To complete

our little resume of Monday night's festivities, the Chi O's also had a double-header—Lila Hillman and Alpha Sig Jack Jackman having come through with sweets and cigars. And we might also mention the clever bands around the cigars Avery Forke gave the DU's; gold, with Dotty and Avery printed in blue.

New pledges

at the Delt domicile are Art Lincoln, footballer Jerry Kathol, John Gregg and John Burnham. The Chi O's have acquired Joan Long as a new pledge.

New steady deal is that of Tri Delt Jane Ellis and Sigma Chi BMOG Tom Horn. And new diamond is that sparkler making Kappa Maudie Stenton very fourth-finger conscious.

Three new pins have appeared, and Pat Prime has completed her Annapolis disarmament program to the tune of Bob Hageman's Kappa Sig pin. AOPi Jean Coffee has been sporting a gorgeous Sig Alph pin from a UCLA flame, while Delt Bob Ruby scooped this column's little item about him and Tri Delt Janet Johnson. Seems he didn't wait for the paper to come out yesterday morning, but hung his pin on her Monday night.

Ring side seats

for the Fiji "Aquacade" at Capital Beach Monday night were enjoyed by the Pi Phi's and the Alpha Chi's. The two groups were out there on their annual picnics.

Despite the fact that the 1941 Cornhusker has "gone to bed" and will be distributed on Saturday, the Cornhusker office is a busy place lately. Seems as though bigshots Aden and Forke are keeping a staff of pretty secretaries busy taking dictation for term papers, late reports, and other such trivia which conflicted with getting the book out, as well as the small matter of a degree and diploma.

April Ecology magazine contains Weaver article

The April number of Ecology contains "Water Usage of Certain Native Grasses in Prairie and Pasture" by Robert J. Weaver who received his M. A. degree from the university in 1940.

Complaint charges extension division official with fraud

Earl T. Platt, assistant director of the university extension division, and his secretary, Natalie Stromberger, were charged Tuesday by the attorney general's office with conspiracy to defraud the state.

A complaint filed in municipal court alleged that Platt and Miss Stromberger worked out a plan whereby six division employes were induced to "punch" more time than they had actually worked and turn the extra salary money over to Platt and Miss Stromberger.

Charges were also filed alleging that four other division employes were induced to punch fictitious time cards for their wives, who were not actually employed. This money, it was charged, was also turned over to Platt and his secretary.

Sums set out in the information as being improperly drawn from the state, according to the charge, totaled $1,352.10, which sum Platt and Miss Stromberger allegedly converted to their own use.

Commenting on the matter, Chancellor C. S. Boucher said, "The matter was discovered some weeks ago and reported to the board of regents. A thorough investigation was begun and is now under way, although a final report has not yet been made.

Barbs elect Blaine Sloan coordinator

Co-ordination director and chairman of the joint session of Interhouse Council-Barb Union is Blaine Sloan as a result of last night's election. Elected secretary-treasurer of the organization was Dorothy Jean Bryan.

Dave Marvin was elected new president of Barb Union in a Union meeting immediately following the joint session. Marvin fills the position resigned by Bill Dafeo last week. Roy Bryan was elected secretary-treasurer of the organization after the resignation of Budd Walker who stated that his additional duties made it impossible to fill the office.

Additional members of representative Barb Union on Barb Council according to the reorganization plan were Bob Knoll, Glen Kruger and Eldon Mathauser.

Music school holds annual picnic today

One hundred ten students, guests, and faculty members in the school of music will picnic in Pioneer park today from 4:30 to 3 p. m., at the school's annual get-together.

Keith Sturdevant, in charge of arrangements, is being assisted by Marian Percy, Virginia Clarke, and Robert Krejci.

Attendants will leave the school of music building by auto at 4:15 p. m.

embarrassing should England ever be an aggressor nation, and would certainly cause a struggle for balance of power, with the totalitarian states being forced to unite to match the combined power of the democracies.

The ZBT's victory avenged an earlier loss to Sigma Alpha Mu, who gained the finals by beating Alpha Tau Omega, Zeta Beta Tau, and Delta Upsilon, in successive debates. Zeta Beta Tau beat Delta Upsilon in the semifinals.

Judges were Lloyd L. Chapman, attorney, a former debater at the University of Colorado, Gerald V. Kvasnicka, debate coach of Lincoln high, and James Tipton, a senior debater at Nebraska Wesleyan.
