Candidates Must File Pictures

Election Committee Requires Three Photos Turned in Monday at 5

Three application pictures of candidates running in the fall election must be turned in by Monday at 5 p. m. to Marjorie Bruning at the Daily Nebraskan office, Dick Harnsberger, chairman of the student council elections committee announced yesterday.

The three pictures are necessary since the council makes up three posters of all candidates pictures which will be placed in the Union, social sciences and on ag campus.

This idea was first used last year when the council needed some method of campaigning which would be fair for all candidates. This is the only method candidates may use in campaigning in any way or their names will be withdrawn from the slate.

Filings close today at 5 p. m. in John K. Selleck's office in the coliseum. Junior, senior and sophomore class presidency positions are open at well as the Nebraska Sweetheart and Honorary Colonel. The elections will be held Oct. 28.

The extra time was given students to get pictures in since the elections committee felt that the pictures could not be in by 5 p. m. tomorrow. Monday at 5 p. m. is the absolute deadline for these however. Any who can turn in their pictures before then should do so on Saturday.

UN Band Forms Huge Heart As Feature at Indiana Game

With Singing, Trick-steps . . .
Throbbing hearts will be the theme of Nebraska's red and white clad varsity band at Saturday's homecoming game.

During the half the band will first march out to form a huge "I" in salute to Indiana U. After one chorus of "Indiana, Our Indiana," the band will move directly into the heart formations, outlining one big heart flanked by two smaller ones. Doing a precision waltz step, the 114 men will move back and forth to the tune of "I Love You Truly." Then, with "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" as its theme, the two smaller hearts break up to form an outline around the one big heart. In this stunt the band plays two concert numbers, "Deep In My Heart" and "Drums in My Heart." As every member of the band performs trick steps the double heart seems to throb. Before the game the Husker organization will take part in the ceremonies presenting Jean Christie, 1940-41 pep queen. They will spell out the letters Q-U-E-E-N.
