

The Sports Mill
By Bob Miller

Monday's heavyweight battle between Joe "Brown Bomber" Louis and Lou "Dynamic Stance" Nova certainly has all of the nation's sports scribes writing on their ideas concerning the fight....

From the top down to the bottom of the chroniclers heap, articles have been forthcoming discussing one phase of the fight in particular....Whether or not Referee Art Donovan made the correct decision when he stopped the fight within one second of the end of the sixth round....

The argument centers around the fact that if Donovan had not been so impetuous in stopping the fight that Nova could have had the minute rest period between rounds which would have been all that he would need to further withstand Louis' barrage of fists.

Lawton Carver writing for the INS comes out openly to assail Donovan....He has come to the conclusion that the official has been refereeing for Louis too long....

He charged that nobody but Donovan knew that he stopped the fight before the bell rang and that since somebody crawled in the ring bearing a placard indicating that the seventh round was due to start....that the bell had saved Nova....

On this basis then Carver has indicated that he thinks that Donovan did not give Nova a square deal....Gayle Talbot of the AP this, "Ray Carlen, Nova's manager, was bitter because Donovan had stopped the bout with only one second of the sixth round remaining."

"He argued, with seeming logic, that Lou should have been given the minute rest period to see if he could come out and fight. But Nova refused to join him in his beef," was the way the scribe Talbot described it....

Now for a personal view on the situation....A referee is picked to take complete charge of the fight,

Backs Plan Deception for Iowa State Tilt Saturday

When the whistle sounds Saturday afternoon in the Iowa State Memorial stadium at Ames, you can bet that these four backs will be sounding off right along with the whistle.

These four look like sure starters for the Huskers providing injury does not play havoc with them before game time. With the ball in his hands is Dale Bradley, 180 pound tailback.

Vike Francis comes next with his 38 standing out. Vike will be the big hope for Big Six honors this year and confidentially is being groomed for All-American laurels.

Marv Athey, sophomore signal caller from Wauneta, looks great in practice but so far hasn't had any conference playing time. Give him one game and he'll hit a good stride.

Al Zikmund, the Rose Bowl flash, is tops again this year. His 59 will be seen crossing the double stripes many times this year.

it is his decision that is important....There are three people that are really well informed about the condition Nova was in....

Joe Louis after the fight remarked about the one big punch he threw that doomed Nova and about the fight in general, "I saw the opening I wanted in the fifth round but missed. He gave it to me again in the sixth when he fiddled around and I let go. I don't think I ever threw a harder punch." That's saying a lot too....

Nova had his say, too, "He's the champ believe me. Maybe I could have taken care of myself if I had a rest but I've got no complaint about Donovan. He can referee all my fights."

Donovan, himself, thought it was about time to halt the proceedings without paying any attention to the time of the round.... In my mind he was merely doing his duty in protecting a defenseless Nova from further beating....

That completes the three that really know what the score was in the fight and if they were convinced that Nova was out on his feet, it's all right with me and nobody should have a kick coming....

Prospects Dark For Gym Team; Lettermen Lost

Gymnastic Coach Charley Miller faces the coming season with but two returning letter-men from last year's team. Lost via the graduation route were Jack Geier, three year letter man; Stan Southwick, three year varsity squad man and two year letter man; and Ray Griffin, three year squad man and one year letter man.

Uncle Sam's land forces took another veteran when Guy Johnson, a two year letter man, became an army man during the summer. Loss of these four veterans will be greatly felt in the coming season.

Returning letter-men from last year's team are Pete Kreisler, two letter man and Aim Pelcak, who will receive help from five boys who have shown varsity abilities. Jack Donley, Loren Toohey, Don Bush, Collins McMaster and Dana Turpin are the new boys that Coach Miller expects to fill in around his two veterans.

Coach Miller wishes that all gymnasts and prospective gymnasts, upper classmen and freshmen, who have not reported for workouts would see him to make arrangements so that they may begin practice. This early season practice is vital in our having a winning team.

Yankees Cop Initial Game

Slip Past Brooklyn, 3-2; Gordon Smashes Homer

New York's denizens of baseball, the Yankees, downed the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday in the first game of the World Series. The Yanks squeezed out a narrow 3-2 conquest to gain an early edge on the famed "Bums of Brooklyn."

Red Ruffing pitched a six-hit game in keeping the big Brooklyn offensive sallies well scattered. Curt Davis, lean right hander, started for Brooklyn but gave way to Hugh Casey in the sixth after the Yankee big guns had started to roll.

Joe "Ducky" Medwick, Dodger left fielder, garnered the defensive gem of the game in the fourth inning. Medwick leaped high against the stands to make a one-handed catch of Joe DiMaggio's apparent home run.

Joe Gordon opened the Yankee scoring with a booming home run in the second inning. Bill Dickey's double in the fourth inning scored Charlie Keller for the second Yank marker. Gordon again featured offensively with a sixth inning single that scored Keller from third base.
