

Barb ping pong goes to playoffs

Barb ping pong has reached the playoff stage, with winners of the three leagues determined in Monday night's play. League I finds ACBC out in front with four wins and no losses, with Dark Horse, Davis Hall, Pioneer Co-Op and the Angels following in that order. ACBC swept thru the opposition in this loop with a minimum of difficulty, as all their games were 5-0 shutouts.

Flash in the Pan had little trouble with League II, as two forfeits, a 3-2 win of YMCA, and a 5-0 decision over the Boomerangs gave the FITP's the title. YMCA finished second in this circuit, with the Boomerangs, Tappa Kegga and Stratford bringing up the rear.

Topping League III, Palladian has a similar unblemished record—four wins and no setbacks. The Pals knocked off the Gauls by 4-1, outlasted Cornhusker Co-Op by 3-2, and whitewashed the Union Leaders 5-0. They also won a default victory over Eta Beta Pi. Second place went to the Cornhusker Co-Op, third to the Union Leaders, followed in order by Eta Beta Pi and the Gauls.

Ping pong playoffs will be Monday night, with the three top teams engaging in a round robin series. First match will pit ACBC against Palladian. The latter will then face the Flashes in the Pan, with the ACBC-Flash in the Pan contest finishing the evening.

Lineups of the teams will be as follows:

ACBC: Lambert, Grossman, Voigt, and Pielstick; Palladian: Marvin, Alexis, Stuart, Weibusch and Gibson; Flash in the Pan: Kerford, Capsey, Portwood, Dean and Krupicka.

Forty Dartmouth college students led by Robert O. Blood, Jr., son of New Hampshire's governor, are shingling barns, tending cattle and cutting firewood to aid discouraged and needy farmers.

Gwinn Henry's . . . Jayhawks may be 'Cinderella' team with new spinner wing

Kansas U. had a football season in 1940 that can best be described as "awful awful" and is going to try to do something about it this year.

Who knows, maybe the Jayhawks are slated to be the mid-west's "Cinderella" team this year.

Gwinn Henry's new style of attack, the "spinner wing," is drawing fans to the practice field as some 60 University of Kansas football players go thru spring practice.

The Jayhawk gridders are taking hold rapidly of the "spinner wing," which finds the quarterback, directly behind the center, handling the ball on every play. Most are run from a double wing formation.

Fourteen lettermen.

Fourteen lettermen are included in the spring practice squad. Two other returning lettermen, Don Pollom, halfback, and Ralph Schaaake, end, are out for track instead.

Two guards, who between them played every minute of every game at right guard, have been lost for next fall to the army. They are Herb Hartman of Newton and Jay Kern of Gary, Ind.

Lettermen reporting for practice include Bob Fluker, Clay Center, guard; Denzel Gibbens, Leocompton, halfback; Paul Hardman, Topeka, center; Jim Holloway, Topeka, tackle; W. F. Caney, tackle; Ed Linquist, Kansas City, Kas., fullback; Bob O'Neill, Topeka, end; Ross Relf, Fredonia, tackle; Walter Sheridan, Emporia, center; Hubert Ulrich, Quinter, end; Marvin Vandaveer, Wellington, quarterback; and Jim Zimmerman, Pittsburg, tackle.

Pi Delta Epsilon announces annual news writing contest

Prizes to be awarded for the annual editorial and news writing contest, sponsored by Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity, and rules for this year's competition were announced recently.

In the editorial competition first prize will be $20 and a gold insignia; second prize $10 and a silver insignia; third prize $5 and a bronze insignia.

All prizes in the news story competition will be the same as for the editorial contest.

Open to all.

Both competitions are open to all students, but must be written by undergraduates and must have been published during the academic year, 1940-41 in a college journal. Monthlies, quarterlies, literary magazines, alumni publications, or "comics" are not included in the competition.

