

Fraternities Touch Off Fuse On Fall Intramural Activities

By Albert Reddish.

What topic are the members of the fraternities discussing when they get together? Is it the war? Is it the date last night? Is it any one of the name bands that have played in Lincoln recently? It could be any one of these topics, but it isn't.

Then what is the subject of those arguments? It is which fraternity will cop the Jack Best trophy for supremacy in the intramural sports world.

Yes, they're at it again. Each fraternity claims that it is to be the winner of the cup this year. Each member claims that his group is the best in all sports. Each claims that no other fraternity has a chance.

The fight to determine which Greek organization is superior in the sports world is now officially on. It has been fought out in bull-sessions each day and each night since students first started converging at Lincoln for school.

Begins this week.

The sanctioned start is this week. First rounds of tennis, golf and touch football are scheduled to be completed by Friday evening. Some groups will have concrete facts to back their claims. Other groups will be meeting to plan ways to gain revenge and a higher place in the standings.

Representatives of all of the fraternities on the campus met in the N club rooms Thursday night to plan the schedule for the year. They voted to add a new sport, badminton. This will bring the total number of events to 13. Trophies for first and second place will be given in the new sport as well as in the others.

The major sport of the season, touch football, will get started Wednesday afternoon. Acacia is the only organization on the campus that is not represented in touch. The twenty teams are divided into four leagues with five teams to a league. Winners of the leagues will draw for opponents in the semifinals. The champion will be one of the four league winners.

Tennis Matches.

In tennis 19 fraternities are playing. All first round play must be completed by Friday evening. There are three players to the team. The winner of team play is the winner of two out of three matches. A match is two out of three sets.

First round golf matches must be played by Thursday evening. Four players make up the team. Scoring is by the Nassau system. One point is given the winner of the first nine holes, a point to the winner of the second nine, and a point to the match winner. A team can score a total of 12 points. Players are required to make their own appointment for scheduled play. The fraternities must turn in the scores of the matches and the names of contestants to the intramural office. These contestants must play throughout the meets.

Meanwhile, plans are complete for barb intramural play. All entries for touch must be in the intramural office by 5 p. m. Wednesday. The intramural board is giving trophies to the barbs this year, and winners will again receive medals which they may keep. The trophies will go into a trophy case to be placed in the barb union office.

Mesdames Russel, Calhoun . . . You're Bound to Lose Honor or Neck

Mesdames Russel and Calhoun, Cornhusker Office, Student Union.

Darlings:
We girls of the Daily staff, having a great affection for you lovely dears who head such a cute publication, realize the embarrassment you would suffer if the husky members of our staff challenged you for the traditional "hatchet" offered to the winner of the Daily Nebraskan, Cornhusker football game. We understand, Miss Russel, and you, too, Miss Calhoun, that women cannot exhibit themselves in as rough or as exciting a game as football.

And altho we have tried to convince our handsome, strong, red-blooded male co-workers that the Cornhusker staff could not possibly accept a challenge, they insisted that tradition is tradition, and the game must go on. Even our editor, Mary Kerrigan's pleas were to no avail. So you see, despite our efforts to halt the massacre, you must feel the whip of the Nebraskan staff.

Although we know that consolation means little at this time when you are so near death or permanent physical disability, we do want you to know that we expected a promise of mercy from our powerful men. They even promised that they would let us girls play after the score reached, Daily 76, Cornhusker 0. If any of you can still stand up then, we will finish the game in a nice, quiet discussion about lemons, of which you are so fond.

The men on our staff claim that you have several fellows in minor positions on your staff. Just between us, Miss Russel, and you, too, Miss Calhoun, you had better leave them out of the game since they will be the target of much beating by our manly squad.

And Miss Russel, and you, too, Miss Calhoun, if worse comes to worse, you can try what previous editors—yea, even male editors—tried. If you run out of women to send in the game, we will permit you to participate in some subsidization of players. But please none of Biff's boys; and for a change, equip at least half of them with identification cards.

The boys say they will play you Friday on the athletic grounds west of the coliseum where the white corpuscles of your blood will not be too conspicuous.

And dears, you, too, Miss Calhoun, if you decide that your necks are worth more than your honor and you decide to stick to gin-rummy in your office, we girls won't hold it against you. You can always play chess with us.

Good luck and goodbye,

Women of the Daily Staff.

Husker Football Since The Turn of the Century!

The backfield, left to right: E. Frank, Potter, Len Purdy, O. Frank.
The line, left to right: Loigren, Harmon, Pearson, Elliott, Hornberger, Shonka, Capt., Chauner

The Starting Lineup Against Michigan, November 25, 1911. This Team Won Its Conference Title and Tied Mighty Michigan, 6 - 6!

(Above picture is one of many in our windows)

Once again, Cornhusker football heroes of other years gallop over the gridiron in our display windows at 14th and M streets. Our football windows have become a famous and traditional feature of Cornhusker pigskin seasons. Each year we bring back pictures dear to the hearts of all Nebraska fans—and each year we add new features in the way of "action" shots of great moments, and "still" pictures of famous individuals, in both ancient and modern Cornhusker history. We cordially invite you to visit our windows and live again your glorious memories of Nebraska's great gridiron deeds.

NEW THIS YEAR!

Pictures of Every Nebraska Team Since 1900. Together With Each Team's Record! A Rare Picture of Nebraska's First Team (1890) on Nebraska's First Field!

Complete Layout of Rose Bowl Action Pictures!

Cornhusker football entered the "big time" class at the turn of the century. And, shortly after the turn of the century, The Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company began its climb to a place among the six or seven "big time" independent telephone organizations in the United States.

Throughout All These Years We Have Been Proud Supporters of Our Famous Cornhusker Football Teams!

The Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co.

"A Nebraska Company"

Serving Its People"

Abel Anticipates Cyclones

Courtesy: Lincoln Journal.
GEORGE ABEL, shown above, is easily one of the fastest guards in the entire midwest. Abel doubles on the track team in the sprints and has a :09.8 century mark to his credit. Watch him, he can easily rate All-American.

Tom Lecke Takes Over Swim Job

Tom Lecke, swimming instructor at the YMCA for the past 13 years, has been named to succeed Pete Hagelin as Nebraska swimming instructor, Maj. Jones announced Tuesday.

Lecke was aquatic director at Broadview country club last summer. He started many of present stars of the Husker team while he was coaching the "Y" classes. His predecessor is now working in one of the army camps for Uncle Sam.

Under Hagelin, the Nebraska teams were consistently above

—State Journal.

Football Scoreboard

Midwest.

Kansas State 0, Fort Hays State 0.
Oklahoma 19, Oklahoma Aggies 0.
Ohio State 12, Missouri 7.
Michigan 19, Michigan State 0.
Texas Christian U. 6, Tulsa U. 0.

Iowa 25, Drake 8.
Notre Dame 38, Arizona 7.

Far West.

Stanford 19, Oregon 15.
U. S. C. 13, Oregon State 7.
California 31, St. Marys 0.
Texas 34, Colorado 6.

East.

Dartmouth 35, Norwich 0.
Colgate 66, St. Lawrence 0.
N. Y. U. 25, Penn Military 7.

average. Last year the Cornhusker swimmers were tied for first in the Big Six meet, but were disqualified in the last race. This placed them third. They had gone thru the dual season undefeated.