After the Game.

Well, well. After the hot and dusty game we looked around and found everyone heading for the union dance and open houses.... Just found out that Vivian Hildebrand and Ray Buehler, Phi Gam track star, decided to go steady Friday night.... Glad to see so many old timers back for the game. Among them were Merrill Englund, Innocent Kappa Swig, who came back not only for the game, but to make one Jo Duree, Chi O, happy.... About the only thing that got lost recently was the Gamma Phi poodle. It belongs to Eugene Eversen and seems to have wondered, so they are singing "O where, O where has my little dog gone."

Friday Parties.

Friday the Alpha Sigs had a swell time on their hayride, according to all reports. And we hear it was a nice one, too.... "If you don't want to dance in Heaven—go to h...." So said the invitations to the Sigma Chi houseparty.

The fellows got their girls in two trucks and then sent them thru a heated tunnel into... the basement. There they were blindfolded and told to kneel before the Devil, Jack Conklin (ho, ho). After they repented of their sins they were allowed to go to Heaven. Guess Jean Porter, Pi Phi, really had a heavenly time enjoying her bracelet, present of the evening from Bill Longman.... Another event of Friday evening the rally saw Gloria Mardis, Pi Phi pledge of that evening, having a whee with her new sisters and later with her steady Dee Devoe, Phi Gam pledge....

Saturday Strutters.

Several of the houses celebrated last night with a ranch partie, fraternity partie, and a Jayhawk one.... Such familiar couples as Carol Chapman and Rod Sides were seen at the Gamma Phi party; Janice Marshall and John Fitzgibbon, Farm House, were there, too.... At the Pi Phi party were old timers Flavia Tharp, Mortar Board prexy, and Bill Aechbachen; Barbara Neeley and Bob Hyde, Alpha Sig; Jay Jap Schmer and Jack Nelson, DU; and steadies Bea Dobbs with Pres. Hayes, Sigma Woo. More about Hayes—he's selling everything from flowers to insurance and while in the insurance business he has half interest in a secretary. No, he doesn't need any assistance....

Pat Happy.

Pat Prime, Alpha Phi red head, was happily informing her friends that she was going to Omaha to meet Kappa Sig Bob Hageman at the airport in Omaha. They will be around on the campus for a week.... Football item: Son of the first All-American football player at Nebraska, Don Chaloupka, is going with Virginia Bishof more often than not. (Thought it would be a good time to mention it).

On Ag Campus.

The Farmer's Formal was a really BIG affair. Everyone has fun as evidenced by some of the dates: Kay Huston was there with Don Mueller, Farm House; Dorothy Anderson, Phi Mu, was there with Farm House pledge Bob Tucker.... Oh yes, Nancy Raymond, DG, went to the Beta party with Joe Sunyland. She's cute and so is he, so it sounds like it should be good.... The Zeta Beta Tau houseparty being closed kind of made it secretive, but we do know that Shirley Kushner, potential SDT beauty queen, judging from her looks, went with "Honey Child" Milder. Quote: He's darling! Unquote. That was what Shirley come gatha' around cause I'm a fire and I got hot stuff to radiate on the comings and goings of sundry beings on the campus—and off. So we blaze away on football gossip, entangling alliances, and leaders in your parade of fashions and styles.

THE CLOTHES LINE

Listen Coeds

while we tell you about the most ultra new styling in this matter of hatwear. You'll want one when you see the neat Antelope chelton berets, in any one of the following colors—red, dark green, beige, brown, kelly, and popular black—in Gold's hat department. And we'll bet with you right now that you will smile with pleasure when you read the price tag because being designed for your sense of style, they're designed to fit your budget at only $1.49.

For a hat that caters to your sense of individuality and will help you make your mark in a style conscious world, remember Gold's hat department.

Plenty Neat

are the new pencils that such people as Phi Psi Dick Harnsberger, Chi O Lois Drake, Barb leader Boyd McDougal and a host of other people you know are pushing these days. They're the new Sheaffer fine line eversharps topped by a Nebraska pennant crest that makes them look as nice as they write. They come in a wide assortment of colors and combinations such as black, brown, red, blue and green. And we wanted to save this tidy bit of information for the last because we know that it will surprise you no end—you can add one of these neat writing numbers to your study wardrobe for only one dollar. Better get yours while the supply lasts because they are going fast.

