

Union party will honor pep groups

Corn Cobs, Tassels party plans include movies, games, food

In recognition of services and help given to the university during the past year, the Union will entertain all Corn Cobs and workers and old and new Tassels at a party tonight at 7:15 p. m. in parlors A and B.

The program planned will include a series of old time movies, a dark baseball contest between teams of four representatives from Corn Cobs and Tassels. There will be music furnished by a juke box in the parlor, and refreshments will be served during the evening.

Both organizations, throughout the year, in addition to serving as pep groups, have aided in selling tickets, ushering, and helping publicize university and Union events.

Reserve officer interviews UN senior men

Lieut. C. W. Underwood, of the United States naval medical reserve, is interviewing senior men who are interested in becoming engineering and deck officers thru appointment to the naval reserve.

Underwood explained the program yesterday, and today is interviewing men who will be eligible for appointment. To be eligible, applicants must hold a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science, or an engineering degree, with at least two semesters of college mathematics, including plane trigonometry.

Senior students may apply, although enlistment for them, if they are selected, will be held up until they receive their degrees. According to Lieut. Underwood, half the men taken now will be from among engineering graduates, and most of them will be trained as engineer officers.

After a preliminary course in enlisted training, successful applicants are appointed midshipmen and later may qualify for commissions as ensigns.

For ten days . . .

Thirty students, faculty members to attend Estes Park conference

. . . June 6-16

The Estes conference for students and faculty at Estes Park will be held this year from June 6 to June 16. Approximately 30 students from city and ag campuses are planning to attend the conference.

The group from this school will go in a truck and in private cars. Transportation costs will range from $4.50 to $9.00 and expenses of the conference exclusive of transportation will be about $16.50 including board and room.

Cabinet members and members of YMCA and students not necessarily members of either organization attend the conference which is held for the purpose of providing the best available leadership for an interpretation of the Christian religion as it applies to every day problems.

Leaders of meeting.

Leaders of the meetings are such outstanding men as the Rev. Allan A. Hunter, minister of the Mount Hollywood Congregational church in Hollywood, Calif. Mr. Hunter is widely known as a student leader on the Pacific coast.

Dr. George P. Hendley will lead

Corn Cobs elect sixteen new members

Climaxing a year's work of selling tickets, attending football and basketball games, and doing various jobs, 16 men were initiated into Corn Cobs last night. The men were chosen according to their ranking in the various activities which the pep organization carries on.

New members are: Newton Cople, Bob Fast, Robert Grizfeld, Harold Hansen, Sheldon Coffman, Phil Kantor, Charles Marcy, Cal Manzer, Randall Pratt, Bob Ross, Dave Walcott, Max Laughlin, Jack Hogan, John Douglass, Quentin Samuelson and Bob Shoemaker.

According to Gerald Spahn, retiring president, next year's officers will be elected within the next few days.

Music students present church recital Sunday

Miss Jean Knorr, organist, and Miss Nelda Michael, contralto, of the university school of fine arts, will present a recital Sunday at 3 o'clock in the First Plymouth Congregational church.

Miss Knorr will play several chorale-preludes by Bach, the "Grande Piece Symphonique" by Franck, and Vierne's "Symphony Finale."

Miss Michael will sing two selections by Mendelssohn: "O Rest in the Lord" and "But the Lord Is Mindful of His Own."

The school of music announces that Mr. Emanuel Wishnow, violinist, will play for the Mu Phi Epsilon scholarship benefit concert.

Burt has article in pharmacy journal

Dr. Joseph B. Burt, chairman of the department of pharmacy and pharmaceutical chemistry, has an article with Howard Hopkins in the March issue of the Journal of the American Pharmaceutical Association. Concerning a study of silver sage found in Nebraska, the article is an abstract of a thesis submitted by Hopkins for his M. Sc. degree which he received last June.

Summer school offers modern languages

Supplementary activity planned to increase knowledge of culture

The summer school program in foreign languages is planned to meet the needs of all classes of students ranging from beginners' courses to graduate seminars leading to higher degrees. Dr. J. E. Alexis, chairman of the modern language department, announced yesterday.

In addition to the formal courses the department of modern languages will sponsor various supplementary activities to assist the

(See SUMMER, page 4.)

Defense course deadline because of heavy demand extended until Saturday

Due to the large demand for information concerning the four engineering defense courses the university is offering this summer, June 2 to Sept. 6, the deadline for applications has been extended until Saturday, according to Prof. William L. DeBaufre, chairman of the department of engineering mechanics.

"With some 5,000 jobs opening up next year over the nation for materials inspectors, the inspec-

Tri-K group initiates 13

Tri-K, honorary agronomy organization, will initiate 13 men tonight at 7 p. m. in the crops laboratory, according to Dale Weibel, new prexy of the club.

After the initiation, an ice cream feed will be held for new and old members. Men to be initiated include Robert Gerloff, Richard Gooding, Louis Daigler, Norman Gakemeier, Ruben Heermann, Curtis Johnson, Charles Lindgren, Philip Miller, John Moseman, Robert Ramig, Melvin Sals, Harold Skoog, and Stewart Woods.

