

Kampus Kaperings

Marian Cramer

Al Busch

is entertaining a Kappa from Wisconsin, Jerry King who is spending a few days on the UN campus in order to see more of that certain Phi Psi.

From the page

which concerns amour we discover that there is a very solid rumor around to the effect that Ray Murray and Irah Mae Rengeler will be making an announcement along the lines of matrimonial intent ere commencement time.

Steadies seem to come to the fore again as Pi Phi Alec Ann Arthaud and Phi Psi Dave Cussac join the ranks. While not steady, the affair between Sig Ep Ted Hubbard and Chio Edna Mae Niedermeyer is progressing to that point.

On the other side of the romance fence we hear that the dating between Chio Lois Drake and Beta Jack Wiedman which was going strong a few weeks ago has definitely cooled off and may be at the cracking point about now.

Conventions

will take many of the fraternity jads to Columbia over the week end as the Phi Psis send new prexy Jim Selzer and old pres Stan Southwick. Tom Horn, pres of Sig

Chi will be heading the same way with several of the brothers for their convention.

Visitor

that many will remember is Chio Dixie Davis who is planning to spend a few days here around Ivy Day time.

Army news

tells that Kappa Helen Cather is seeing a lot of a certain man in a uniform who has come from Missouri for a few days visit.

Those who noticed that certain touch of June Jamison's in the kapering column yesterday were right, for June was the gal behind the news in the social column. All of which might prove that things are not as "black" as they were reported to be.

Senior students get scholarships

Three university students have received word that they have been awarded scholarships. Clyde Martz will accept one to Harvard law school, Bob Wekesser received one to the school of business at Columbia and Currin Shields has a scholarship for the political science department at the University of Wisconsin.

Farmers' Fair board to hold rally tonight

Keith Gilmore officiates at first out-door pep fest; Peterson speaks

A Farmer's Fair rally will be held tonight at 7 p. m. in the light of a huge bonfire on the pageant grounds at ag campus. Keith Gilmore will act as master of ceremonies at this, the first outdoor rally of the year.

Atmosphere will be lent to the affair with the first appearance of colorful red and black Farmer's Fair scarves, wide-brimmed sombreros, high-heeled boots, and gayly colored skirts and blouses. Beginning Monday the wearing of cotton garb will be compulsory—violation of the rule will result in a dunking in the horse tank.

Included in the program will be a speech by Dr. A. W. Peterson, manager of the Fair Board of a few years ago. He will discuss the changes that have taken place in Farmer's Fairs during the past few years. Novelty numbers will be group singing, dancing by the Floradora Girls, and old-time songs by the handle-bar moustached Barber Shop Quartet.

John B. Waite, professor of criminal law at the University of Michigan, is a bow tie addict. The other day 100 of 130 freshmen in one of his classes showed up wearing bows.

Sponsored by Pan-American group . . . Students to make good-will journey to South America

. . . during July, August

One student will be selected from the colleges and universities of Nebraska to represent the state in an official Pan American Youth Good-Will Tour to South America sponsored by the Pan American Youth Foundation.

Selection of the student will depend upon Chancellor C. S. Boucher's recommendation or the recommendation of a department head, the interest and background of the student. No application will be considered after Monday.

A deposit of $50 must accompany each application, and this deposit will be refunded if the application is not accepted by the membership committee. Expenses, to be provided by each representative, will amount to $948.

Combining air, water and rail travel, the tour will last during July and August, 1941. The group will be guests of the outstanding educational institutions, youth organizations, American embassies and official representatives of the various South American countries during the tour.

Information and application blanks may be obtained in the DAILY NEBRASKAN office.

Janitors at the University of New Mexico are campaigning to stop students from throwing pinon shells on the classroom floors.

Princeton university recently acquired a fossil of a bat estimated to be 60,000,000 years old.

Big Ten-

(Continued from page 7.)

Wright of Ohio State, once winner over Wolcott and American record holder in the 70 yard high hurdles, and Don Olsen of Illinois, American record holder in the 70 yard low hurdles. To better existing conference marks, they must hit the tape under 14 seconds in the high and 22.6 seconds in the low events.

