Last night, St. Paul began its 55-day bowling siege... The American Bowling Congress started there in the Minnesota capital city...

Twenty-nine thousand keglers from 865 cities will compete... Even a 3-yard veteran will let fly with his special duckpin ball in the A.B.C. tourney...

The hardest shot in tournament golf?—That's the three-foot putt, according to Bobby Jones... That is because the golfer takes the defensive attitude when faced with a short putt...

Philip Bogdanovitch of Somerville, N. J., set a new freshman shotput record at Iowa State this week with a toss of 46 feet, 8 1/4 inches...

Iowa State cagers (and they should know—the Huskers defeated them twice) voted Don Fitz the best guard they faced all season... Howard Engleman was named at forward...

These two stars were listed on both the Cyclone all-opponent and all-conference lineups selected by the cagers... Chris Langvardt and Jack Horacek of Kansas State, Hugh Ford of Oklahoma and Bob Allen of Kansas were others named to the squad selections...

The dandelion season is quite aways off as yet, but the University of Oklahoma spring sports are well under way... Sooner golf, tennis, baseball, polo and outdoor track are all hard at work...

The Sooner golfers have a dual match on March 28 with Wichita... The ball nine opens against Baylor university on March 27... The polo team starts proceedings against Ohio State on March 24...

Nice thing—living in the south, eh?

How's this for a state high Class A tourney five comprised of members of defeated teams in the first round?

Forwards: Campbell, Lincoln and Mapes, Grand Island.

Center: Gallup, York.

Guards: Carpenter, McCook and Ha. Petersen, Albion.

In reserve are Bridge, Norfolk, and Strand, North Platte... This list of seven scored a total of 86 points for an average of 12.3 per game... Not bad for losers, hey?

Year in and year out, the St. Louis Browns pick up rookie ball players... But this spring, the Mound City clan has only eight new recruits in a camp of 33 players...

Filler—Reports have it that Lincoln high dropped out of the state tournament... Nasty rumor...

a song-writing team in Hollywood, while Flick is cast in the role of a script-writer.

The problem of designing and selecting the costumes to be used in the play was given by Theatre director, Armand Hunter, to Marian Anderson, who will be assisted by Rose Mayor, Marian's biggest problem in finding a costume is that of a uniform for Glenn Nelson, who will portray an English actor in the role of a Goldstream Guard.

Costume for this character will be a matter of some research and diligent searching for anything that resembles bear-skin, since the fur in the hat is supposed to be bear-skin. Miss Anderson laughingly asserted that "as yet, no bears have been sighted roaming the campus, so the hat is still a problem."

Costume problems.

However, the costume problems are not all this difficult. There is no problem of period costuming; all of the costumes will be modern, but they must be "Hollywoodish." The costumes will represent types and not original designs.

Miss Anderson has had experience at costume designing at North Dakota University and at Duschens college in Omaha, she did the costumes for several plays, including "Mary of Scotland" and "Monsieur Beaucaire." She designed the costumes for the Year Show while at North Dakota.

The DAILY NEBRASKAN

Prep basketball turns in two upsets as Jackson, South bow

There is one thing that is not certain anymore. That is—prognostication of state high school basketball results, especially tournament winners.

Upsets and more upsets came into being, Thursday night in the coliseum, as the class A candidates went thru their paces.

Falls City turned back seeded Omaha South 27-23 to start the ball rolling early in the evening. The half time score was 9-all. Forward Don James applied the difference with 12 points to lead the offenses.

Scottsbluff wins.

Fremont edged out favored Jackson 20-16 to topple a team that beat the Tigers in mid-season 39-13. A steady defense and a sure offense brought about the Cardinal downfall.

Scottsbluff gave the fans a certain reason why it is still undefeated this season in tromping Fairbury 35-17. Larry Baumgartel stood out in floor play before leaving the game on fouls.

Finals Saturday night.

Omaha Central kept a Gate City quintet in the tourney by overwhelming Wahoo 34-17 after a slow first half in which the Omahans held an 11-9 lead.

Semi-final pairing tonight features Falls City against Fremont at 8:30 and Scottsbluff versus Omaha Central at 9:30 on the varsity court.

The winners of those two matches meet in the finals of class A on the varsity court Saturday night at 9. Class C and B finals will be played at 7 and 8 o'clock respectively before the class A title game.

Welles, of 'Citizen Kane' fame, stars on radio tonight

Orson Welles, writer-director, actor, producer, just returned from Hollywood where he completed the new film, "Citizen Kane," stars in an original drama, "Aaron Burr," on the Kate Smith hour tonight at 7 p. m. over station KFAB.

Welles will play the title role in the play, which tells the tragic story of Aaron Burr, one-time vice president of the United States and later a convicted traitor to his country. The drama, highlighting the major events in Burr's life, was especially written for radio by Jean Holloway.

Reschedule Iowa grid battle; play 1941 game here

Final football game of the Cornhusker 1941 schedule with the University of Iowa will be played in Lincoln rather than in Iowa City as originally planned.

E. G. Schroeder, Iowa's director of athletics, announced that the change was made because an Iowa-Nebraska game draws bigger crowds in Lincoln than in Iowa City.

Botany professor revises textbook

Prof. R. J. Pool, chairman of the department of botany, has completed the reading of final proof sheets on a new edition of his advanced book, "Flowers and Flowering Plants," which will be published in April.
