Universal Subscription

Q. Why is universal subscription to the DAILY NEBRASKAN desirable?

A. Universal subscription would carry to every student the university news and administrative information that it is essential for him to know, and would furthermore make possible a paper with news content worth the money a student must expend for it.

On some college campuses the administration itself puts out a publication which is distributed to all the students and contains bulletins of importance to them. This is done out of university funds, the same funds that students pay in for registration. In the case of the Minnesota Daily, this administrative service has been combined with the student paper and a large and interesting publication to every student is the result.

If the activities and lectures on this campus are of any value whatever, it is of equal value to publicize them. If a person is to be a Nebraskan, he should have the spirit of Nebraska as well as the name. It is to make these things possible that universal subscription at a small expense is desirable.
