Ren Bukacek chosen Interfraternity secretary

Council sets up new system of inter-Greek management

cil as the system's new Secretary of Interfraternity Affairs. A sophomore in bizad college, Bukacek was chosen from 23 sophomore applicants to fill the position for the remainder of this term and thruout next year.

Serving under him as assistant secretaries will be Stanley Maly, Arthur Rivin, Jim Van Landingham, and Robert Mills. Picked from the ranks of freshman fraternity members, these men will serve for the same period as the new secretary. At the end of that time, one of the four will be chos-

Number One man in Nebraska Following a plan made famous fraternity affairs today is Ren by the Ohio university fraternity Bukacek who was announced last system, the new secretary will be Bukacek who was announced last system, the new secretary will be night by the Interfraternity Coundirectly in charge and responsible for all general fraternity affairs, will serve as contact man between the fraternities and the administration, will be in full charge of all rush week and rushing activities, and will carry on the constant business of the Interfraternity Council.

Included in the proposed program under this new plan are set-ups devised to bring the fraternities into closer harmony with each other, to promote and improve scholarship among the fraternities, to provide a fraternity education program for persons beyond en to fill the secretary's position the school, and to strengthen fra-during his junior year. ternity relationships not only on

REN BUKACEK. ... I-F Number One man.

Names Maly, Rivin, Mills, Van Landingham assistants

may be constantly available to all in the next few weeks. fraternities, the secretary and his the five positions open under the assistants will keep daily office plan were studied and interviewed hours in a newly established of-fice in the Union building.

The newly appointed staff will spend the remainder of this year setting up their office and laying plans in order that they may be ready for a full schedule of activity during the coming school year.

At the conclusion of this year's fraternity Council will become determined by members of the secretary-treasurer of the Inter-Judiciary Committee of the Interfraternity Council in conjunction fraternity Council. All appoint-with the office which he now ments made last night take effect holds. Present plans call for the immediately.

the campus but thruout the state. election of a new president and In order that the new service vice president of the Council with-

All men making application for by the Interfraternity Judiciary Committee before the decision was made.

The new secretary will be allowed to participate in no other outside activities. According to present plans, he will be so pointed under the men's point system that other participation would be impossible. The position will carry business, the Secretary of Inter- with it a salary which is yet to be

University may get new armory

Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

Vol. 40, No. 114

Lincoln, Nebraska

Wednesday, April 2, 1941

The DAILY NEBRASKAN New building would

Nebraska may have a new armory if negotiations between university, army and WPA officials, now underway, are successful,

Although formal application for WPA assistance has not yet been made by the university, conferences indicate that a $250,000 to $400,000 armory may be built on the Lincoln campus.

Carrying on negotiations are

Major Lobdell of the ROTC, L. F. Seaton, operating superintendent of the university, and A. A. Batson, state director of operations for the WPA and G. W. Welsh, district engineer of the WPA.

Would house ROTC.

house the university ROTC and would work in the national defense program. At the last meeting of the representatives Tuesday morning, further plans were dis-cussed but nothing final was decided. However, favorable action is anticipated, according to WPA

Tentative plans call for erection of the armory east of the coliseum extended from Vine to W streets. If the armory proposal is accepted, the state WPA offices, now located in the Terminal building would be moved to the 14th street side of the structure, according to present

What connection the armory

gram was not revealed, but it is fairly certain that all ROTC activ-

The armory would probably

Devoe tells lawmakers 'we've scraped the bottom

. . of the barrel'

the barrel," declared Regent De- to clearing up "sore spots." voe at appropriations committee hearing yesterday; "and now the legislature either must appropriate the necessary funds or the university will become a second rate

Prefacing his major remarks Devoe explained that the budget which the regents submitted to the governor was prepared honestly, Barb filings of the university as well as the state's diminishing tax revenue.

False economy.

"Certainly it is false economy," he said, "to spend millions of dollars and fifty years in building up an institution to the point where it is one of the finest in the nation; and then to destroy your previous appropriations by depriving the school of its genuine needs

The board of regents president

Counselors install officers, Joint action concerning endorse-ments of candidates is to be taken cellaneous committee—with emat a meeting of the Union and phasis on the miscellaneous. To the Coed Counselors board were installed yesterday, with Harriet Talbot as new president; Marion Cramer, vice president; Shirley ROTC band Phelps, secretary-treasurer. members are rey, Fran-Kinder, Dorothy Latsch and Sophomore members: Carol Chapman and Betty Angle.

Keefer,

Seniors retiring from the board are Mary Bullock, president; Ruth Sheldon, Irene Halienbeck and Betty Pierce.

and Elsie Piper.

