

Esther Ostlund directs girls' dormitories

Miss Esther Ostlund, university Y. W. C. A. secretary since 1938, has received the appointment as social director of women's residence halls, according to a recent announcement from the office of the dean of women.

Miss Ostlund will fill the position vacated by Miss Katherine Hendy who resigned previous to her marriage.

Miss Ostlund received a B. A. degree with a diploma in music from Rockford College at Rockford, Ill., in 1934. While there she was assistant to the head resident of Montague settlement house. In 1934-35 she was a girls' worker on a fellowship to Chicago Commons and took graduate work at Northwestern university.

She was associate executive secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Northwestern university in 1935-36 after which she became assistant dean of women in charge of dormitories and executive secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, Ohio. She continued in that position until 1938 when she came to Nebraska.

A camp counselor each year since 1933, Miss Ostlund was camp director of Oakwood Lodge at Crete during the summers of 1939 and 1940.

Following the English usage classification tests this afternoon, each new student will receive an appointment card designating the adviser and time for registration starting Monday. Bengtson warned students that the medical examinations must be taken before registration can be completed.

First steps for students who registered last spring and who have paid their fees will be to pick up copies of their registration at social science 211 from 8:30 to 4:30, on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

Those who registered last spring but have not paid their fees must go to the coliseum, according to officials in the registrar's office. There, they can pick up their slip, pay fees and complete their registration.

Changes in schedule can be made by first picking up the registration copy at social science, then consulting with adviser and finally making the formal drop and add at the coliseum.

Although total enrollment was expected to decline greatly, Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, registrar and director of admissions, said that the drop will not be as great as expected earlier.

Dr. Bengtson made this statement to new students: "The Junior division is primarily interested in the welfare of each individual student. Advisers recommend to each student only those subjects that he desires and in which he is qualified. Students should first realize that education must be earned and worked for and can't be acquired by a shortcut process."

Dear Joe:

Glad you're coming here to college.

About clothes . . .

go to a store that knows its stuff and . . .

We've learned our stuff from fellows at 39 universities, including Nebraska, through the Post Campus Fashion Poll, and by working tirelessly for hours with manufacturers who take pride in serving young men who appreciate new ideas. We'll help you choose clothes that will give you the air of a senior even though they do hand you a freshman cap. We're just as anxious as you that you be dressed correctly. So come on in, and let's go to work together!
