When the music of the one and only Ray Noble tantalizes the kiddies to dance the light fantastic tonight, many will look with interest at the 12 Nebraska coeds who are candidates for beauty queen. During the evening we'll all know who the lucky girls are. You'll see blond bombshell Pat Herminghaus with Jim Curchfield ATO. Take special notice of her dancing for this little miss has led the Alpha Phis to top honors with her twinkling toes. Sophisticated sorority sister, Nancy Halligan will no doubt be there with Beta Tom Woods, unless things are still on the blink.

When you see AOPi's personality plus girl Ruthie Yourd she will be with Hal Snyder the Sigma Chi whose pin she wears. When Max Whittaker, Delt, dances by, he will be with Betty Malone the girl whose poise and charm have made her outstanding.

Thetas will be well represented with smooth Marie Anderson on the arm of Farmhouse basketball player Don Fitz and Alice McCampbell, Nebraska's younger edition of Hedy La Marr will be seen in the company of her steady Ren Bucacek Kappa Sig.

Awgwan Flash has named two of the candidates "girls of the month." Sparkling "Dinny" Ford from the Kappa house dates Perry Fuller all the time now that she wears his ATO cross, Alpha Chi Marge Stewart makes the exception to the story about phys ed majors. Just ask any of the fellows including her date tonight, Ed Butler from the Tau house and they'll tell you that the she is an outdoor girl she's by no means their idea of a typical major from Grant Memorial.

Jo Wray, the girl whose piquant face looks like it might have been found in a finely carved cameo, hails from the Delta Gamma house and spends all of her dating time with Beta Pres. John Stoddard. Peppy is the word for Virginia Tomiska who will be dancing to Ray Noble with Ed Muir. Girls in the dorm have nicknamed her "Pug."

Last but not least we come to Shirley Stratton the girlish freshman that is seen with Royal Williams so much these days. Tri Delt Mary Helen Dietrich is again on the steady list with eligible bachelor Dick Gellatly from the Delt house.

As comes

Monday night, so come the candy passings. We learn that Virginia Clark treated the girls at the dorm to sweets even tho Sigma Chi John Cattle is in the army these days. Kappa Mary Jean McCarthy and Bob Poe came thru with long awaited sweets. The Phi Delts hurried thru a baseball game in order to get there in time for this Monday night special.

Theta had their sweet tooths satisfied when Dotty Chase and Carl Harnsberger brought the Phi Psis over from across the way ... Seems that Dottie gave her ankle a wicked twist in the mad rush out to the car.

longs to about all the boards and clubs on the ag campus.

Secretary of the board and Goddess of Agriculture Sylvia Zocholl has a long list of achievements including members of the ag executive board, the Cornhusker Countryman staff, and a couple of economic honoraries.

Richmond is treasurer.

Ganis Richmond, agronomy major, is treasurer of the Fair board. He is a member of Alpha Zeta, the varsity band, the ag executive board and other organizations.

Another senior member, Betty Jo Smith, is secretary of Mortar Board, was president of Loomis hall, and a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, the ag executive board and many other ag honoraries.

Sixth senior is Jane Brinegar, a coed-counselor, a member of a couple of home economic associations and the ag chorus. She has been active in 4-H work all through school.

Six junior members presented at the annual Fair Board party Feb. 21, are Ray Crawford, Harold Bacon, Dale Theobald, Betty Jeanne Spalding, Ben Alice Day and Ruth Miller.

Blond, brunette and redhead runs the feminine side of the Junior board. Ruth Millar is the red-head who has been working hard in preparing the Gay Nineties Revue, one of the features of this year's show. She has done some student teaching and active in YW group work.

Spalding is food director.

Blonde Betty Jeanne Spalding is directing the food stands for the fair. She's a Tassel and a member of BABW. Another Tassel, Ben Alice Day is dividing her time between publicity work for the Fair and the AWS presidency.

Harold Bacon is the singing board member. Leading the campus sings and taking one of the leads in the old-fashioned revue, he has also been active in the Block and Bridle, the 4-H, and on livestock judging teams. He is making plans for this year's parade.

Students placed by the University of Minnesota employment bureau in the last biennium earned a total of $410,542.99.

Ag honoraries entertain 200 at annual tea

Phi Upsilon Omicron, Omicron Nu invite high ranking women

Petty girl displayed in Union excites student comment

One of the highlights of the Cornhusker-Union party will be the auctioning by Avery Forke of the Petty drawings which will decorate the coliseum. The drawings which have been enlarged to life size have been the subject of discussion on the campus since one was put on display Monday in the Union.

Here is a cross-section of student opinion on the drawing. It is a Petty girl in a rabbit skin.

Bill Palmer, arts freshman:

"VERY NICE—I haven't looked at it yet, but I know the Petty girls are nice."

Bob Wallin, bizad soph.: "That's about the worst one I've seen—it doesn't look like a rabbit or a human either one."

David Holland, ag freshman: "I think he is a pretty good artist."

Douglas Varner, bizad soph.: "I think it's pretty nice—those ears are the best part of it."

June Jamieson, art freshman: "I think it's a very worthwhile project."

Bob Miller, bizad freshman: "I'll have to have another look"—then he whistled.

Gene Reese, bizad freshman: "After a fifteen minute deliberation—'NOT BAD!'"

Clara Louise Marcy, teachers freshman: "I think it's all in the way you look at it."

Dick Crook, arts senior: "I just glanced at it but it looks all right to me."

Durward Costeel, engineering freshman: "It's all right . . . my dream girl."

Ruth Tomlinson, teachers soph.: "I think it's cute."

Joy Miller, bizad junior: "I think it's swell—I like all Petty's drawings."

Bill Burnham, bizad freshman: "I'll be there on the front row to buy one."

Jean Kreuzscher, teachers soph.: "I think it's quite clever—very unlike Petty's drawings."

Desmond Corcoran, music freshman: "It's okay—couldn't be better!"

mental attitude. The last few years there has been an over-emphasis on sex education, Miltzer said. Most difficulties arise from the mental attitude.

There are three reasons for physiological difficulties: ignorance, lack of patience and lack of confidence. Many schools now offer courses on marriage, but the best educational method is through reading good books.

Kangaroo Kourt summons violators

At the Farmers Fair Kangaroo Kourt meeting last night, Judge Klostermeyer read the following list of students required to appear today at 4 p. m. before the Kourt which will be held north of ag hall.

Those not appearing will be held in contempt.

whole life to be taken into account. Settlements have to be made in life before and after marriage, but the settlements after marriage are much more important.

Miltzer referred to a question asked at the meeting last week when a member of the audience asked how far a girl can go in reforming a man.

The answer to the question varies with the individual, he said, but a woman can reform him in so far as the new pattern will make him a better man, but not to try to make him her "ideal" in the likeness of her imagination. Men just naturally hate to be domesticated.

"Men are judged more by the women they marry than women are judged by the men they marry," said Prof. Miltzer. "But a woman accepts her husband's social status."
