

Kampus Kaperings

Marian Cramer

Social calendar

for Saturday night included the traditional Sig Ep blues party held at the Cornhusker with the music of Johnny Cox and his orchestra. Couplings included Dwight Clemens and Alpha Chi O Janice Goldsmith, Bill Edles, and Dee Gee Kappy Horner, Norm Hibbard and Chi O Barabie Lee.

The AOP's "Horse Show" was the notable party down sorority row. Eula Harding was there with SAE Dick Fate while Bunny Chapline and Jack Clarke divided their time, spending half of the evening there and half of their time at the Kappa Sig Conscriptation party.

Romantic rumors

have it that Alpha Phi Doty Tip-ton of the "Boy Meets Girl" fame is now going steady with SAE Dick Spelts. There is another Sig Alph who is now free laancing it for it seems that Theta Betty Mae Klopp has decided to divide her time these days and is no longer on the steady goers list with Leonard Jacobson.

Towne club

members held their tpring formal Friday night at the Cornhusker. Jeanette Hultard was there with John Wagers, Eleanor Crawford and Kenneth Worth, Dorothy White and Jim Young, and Palladians Virginia Mutz and, Hugh Stuart were a few of the couples seen having an especially good time.

Warm weather

brings other things besides picnics and spring fever. Witness the various serenades which the girls heard the other night, or the antics of the Sigma Nu's who tied John Mackey to the pillars by the front door of the Delta Gamma house during the wee small hours of the night. The situation became even more embarrassing as the spotlights pointed out the fact that John was illustrating what the well dressed Sigma Nu wears in the dorm.

Then there is the story of the barb picnic scheduled for Saturday afternoon which was held in spite of the deluge, indoors of course!

Cinching things

are the two diamonds which have just appeared on the campus. Kappa "Mickey" Morrow is now wearing a sparkling diamond given to her by John Rasmussen a Phi Rho at med school. Clar-risse Purdy has a tell tale ring on that certain finger given to her by Innocent George Gostas. This is really no surprise for these two have been doing a modern Romeo and Juliette scene for quite a while.

Hospitalized

for appendectomies are Alpha Phi's Barbara Jones and Eleanor Berner and Kappa Marge Clarke. Add to this those other cases mentioned a few days ago and we might almost call it an epidemic.

Mary Pickford appears on Guild Theater tonight

To express her thanks to the Screen Guild Theater for its efforts to benefit the Motion Picture Relief Fund, Mary Pickford will make one of her rare radio appearances on the final broadcast of the theater series tonight. Stars who have appeared on the Screen Guild shows have donated their salaries received for the appearances to the fund to help care for needy members of the film industry. In this manner, over $800,000 has been contributed to the fund since the program first went on the air three years ago.

Melvyn Douglas and Joan Blondell are co-starred in tonight's last broadcast in a radio adaptation of the comedy film, "Hired Wife." Roger Pryor will be heard in his usual role as director and master of ceremonies.

Holck to abstract articles for medical publication

Dr. H. G. O. Holck, associate professor of pharmacology in the college of pharmacy, has been appointed as a regular abstractor for Biological Abstracts, published at the University of Pennsylvania under the auspices of the Union of American Biological Societies.