For recreation there will be folk games, songs, hikes, crafts, nature study and sports of all kinds. The book store contains many of the latest books and pamphlets in the fields of religion, social problems and association program planning.

Among the equipment which each person will have to furnish for himself are warm, woolen clothes for out of door life, heavy sweaters, tennis rackets, flashlights, Kodak, and other recreational tools. There is a dark room for developing pictures and instructions for developing will be given.

All delegates will live on the conference grounds in cottages or dormitories and the blankets and linen are furnished.

Students attending will represent approximately 50 colleges and universities in the middle west. The conference grounds where most of the meetings are held cover over 700 acres and are located four and one-half miles southwest of Estes Park village, just across the river from the east entrance of the Rocky Mountain National Park.

Sigma Xi initiates 138 new members

Twenty-two active members, and 58 associates, 26 seniors and 32 graduate students, were initiated into the Nebraska chapter of Sigma Xi, national honorary scientific society, at the group's annual initiation banquet Wednesday evening in the Union.

Faculty members, guests, and new members heard Dr. M. G. Caba, professor of mathematics and last year's chapter president, deliver the presidential address on "The History of Pi."

Prof. J. E. Weaver, chapter president, administered the membership pledge and presented certificates to the initiates. Others taking part in the ceremonies included Dr. T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs; Prof. William L. DeBaufre, chairman of the engineering mechanics department, and Prof. Lloyd Bingham of the electrical engineering department, who responded for active members, followed by Kenyon Payne, graduate student from Manhattan, Kas., who represented the associates. Dean C. H. Oldfather of the college of arts and sciences and Mrs. Oldfather were guests of honor.

Seniors initiated as associates

are: Robert Beall, Glen V. Berg, Robert F. Coles, Dorothy I. Cook, Ray A. Crancer, Tom L. Davies, jr., Willis E. Frazier, Charles O. Gardner, Gerald C. Gerloff, Robert H. Glover, George A. Gostas, Howard P. Jensen, James L. Jezl, Rodney W. Johnston, Houston Jones, Harry W. McFadden, jr., Marion W. Pederson, John H. Rathbone, David A. Roach, Theodore W. Roesler, Kenneth D. Rose,

(See SIGMA XI, page 2.)

Union sponsors final Flickers show Sunday

The Farewell Flickers show will be shown at 8 p. m. Sunday in the Union ballroom and will feature "Gertie the Dinosaur," "The Life of the Polyp" and "The Skeleton Dance" by Walt Disney with several other old films.

Thruout the year the Union has successfully sponsored Flickers shows with old time pictures and feature programs. Familiar side line attractions at the show this Sunday will be the butcher boys hawking their wares thru the audience and the nickelodeon tunes played by Russ Gibson.

The pictures to be shown are comedies produced from 1908 to 1929, from Mack Sennett to Bob Benchley and Walt Disney. Other pictures included on the two hour schedule are "The Doctor's Secret" by George Melies, "His Bitter Pill" directed by Mack Sennett, "The Freshman" with Harold Lloyd and the cartoons mentioned above produced by Winsor McCay, Robert Benchley and Walt Disney.

The animated cartoon antedates the motion picture industry proper and "Gertie the Dinosaur," made in 1909, was the most successful of the beginning attempts at animated cartoons. These have culminated in Walt Disney's spectacular Silly Symphonies and full length features of this decade.

I-F council plans meeting for rushees

As a new feature of rush week, a joint fraternity-rushee meeting will be held next fall, according to a decision made by the Interfraternity Council this week.

Announced purpose of the meeting is to acquaint new university men with the advantages which fraternity has to offer.

Principle speaker at the affair will be Col. C. J. Frankforter. The council president, Kenneth Holm, and the secretary of Interfraternity Affairs, Ren Bucacek, will also speak.

Ag board names Janice Marshall representative

Janice Marshall was appointed representative of the Coll-Agri-Fun board on the ag executive board which supervises student functions at ag at a meeting Monday night. Other newly elected members of the Coll-Agri-Fun board who were chosen at the ag spring election last Tuesday are Dwight Sloan and Warren Sals,

Californians approve of UN women, like our ham 'n' eggs

sand mile playing trip. In an interview with a DAILY reporter, the coach, trainer, one student manager and eight of the players answered the question, "What does Nebraska have that California doesn't have?"

Ham and eggs, praise. High praise for Nebraska, the university coaching staff, and the baseball players came from Coach Clint Evans, who said that "We all appreciated very much everything done for us. Coach Knight, Major Jones, all the coaching staff, the players, they're all fine fellows and

(See EGGS, page 3.)

Visiting campus . . .

Californians approve of UN women, like our ham 'n' eggs

Twenty-two men from California, "the land of sunshine" have been on the campus for two days and eleven of them decided that what Nebraska has that California doesn't have is "brick buildings, good corn, excellent hospitality, hustle and spirit, humidity, a state capitol, sociable women, lots of beetles, greener grass and fresher women, a helluva good art exhibit — and good ham and eggs."

The twenty-two men include coach, trainer, two student managers, and eighteen members of the California baseball team, which is now making a 29 day, six thou-