Your Easter suit . . . and of course it will be a suit . . . may follow your heart's desire. For never before have suit fashions been so important, or so varied, or so infinitely becoming. There are the lovely dressy suits you'll wear from afternoon to evening, the tailored suits to wear from morning till dark. You'll be fascinated with the possibilities of change in a basic suit, thrilled with the soft look of the new shirt-maker . . . and delighted with the gaiety of a brave spring plaid. Whatever your fancy . . . suit yourself!