"We've scrapped the bottom of general appropriation but rather a Devoe explained first that the 7,000 to 6,500 students did not mean that there would be a net decrease in university costs. "As

(See DEVOE, page 3.)

deadline set

Action on candidates to be taken at joint meeting Tuesday night

Students wishing the endorsewas principally interested in clear- ment of Interhouse Council and up some misconceptionists Barb Union must file by Saturday that had arisen concerning the ap- noon in the Barb office in the Unpropriation. His talk was not then ion, or with Blaine Sloan and Esdevoted to a discussion of the ther Connet, presidents of Barb Union an Interhouse Council respectively, according to an announcement made today by Barb

> Joint action concerning endorse- man of the public health and mis-Council next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. his committee for consideration To insure the fairest possible means of nomination, any unaffiliated student is invited to attend (See FILINGS, page 4.)

ry-treasurer. senior board to play concert Margaret For in Union Sunday

The university ROTC second Mary Eileen band will present a concert in the Dalton and Union Sunday at 3 p. m. Ward Grace Leaders. Moore will conduct the band as-Junior mem - sisted by Robert Buddenberg, corbers are Ann netist.

The concert will feature the new Janet Hagelin. Nebraska song "Nebraska, We'll Sophomore Fight for You" arranged by Eugene Ellsworth. This is the first performance of Geoffrey O'Hara's

The program includes two num-Clark, Beth Howley, Ruth Ann bers by Palestrina, Adoramus Te and Sanctus. Other selections are Pendragon Overture, First Suite in E-flat for Band, Prelude to Faust, Short welcoming talks were Immortal Legions March, Hymn given by the outgoing president and Processional and Second Conand the two sponsors, Letta Clark certo for Cornet featuring Mr.

Noted journalist . . .

Pinkley believes 'democracy is best form of government' . . . for Americans

"If we had to live in Europe for time we would be more appreciative of our democracy, which I think is the best possible form Devoe explained first that the of government we could have for drop in enrollment this year from the temperament of the American 7,000 to 6,500 students did not people." Virgil M. Pinkley, noted mean that there would be a net journalist, declared when interdecrease in university costs. "As viewed by a member of the a matter of fact," he stated, "the DAILY staff,

> Mr. Pinckley then discussed the countries of Europe individually and their respective roles concerning the war.

Role of Russia,

In regard to the role which Russia will play in the future, Pink-ley said, "Nobody knows, Russia, however, does not want to fight now unless she has to. She is not quite ready.

If she were seriously threatened thru the Caspian Sea, the Dardanelles, or the Black Sea, she would

(See PINKLEY, page 3.)

Capitol

Personalities

Senator Ray Thomas is chair-

Lincoln Journal,

RAY THOMAS.

come all of the homeless proposals

cosmetology, another advocating the display of the flag above the capitol at all times, another deal-

(See THOMAS, page 3.)

bills like these: one concerning

VIRGIL M. PINKLEY. ... says Russia is a mystery.

Kosmet Klub show tickets go on sale

Tickets for the annual Kosmet Klub show, scheduled for April 22 to 26, go on sale today and will continue until the week of the show. The comedy entitled "Torso del Torro" will include both men and women in the cast.

Tickets may be purchased from Kosmet Klub workers and from women who are working for them. The price is 55 cents and the seats are all reserved. These reservations may be obtained the week of the show in the ticket booth in Temple theater.

The show includes many comedy parts and singing and dancing numbers by both men and women.

Among members in the cast are Mary Adelaide Hnsen, Glen Nelson, John Mason, Betty Newman, of the team may answer for his and Carl Harnsberger.

Dancing classes present recital

Classes in sophomore folk dancing on ag campus will present a recital Thursday from 7 to 8 p. ms. in the activities building.

With emphasis on dancing in America, the programs will frature the folk dances of all the counties in the world. All students are invited to attend.

Junior-Senior Quiz begins

ity would be moved there.

Preliminary eliminations to be held this afternoon

Preliminaries for the final Junfor-Senior quiz will be held this afternoon in the Union.

Junior teams meet at 4 p. m. in rooms 313, 315 and 316 where they will be divided into three divisions of five teams each. The three winners of the divisions will meet at a later date to determine which team will represent the juniors.

Seniors compete at 5.

The senior teams compete at 5 p. m. in rooms 315 and 316. Divided into two sections of five teams each the two winning teams will have to compete against each other later to choose the representative of the seniors.

Each team will be asked seven general questions and any member

(See QUIZ, page 3.)

Firestone company to interview students

J. R. Knisely, Firestone Tire and Rubber company representative, will appear here Thursday, Friday, and Saturday to interview those interested in retail or wholesale sales work in both domestic and foreign fields, and those trained for accounting and auditing.