Sorry.

Better make apologies first and settle down to business after that. Apologies to Kay Hendy, she is a Kappa instead of a Theta; then to Charlotte Peck, who is an Alpha Xi Delt instead of a Kappa Delt. We won't say apologies to Bob Weygint, exactly. He is a Delt pledge here at Nebraska, not a Delt from UCLA, and he is not pinned to Betty Malone. She is pinned to a Delt from UCLA, and we're sorry it isn't you, Bob, because she is plenty all right. Just got the wrong Delt!

Bunny Chapline, AOPi of last year, has sent Jack Clarke's Kappa Sig pin back so Jack is back in circulation. He is pretty interested in Lou Ide again. She is the Pi Phi who is or was interested in a Sima Nu from Iowa. Martha Harrison, DG, has a Delt pin from Bud West. It all happened Tuesday night.

The Popular Twins.

There may not be as many boys back as usual, but Phyllis and Janet Babcock, Gamma Phi twins, are sure doing all right. They have dates with no less than five different fraternities within the next two days.

Tom Drummond, DU, is having fun enough for several boys. He had a date with Helen Jean Sorenberger, Gamma Phi, a couple of nights ago and is already lined up with dates two weeks in advance.

Elizabeth Clark has a PiKA pin plus a new diamond from a fellow at Ames. She got them both this summer.

Jack Stewart says he is sitting on top of the world except that he wants a girl. Another bachelor gone to the girls.

Distance is no object to Rog Anawalt, Sigma Nu. When he found that Agnes Fox, Alpha Chi pledge, was out of town he sent her a telegram asking for a date this Friday.

Exchange Picnic.

In fact, all the Sigma Nu pledges will have dates with the Alpha Chi pledges this Friday after their picnic. They have an hour dance that night, too.

Leonard Van Buskirk, ex-Kappa Sig prexy, hung his pin on Theta Mary Ann Donovan two weeks before school was out last year but kept it a secret until the day before summer vacation so we thought you ought to know about it for sure.

A report comes to us that Lois Christie really likes Bill Ottman, Phi Delt, and that it isn't all one sided either.

Another diamond given this summer was from Ed May, DU, to E. J. Petty, Delta Gamma. Bette Rathburn, of the same house, is reportedly happy because Neal Felber, another DU, is back in town.

All Dated Up.

Someone called the Sig Alph house the other night and there were only three boys there. If they all had dates like Darrell Ludi, pledge, who was with Betty Lee Riley, Tri Delt pledge, they were OK. Won't someone please fix up that trio so they can have fun, too? Probably they had late dates and weren't talking.

Jane Baumgartner, Kappa, and Max Laughlin, AGR, are having a little trouble. Hope it doesn't last, the trouble, we mean.

Have You Seen Them?

The Sigma Chis are advertising for their lost chairs. They disappeared Monday night. There are four green ones and two blue ones, or four blue and two green ones, we forget. Anyway, if you see them running around with some fraternity fellows in them please take them, the chairs, home.

Forty first editions of Joel Chandler Harris are the latest addition to the Harris Memorial room in the Emory university library.

YWCA Holds Mass Meeting This Saturday

The YWCA will hold its first mass meeting for freshmen and entering women students Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in Ellen Smith Hall.

The purpose of the meeting is to explain the YWCA program for the coming year and to give new students an opportunity to become active in the work immediately.

The program will open with group singing followed by short talks on "What the YWCA has meant to me" by Mrs. Rice, Frances Keefer, president, and Flavia Tharp. A reply will be given by Virginia Sterner who will tell what she expects of the YWCA.

Jean Christie will speak on the actual work to be done and the way the YWCA fits into the total college curriculum.

Margarte Deines, in charge of freshman work, will introduce commission leaders to the group and explain the work of freshmen
