

Kampus Kaperings

with Mary Adelaide Hansen

will no doubt be quite dull to all freshmen, and perhaps to upperclassmen too, as my journalistic efforts, as it were, have become a little queered, along with campus acquaintances.

After two super-beauteous serenades by the Sigmas Nu and Chi Monday night, came the howls from various shrubs of a few of the boys, some identified as residents of S st. Whatever their condition, it was the closest harmony heard for some time.

Perhaps now is a good time to amend a little quickie I dashed out about the Sigma Nus two years ago (and it's not about the Pigge Dinner, boys, I still stick to my story about that). The little out house, so conspicuously set up in front of the Union with the letters "Phi Delta Theta" doning it, was done by the "Two-Innocents-a-Year" DU's, so I heard the other night.

Saturday night at the Phi Rho party seemed to be old home week for a few of our illustrious grads—Sig Eps John Bishop and John Scofield; ZBT Howie Kaplan; Sigma Nus, Dick Ryan and Jim Anderson (with spouse Evelyn Hopkins Anderson); Pat Leonard; DU's Elwood Pankinon, Bill Niehus and pin and active "six-year bizad course," Dick Young; ChiO Marguerite Young; Phi Psi Bud Yoder (with his third date for that evening. Likewise present were some of the prominent campusites celebrating Innocent tappings and some were just plain celebrating.

We understand that after five years and four summer schools, Butch Luther has decided that he must have his degree. He ran into Sam Francis who is working on his MA at Iowa, not long back. Sam started relating to Butch just how much a degree meant, and must have done some strong convincing, for Butch was telling the boys that he'd be coming back to get it...ah, yes, nothing like a degree for Butch. The profs will be waiting, no doubt, but we hope they don't hold their breathing apparatus until...or maybe around this exam time it would be a good idea. Of course, that isn't bothering me anymore.

New officers

elected Monday night are: Zeta

Beta Tau: President, Leonard Goldstein; vice president, Jim Lipsey; treasurer, Stuart Simon; secretary, Joe Kirshenbaum; and historian, Irving Malashock.

Sigma Delta Tau: President, Shirley Epstein; vice president, Anne Arbitman; treasurer, Rose Goldstein; secretary, Sylvia Katzman; historian, Miriam Rubinitz.

Alpha Tau Omega: President, Dick Stastney; vice president, Bob Norton; secretary, Harold Larson; historian, Bill Rist.

ATO

Wendell Bayse, and Tish Trester, KAT, were also decidedly dampened Monday night in front of the Theta house for refusing to come thru...and speaking of Thetas, seeing the "gardner" chopping down some of the undergrowth on the east side, reminds one of the times when Oolie Anderson used to dig dandelions and mow the lawn for nuthin'...ChiO Zoe Wilson is now going steady with Sigma Nu Bob Krause, and is spending her time worrying about her Gold Rush Party costume, as the Sigma Nus politely informed her that all dates are required to wear short skirts...three of the soldiers boys returned to Lincoln for a quick visit this last week-end—Sigma Nu John Bailey, Beta Sid Hardeman, and Glenn Reynolds—