Field event marks will be particularly vulnerable. Don Canham and Wes Allen, a pair of six foot, seven inch highjumpers from Michigan, will go after the six foot, seven and one-quarter inch record held by Dave Albritton of Ohio State. In the pole vault, there will be three 14 foot vaulters competing, including Minnesota's Jack DeField; defending champion Bill Williams from Wisconsin and Ed Thistlewaite of Northwestern. The record is 14 feet 2 3/4 inches by Cassels of Chicago.

Finally, there will be Archie Harris, national collegiate discus champion. He will attempt to better his own conference record of 166 feet 5 1/2 inches set last year at Evanston.

In Person at the UNIVERSITY COLISEUM

★ RAY NOBLE and his ORCHESTRA

With a Great Show featuring SNOOKY LANSON—Tenor and LYNN, LEE & LOU—Trio PLUS Presentation of 1941 BEAUTY QUEENS—ADMISSION—Gentlemen $1.27 plus 13c Def. Tax. Ladies 20c—Total Per Couple $1.60 WED., APRIL 30 (Ivy Day Eve) STUDENT UNION Third Anniversary at the COLISEUM TICKETS ON SALE AT Miller & Paine—Magee's Hotel Cornhusker—Walt's Long's Book Store and the Uni. Drug

Marti addresses Young Advocates

L. J. Marti, law professor, will speak on "The Functions of the Lawyer with Reference to the Income Tax Law," at a meeting of Young Advocates tonight in social sciences 209b at 7:30.

Party-

(Continued from page 1.) own queens" was granted earlier this week when the party committee asked permission to make the blow-ups to be featured as part of the Yearbook presentation.

Announcement at party. Winners and runners-up in the beauty queen elimination will be notified of their status at the party. The twelve girls still in the contest have survived a preliminary elimination, made several weeks ago by William Royer Hastings, eminent Hollywood fashion designer.

The life-size blow-ups will be auctioned to party goers after the presentation of the Nebraska girls has been made.

Candidates for Beauty Queen still in the running are: Marge Stewart, Alpha Chi Omega; Ruth Yourd, Alpha Omicron Pi; Nancy Halligan and Pat Herminghaus, Alpha Phi; and Mary Helen Dietrich, Delta Delta Delta; Jo Wray, Delta Gamma; Marie Anderson and Alice McCampbell, Kappa Alpha Theta; Virginia Ford, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Shirley Stratton, and Virginia Tomiska, residence halls; and Betty Malone, Inter-house council.

Elaborate preparations have been made for presentation of the Cornhusker Beauty Queens at the party. Special lighting effects for the presentation have been secured, and all party goers will be able to get a full view of all beauty queen winners as they descend a long staircase especially built for that presentation.

Queen-

(Continued from page 1.) shelter tents, cameras and other material manufactured by local concerns that are used in warfare will be shown.

A 75 mm. gun, artillery radio communication sets, model engineer roads and bridges, and composition of engineers' pack will be displayed.

In addition, motion pictures of unusual work of military engineers will be shown. Also featured in the exhibit will be a layout of the new Omaha-Fort Crook bomber plant superhighway, a gem of modern highway engineering, according to Seagren.

Other activities include a convocation, an afternoon of athletic events and a banquet where awards for the year will be announced.

A Doris Dodson for your next dress. Tailored casuals or lacy sheers. Bright new colors.

Sizes 11 to 17.

3.95 to 10.95

CREATED FOR YOUTH

Campus Corner Third Floor.

GOLD & CO.

For Your White Palm Beach

See Ben Simon & Sons

IT'S A WHITE PALM BEACH

It's a white Palm Beach Suit for all the warmer moments in a college man's life. Cool, light, washable—with fullback's shoulders and pole-vaulter's waist. At your clothier $17.75—today. Pastels and deep tones.

Palm Beach Evening Formals (white jacket and black trousers), $20. Palm Beach Slacks, $5.50. And by the same summer wear specialists—the new Goodall Tropic Weight—top value in lightweight worsted suits, $25.

GOODALL COMPANY • CINCINNATI

$3250 Prize Contest. See your clothier for details.