and knees knocked together Bob George and Frank Sims explained that they had fallen in a pond and had trudged over two miles home. Deciding late in the evening to go ice skating the boys walked to a deserted pond on the south end of town. Both of the skaters fell deep into the frigid waters when the ice gave way. With no telephone available the two strolled the 25 blocks back to the house.

Ag YMCA begins Bible discussion series Tuesday

First of a series of early morning Bible discussion groups to be held by the ag campus YMCA will meet in ag hall 302 at 7:10 a. m. Tuesday. Dr. G. M. Kendall, Baptist university pastor, will lead the discussion.

General subject to be discussed for the entire series is "The Sermon on the Mount." Different leaders will be chosen for each meeting. Faculty members, business and professional men, and students will all be represented. The meetings will be over about 7:45 a. m.

College conference . . . In Chicago will draw six UN educators as delegates

The annual meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools will be held in Chicago March 24 to 29, according to announcement Saturday by Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, secretary of the association and university director of admissions.

Highlights of the program include an address by Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, president of the University of Wisconsin and national director of the selective service system, and a talk by United States Senator Joshua B. Lee from Oklahoma. Dr. Harriet S. Platt, president of the Pan American Council and research associate in the geography department at the University of Chicago, will discuss "The Cooperative Approach to Inter-American Unity" and Dr. Lucius C. Porter, professor at Yen Ching university in Peiping, China, will talk on "Understanding Japan's 'New Order for East Asia.'"

New feature.

An added feature of the program will be an all day conference on democratic in-service leadership on March 25. This will be attended by principals of secondary schools of the North Central Association, and among those participating in the discussion groups will be O. H. Bimsen, assistant superintendent of Lincoln schools and Paul Harnly, principal of Grand Island senior high school. Planning to attend the meeting from the university are Dr. Rosenlof, Chancellor C. S. Boucher, Dean C. H. Oldfather of the college of arts and sciences, Dr. A. A. Reed, director of the extension division, Dean F. E. Henzlik and Dr. F. E. Sorenson of Teachers college. Dean Henzlik will present a report of the committee on tenure.

More than 2,800 high schools and 300 colleges are members of the North Central Association which comprises 20 states. Its chief purpose is to establish closer relationships between the two groups in order to promote programs of activity looking toward improvement of formal education.

Orfield names four to law bulletin staff

Four additional student editors of the Nebraska Law Bulletin have been appointed by the editor-in-chief, Prof. Lester B. Orfield of the college of law. They are Donald E. Moore, of Oketo, Kas., Kenneth B. Holm of Omaha, Edward B. McConnell of Lincoln, and James F. Cain of Falls City. All are first year law students except Moore, who is a junior, and will serve for the remainder of their college careers. Appointments to the editorial staff of the bulletin are based upon high scholarship.
