Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

Vol. 40, No. 144

Lincoln, Nebraska

Sunday, May 18, 1941

Faculty sends petition to nation's officials

UN spring registrants total 3,000

Students will receive statements of fees during summer months

About 3,000 students have registered for the next semester, following the Saturday noon deadline, according to indefinite figures revealed yesterday by Prof.

A. R. Congdon, head of the assignment committee.

Dr. Congdon said the figure was within 300 of the total who registered; the exact total, not including late registrants, is now being computed.

Students who have completed the registration procedure as far as receiving the adviser's and dean's signatures may finish their freshmen classes respectively.

(See REGISTRATION, page 7)

grees June 9.

ment majors who will receive de-

Banquet program.

Simmons lauds

youth at barb

spring banquet

"A leadership which calls for tolerance of the rights of others will be found somewhere in the student bodies of the U. S. and in the young folk of other countries, Judge Robert Simmons declared before an audience of 65 at the

Helen Elizabeth Claybaugh,

master of ceremonies, introduced the speaker and barb organization presidents, who presented the year's awards to various barb stu-

Senior law student Bob Simmons received the Barb Council Key-given to the graduating barb who has done the most work in barb affairs. The freshman award to the unaffiliated man most outstanding in barb affairs

went to Bob Dewey, and Loomis

Hall was announced as the barb house having the highest average.

Towne club sings.

a special group number, "Memories of You" and before the awards were presented Mark Carraher

Preceding Judge Simmons' speech, Towne Club members sang barb banquet last night.

Department of phys ed

honors scholastic leaders

the department at its annual ler; senior, Eileen Kaely. Speaking senior honors banquet Saturday for the graduates of the depart-riam Mann led the sophomore and mittee which planned the event.

Jeanette Mickey was toastmis- was the earliest department grad-uate in attendance, while Ruth

Group seeks to combine through defense bulletin higher education, draft system work, a bulletin on higher education and national defense is being distributed by the American Council on Education, John W. Studebaker, commissioner, an-

Commenting on education and the need for these fully trained defense, Studebaker urged that men is going to be greater with students should not drop out of a complete college course in order to engage in industrial employment on less than a full professional level.

students is to fit themselves for the highest type of services," Studebaker stated; "they should not give up the chance to prepare party, banquet at tea today

geline Kubik; junior, Alice Muel-ler; senior, Eileen Kaely, Speaking quirements in the department.

Mrs. Fred Williams, '02, Lincoln.

N. Y., traveled the greatest dis-

Containing an account of ways for their unique service in order in which colleges, faculty mem- to render a service on a level bers and students can best cooper- which can be rendered by a much ate in making the selective service larger number of men and women.

> "It should be said, however, that the demand of industry for fully trained profesional personnel in all the fields related to national defense is already greater than the supply," he continued, "and the need for these fully trained the passing years.'

Pharmacy "The first obligation of college students hold

Long heads speakers' list; three seniors, junior to get honors

Students in the college of pharmacy will hold their annual banquet and spring party honor-. at Union banquet ing the senior class at the Hotel Cornhusker Friday evening at Scholastic leaders in the depart- tress. Speakers, representing the 6:30. ment of physical education were various classes, were: freshman, honored by 60 undergraduates, Merriam Mann; sophomore, Evangraduates, and staff members of geline Kubik; junior, Alice Muel-

Stanley D. Long of Grand Island, member of the board of regents, will give the principal ban-(See BANQUET, page 7) evening in parlors A and B of the ment was Miss Helen Goodman of St. Louis, Mo., who now teaches in Nebraska City. Dorothy Martin, Doris Patterson led all senior Lincoln high school senior, spoke majors in the department in schol- for the future physical education arship during the year; Mary Ellen students. Her appearance on the elected new McKee topped the junior women, program was one of a series of while Evangeline Kubik and Mer- surprises arranged by the comband prexy

Theme of the banquet was a hurdles representing scholastic re- tion.

> Newly elected vice president is Rolly Urbanek, Clarkson, Harold Larmon of McCook will be the 1941-42 secretary-treasurer; Bob manager, and Dick Koupal, Ord, promotion manager.

186 UN signers urge

Petitions bearing the signatures of 186 members of the university faculty and administrative staffs were mailed to important administrative officials in Washington last week. The petitions urged that every means at the disposal of the nation not necessarily short of war be used to insure that American cargoes reach Britain, and second that the military and industrial defense program of the coun- Dean Oldfather, who made it plain try take precedence over all other before the faculty meeting, it is activities of the people.

