The weather

Partial cloudiness and scattered thunder showers are predicted today for this end of the state. The Art Rivin and Harold Margulies highest temperature yesterday was 93 degrees.

The infantry was checked for close order drill and command and leadership in the morning, and field artillery students held field exercises in reconnaissance and position at the ag campus. Engineers were busy in the afternoon constructing a bridge and trenches.

Big event today is the parade and inspection this afternoon, at 3. The review will be held at the athletic field, the inspection on the malls.

Carrying on the inspection are Col. C. A. Bagby, Lieut. Col. P. Winlock, Col. Raymond W. Briggs, Col. Lewis C. Gordon. They will decide whether Nebraska will retain the honor school rating it has held for over ten years.