Editorials or news stories must be submitted in duplicate as follows: One copy, in the form of a clipping so as to eliminate any indication of the source, and one copy, marked, of the complete issue of the publication in which the contribution appeared.

Material must be submitted to the director of the competitions, Dale H. Gramley, director of courses in journalism, Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa., not later than July 1, 1941.

Iowa State offers intensive defense drafting course

AMES, Ia., March 23.—Iowa State college has requested the United States Office of Education to approve a three month intensive course in drafting and engineering computations as part of the national defense training program to provide draftsmen urgently needed in machine tool and airplane plants, T. R. Agg, dean of engineering, announced today.

The course will begin March 31 and will end June 20.

Students who complete this course with a good record will be recommended for employment but will probably also have the privilege of continuing for a second 12 weeks of more advanced training, Dean Agg said.

"C" average required.

The requirement for admission to the course will be graduation from high school with an average of "C" or better.

The only expense to the student will be his living expenses and about $40 for supplies, including drawing instruments.

Provisional enrollments will be accepted now at his office at Iowa State college, Dean Agg said, accompanied by a copy of the applicant's high school record.

Coach and nine for 'old sol' pine

Coach Wilbur Knight wants to safeguard his boys from pulley and sore muscles due to too strenuous workouts in cool temperatures, but faces his first game April 11, against the University of Colorado.

Army man now . . .

Lincoln Journal.

A year ago last fall, Bob DeFruiter, pictured above, was the hero of the Husker campus. He circled end on a run which enabled Nebraska to score and upset mighty Minnesota in the first game on the 1939 grid schedule. But now, DeFruiter is army bound for duty in the selective service. Last spring, DeFruiter dropped out of school and came back this year with the expectation of getting eligible to help the Cornhuskers next fall on the football field. But "he's in the army now."

Kansas faculty, students carry on experiments

LAWRENCE, Kas. (ACP). Students and faculty members of the University of Kansas are in various stages of an experiment which, if successful, will be epochal in the field of medicine.

They are participating in a clinical trial of a new vaccine developed in the laboratories of the Rockefeller institute to combat in-

An eye on Girls Sports

By Dorothy Martin

The Kant Be Beasts reign as the 1941 basketball champs as the result of their 25 to 13 triumph over the Tri Delt's Tuesday in the intramural tournament. Virginia Pritchett led the winners with her sparkling points. The Tri Delt's gained the final round by defeating the Alpha Chi's, 15 to 12, while the KBB's outpointed the Gamma Phi's in a Monday night thriller, 32 to 22.

Compiling statistics, we found that Irene Hollenback, Gamma Phi, walked off with scoring honors with a 16 point average in three games, one game of which she put 20 points thru the hoop. Virginia Pritchett, KBB, had a 13 point average in four games.

A varsity team was picked from the list of participants on the basis of sportsmanship and ability. Results—for the Scarlet: Merriam Mann, KBB, Doris Patterson, Tri Delt, and Elaine Lin-scott, Whitney, as forwards; Lucille Bertelson, KBB, Jeannette Mickey, Tri Delt, and Barbara Flebbe, Raymond, as guards. For the Cream: Dorothy Martin, KBB, Eileen Kealy, Raymond, and Georgia Swallow, Pi Phi, as forwards; Maryellen McKee, Gamma Phi, Lillian Brown, KBB, and Kathryn Kellison, Whitney, as guards. Honorable mention went to Irene Hollenback, Gamma Phi, Virginia Pritchett, KBB, Peggy Williams, Bouton, and Lucille Maxwell, Towne Club, as forwards; Maryellen Robinson, Gamma Phi, Barbara Stoops, KKG, Harriet Black, KBB, and Katherine Martin, Whitney, as guards.

Last basketball game of the year will be played tonight when the varsity team meets the team from ag college. It should be something to watch.

Beginning Monday badminton practices will start. Five teams from each organization will be allowed to enter. Entries are to be made in the WAA office. Only doubles games will be played so find yourself a partner and enter.