Lend An Ear

while we tattle the tale about Becky Wait, who as one bird has it, chatted with June Jamieson to tell her that she was so-o-o sorry her name had been mentioned with that of Phi Psi's Jim Selzer and that she didn't want June to think she was trying to cut her out and all that sort of chatter. So, we remove a vertice and tell you that there ain't no more triangle since Becky martyred to the cause.

If You've Hunted

high and low for a Corneob or a Tassel so you can buy your ticket for the Jay Me-Shann dance, this Sattiday, we got a solution. Drop into the Uni Drug when you're going to or coming from class and pick up the ducat there.

Your Silverware

is an intimate part of your home furnishing, and for those fortunate people contemplating married life, we present a striking and beautiful pattern. Rich in design in a heraldic motif is the "King Richard," exclusive at Gardner's. The style of the English Renaissance is excellently carried out in the beautifully carved scrolls. You'll see these as well as other distinctive patterns at Gardner's, 1220 O Street.

Drop In

at the Hamburger Inn, the place that your friends have been telling you about where they feature fine food that makes you want to live to eat—and not eat to live! Clyde Long, from long years of experience, knows what you like and how you like it. Don't worry about your appetite. Let it be the Hamburger Inn's worry. —

Second Best

in matters of mating is Willy Fox of you know where and don't ask why. This chap, no matter how hard he tries can't get a prior lien on any of the niceties on this campus of yours and mine. Here's a few of the babes whom he dates: Shirley McNeil Pi Phi; Marg Holm, an "Oh Gosh" gal in Omaha; and Dinny Ford, KKG. Delve into the details of this list and you'll find all of their hearts belong to other daddies!

On Top

both figuratively and literally, are the bumptious beanies which are leading the style hit parade at the Nancee Hat Shop, 133 So. 13th Street. In all the colors of the rainbow, they score a hit in campus apparel because of their jauntiness and practicability. Easily adapted to any of the modern hair stylings, you'll see them in classes, on picnics, in fact any place where the style minded lady spends her time.

First Come, First Serve

is the axiom in action in the Cornhusker office these busy days, what with everyone trekking down to order this yearbook. If you haven't signed on the dotted line for yours, you better pop down and plunk down that down payment of two bucks, friend!

Lawyer's Lair

without a doubt is Buck's Coffee Shop, across the street south from the campus. When legal minds get together and make a decision, you can't go wrong by following their footsteps. So bus ad boys, arts aspirants, engineering inevitables, and all others try Buck's for lunches, coffee, cokes, and etc. The regal legal eagles roost there regular along with a host of other souls you know.

Betty Inhelder

Alpha Chi O of last year popped into the Grill the other afternoon, tidily attired in a pert Porkpie roller brim hat that should help to make her as popular in Lincoln's business world as she was in campus life.

A quick query on our part as to where she bought her hat brought a gusher of information and enthusiasm from the little lady. "You're about the hundredth person who asked me already. I got it at Simon's hat department and I know you won't believe me when I tell you I only paid $3.00 for it. Best of all they got a wide variety of colors to choose from. I know you'll see a lot of them on the campus. Take a tip from me—they can't be beat."

People to Meet...

When you have a spare moment or two drop around and meet one Miss Inez White who just took over the guiding reins for the Union's dining room and parties. She's had a carload of experience with students, all of it on the neighboring Iowa State campus in their Memorial Union. We wouldn't be a bit suprised if that once you add your name to the long list of her friends, she might slip you a bit more cream on that pudding some noon hour or add a little extra touch to your dinners and banquets in the evening.

Incidentally, when the grill is crowded and you can't find an empty table for lunch, try the dining room on the second floor. You get shotgun service there, the food is fine, and best of all your purse won't groan when you go to pay the check.

What's the Deal

on Pi Phi "Simp" Simpson and DU Walt Johnson plus Kappa Sig Verne Ingraham. 'Tis seldom we see the first two together without Verne, regardless of whether it cokes, football games and what not. Three's a crowd and for a consistent gathering this "something not to usual" beats all of the gatherings that we know about. Maybe Ingraham's trying out for the Chaperon's Club?

Rabid Radio

fans—we got good news for you from Lowell's Jewelry Store, 143 South 12th. For something slick in wave length catchers we suggest you stop in and look over the line of new Emerson radios. Pay particular attention to the midget numbers, ideal for your room, and the all popular portables that make it possible for you to carry your pleasure and entertainment with you no matter where you go. Chillun', you can't go wrong at Lowell's!
