

Campus Clothes

for College Co-eds

... correct for Spring, 1941

Your Coat

may be the casual type pictured, good almost any where any time, or it may be fitted and dressy with fresh, white revers. Either is a smart spring fashion found at MILLER'S. Navy, black, saddle tans, brown and tweed mixtures—17.95 to $35. (Juniors' and Misses' Wear)

Your Frock

for classroom wear, is tailored and comfortable, won't cramp your style when you're pouring over an exam, but pretty enough to wear coking afterwards. In pretty pastels and prints—6.50 to 12.95. (In sports-wear section)

For information and assistance on what the well dressed college girl is wearing, ask for our CLOTHES CONSULTANTS. (Second Floor)

Your Suit

... is likely to be much lived in, for it's practical but smart looking. We hope, for many of you, that your choice is a softly tailored style with the new longer jacket that has the new 1941 look. In plain colors, dark or pastel, and in plaids—19.95 to 39.50. (Juniors' and Misses' Wear)

Your Accessories

... may carry out a PATRIOTIC THEME, with military emblems bobbing up on everything... or you may like the new SADDLE TAN that's easily matched in bags, gloves and shoes. You'll find it easy to coordinate your accessories at MILLER'S.

MILLER & PAINE