Drawn up in faculty meeting al- ing another view were certainly most two weeks ago, the memo- free to do so, rials were circulated by instructors in every department, permitting all who desired to codify their positions along the lines of the petition, to add their signatures. No persuasion was used, explained

Daily conducts survey. Questionnaires sent to the faculty members by the NEBRASKAN (See BRITAIN, page 2)

reported, that any objectors wishing to circulate petitions represent-

Home ec group Sigma Xi honors 80 at banquet

Prof. Weaver to present certificates; Burt is new prexy of honorary

In the receiving line during the Honoring 22 new active mem-first hour will be Margaret Fedde, bers and 26 senior and 32 grad-Florence Corbin, Margaret Liston uate associate members, the (See SIGMA XI, page 4)

honors seniors

The home economics faculty is entertaining at a tea today from 3 to 5 in Parlors A and B of the Student Union. Senior students majoring in home economics and the graduate students in the department will be special guests.

and Mildred King. During the university chapter of Sigma Xi, second hour Mary-Ellen Brown, national honorary scientific frater-Rowan Elliff, Edith Carse and nity, will hold its annual initia-Rose Wanek will assist Miss Fedde tion banquet in the Student Union (See TODAY, page 4)

Band members celebrate trip to Rose Bowl game ... and other activities ticularly a trip to the Rose Bowl, as they attended with guests, wives, and alumni, the annual university band banquet at the Union.

High spot of the evening was Hornbuckle Garrison of Buffalo, Slemmons, Mitchell, publicity the presentation of special keys to five members of the band for "superior musical ability, leadership, University band members put and interest in the band." Mem-Elinora Sprague was honored for having compiled the highest ranged to represent a cinder president, was elected Friday to four-year average among depart- track, decorated with miniature the presidency of that organiza- full of memorable activities, particularly a trin to the Rose Rowl.

Theme of the banquet was John Welch, formerly band vice aside their instruments Friday and band members receiving keys evening to celebrate a school year full of memorable activities, particularly a trin to the Rose Rowl. Richard Faytinger; Harold Larmon to Wharton Myers; Richard Koupal to Keith Sturdevant; and Don Chaloupka to Edward Edison.

> In addition, it was announced that the band would receive a plaque upon which the names of the five men receiving special keys each year will be engraved. Last year's winners, along with the five honored last night, will be the first ten names on the plaque.

> Pat McNaughton, drum major for two years and a mid-year graduate of the university department of music, now teaching at York high school, was awarded a plaque for outstanding service.

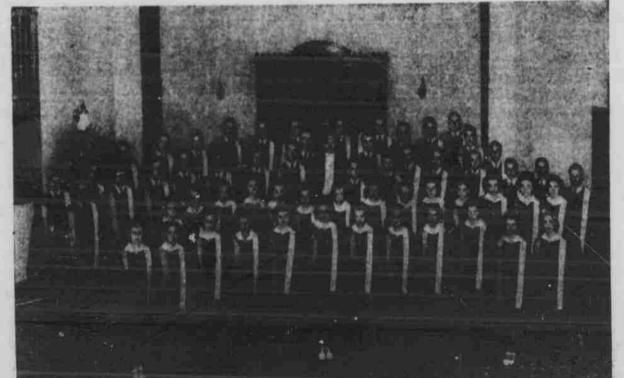

Emmet A. Gillaspie, deputy finance secretary of the university and business manager of the band, (See GAME, page 4)

Tassels hold annual rush tea; choose members

Tassels held their annual rush tea Saturday afternoon at the Alpha Chi Omega house. Repre-sentatives were present from all organized houses, barb groups, and ag campus. The new members who were chosen will attend a pledge picnic Monday when the selection of the new Tassels will be announced.

Tassel alums, Anne Huctead and Janet Harris, presided over the tables. Punch was served, while the red and white theme was carried out by the use of flowers, tea cakes and mints. The president, Jean Humphrey, acted as hostess at the door and was assisted by the new officers.

Concordia choir presents concert

Pictured above is the a cappella choir of Concordia Teachers college which will appear in a concert in the Union this afternoon.

gave two solos, "The Blind Plow-man" and "South American Way."

Lincoln music enthusiasts will in the Union ballroom. The Conin the country at 4 this afternoon first concert on this campus.

Directed by Dr. Theodore G. have an opportunity to hear one of cordia Teachers college a cappella Stelzer, one of the judges of the the few strictly a cappella choirs choir from Seward will present its Ivy Day sing, the choir has pre-(See Cillyla, page 4)

Eighteen freshman women were awarded pins for having earned at (See SIMMONS, page 7)