

Huskies Fall in Dull Battle

The DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

Z-408

Vol. 41, No. 26

Lincoln, Nebraska

Sunday, October 26, 1941

Students Go to Polls In Fall Election Tuesday

With the smallest filing in many years, students will go to the polls Tuesday to elect a sophomore, junior, and senior class president, Honorary Colonel, Prince Kosmet, Nebraska Sweetheart and to vote on the proposed amendment to the student council constitution.

Polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. in the Union basement and in room 303 Ag hall from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., at ag campus, according to Dick Harnsberger, chairman of the council elections committee. The council urges all students to cast a ballot.

Two File for Soph Prexy.

Two students have filed for the position of sophomore class president, an office recently created by the council. Candidates are Gene Reese, affiliated, and George Abbott, unaffiliated.

A clause in the student council legislation which proposed the election of a sophomore class president states that "the percentage of votes cast for sophomore president must not be greater than ten percent less of the votes cast for junior and senior class presidents depending on which has the lowest figure." This will, therefore, require a good turnout of sophomores at the election or the office cannot be filled.

Zikmund, Stewart "Safe."

Junior and senior class president candidates, Alan Zikmund and Jack Stewart, respectively, were the only students to file for these posts. Unless a candidate is written in on the ballot, these men are virtually elected before the polling opens.

The main contest of the election will come with the election of (See TUESDAY, Page 2)

Sigma Xi Holds First Meeting Monday Night

The university chapter of Sigma Xi will hold the first regular meeting of the year Monday at 7:30 p. m.

Prof. W. L. DeBaufre, chairman of the engineering mechanics department will discuss "Thermal Properties of Fluids" which are valuable in the development of industrial processes involving fluids and in the design of apparatus for commercially conducting such processes. The public is invited to attend the meeting which will be held in Morrill hall auditorium.

Dr. J. B. Burt, president, has appointed Dr. Emma N. Anderson to serve as counselor for the chapter during the absence of Dr. H. H. Marvin.

Cornhusker Band Goes to McCook To Lead Festival

Off for their first trip since the trek to the Rose Bowl game last New Year's Day, the UN band will go to McCook Wednesday to head a band festival.

With exhibitions of marching, formations and several concert numbers, the Husker band will head a parade Wednesday afternoon, and in the evening will put on a 25 minute performance of marching and playing divided into parts carrying a patriotic theme and the "sweetheart" idea used between halves of the last week's Nebraska-Indiana game.

In the morning the group will participate in a massed band rehearsal with the various high school bands taking part in the festival, Don Lentz, conductor, will assist in judging the high school groups.

A massed band concert including the university and high school musicians will conclude the program. Lentz will conduct two numbers, and H. P. Sutton, former conductor of the Burlington railroad band, will direct a third.

ROTC Group To Observe Anniversary

Scabbard and Blade Plans Ceremonies for Tomorrow; Names 25 New Pledges

With 25 new pledges, Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, will observe its 36th anniversary tomorrow with the standing of retreat highlighting the day's activities.

With Millard Cluck, captain of Scabbard and Blade in charge, members of the society will form at about 5 p. m. at the Union and march as a unit to the stadium, and there stand retreat while the flag is lowered.

Scabbard and Blade was founded at the University of Wisconsin Oct. 27, 1904, by five officers in the cadet corps. Qualifications for membership are based on scholarship, leadership, initiative and character.

There are now 79 active companies with a total membership of 22,000. Associate members include men in the military service of the United States including the navy. (See ANNIVERSARY, Page 2)

Nebraska Aids Civilian Morale Service Plan

The United States office of education has asked the university to act as host to Nebraska colleges at a conference for the development of a school and college civilian morale service.

The conference will be held Saturday, Nov. 1, in the Union, according to Chancellor C. S. Boucher, and approximately 25 representatives from over the state are expected to attend.

Tigers Burst UN Bubble of Hopes With 6-0 Victory

BY BOB MILLER.

Memorial Stadium, Columbia, Missouri, Oct. 25—In a totally unimpressive display of scoring punch on the part of Nebraska and Missouri, the Tigers on the first play of the fourth quarter drove across for what was the winning margin as they won 6-0 here today.

Both teams were evenly matched thruout the contest and the majority of the playing time was spent between the 30 yard stripes. With the exception of the one long drive by the Tigers, there was nothing of the wide open game of football that was predicted.

Phi Beta Kappa Hears Dr. Shumate

Dr. Roger V. Shumate, professor of political science, will discuss "Legislative Research" at the first university Phi Beta Kappa dinner of the year Monday at 6:15 p. m. in the Union.

Professor Shumate is director of research and executive secretary of the Nebraska legislative council. Three new research pamphlets on state governmental problems have been released this fall by him concerning "Assessment and Collection of Property Taxes in Nebraska," "Taxation and Regulation of the Production of Oil and Gasoline," and "Settlement of Claims Against the State."

Hampered somewhat by a turf

GEORGE ABEL VIKE FRANCIS
Courtesy Sunday Journal Star

made soggy by rains over the last week, both offenses were slowed down to the slow running stage (See VICTORY, Page 7)

Dafoe Presents Arguments For Proposed Amendment

Ed. Note: This article was written by Bill Dafoe, supporter of the proposed amendment to the student council constitution in answer to the editorial which asked for a clearer definition of the proposal.

In Friday's Daily you challenged supporters of the proposal to amend the present Student Council constitution, to present arguments in favor of the plan. You disregard the documented list of arguments submitted to you with the draft of the proposal over a week ago. It was never published. Nevertheless, at your suggestion I am again submitting a list of the advantages.

The proposed amendment was drawn up last spring with the assistance of Professor Aylesworth of the political science department as a non-partisan measure to pro- See AMENDMENT, Page 5)

Curtain Rises for 'East Lynne' Production Wednesday in Temple

Pictured above are left to right, Harriet Magnussen, Robert Hyde, Beldora Cochran, Maribel Hitchcock and Bill McBride who play the leads in the University Theatre's "East Lynne," the tale of unfortunate Lady Isabel who deserts her husband and is sorry ever after. The production opens Wednesday and plays Thursday and Friday in the Temple.

Furthermore, Paul L. Bogan, director, is "confident that with the music, scenery of the period and the vaudeville acts, it will be an enjoyable production." In other words if you don't like the play, you will like Beldora Cochran and Bill McBride singing a duet typical of the Gay Nineties or Newman and Whittaker with their fast dance routine.

Floradora Girls Perform.

The Nebraska Floradora girls, complete with parasols, will both dance and sing while Maribel Hitchcock, and Robert Hyde will present the centuries most popular song. The exact titles of all these numbers will remain a secret until Wednesday night.

One song that can be named, however, is Portia Boynton, alumnus of University Theatre's original period ballad entitled "Give Me Your Tintype, Hubert" in which the entire company will join for the finals.

Students from the department of music will compose the orchestra under the direction of James Nehez with Professor Emanuel Wishnow supervising.

Delford Brummer, theatre artist, with the assistance of members of the stagecraft classes is responsible for the period scenery; while the hand-printed program was designed by Bette Peterson and G. W. Wilson, members of the public school art class under the supervision of Richard Sorby of the Art department staff.

Season Tickets Available.

Season tickets as well as tick- (See TEMPLE, Page 2)

YWCA Finance Workers Report Progress in Drive

Workers in the YWCA finance drive will report their progress at a meeting Wednesday at 5 p. m. in Ellen Smith hall. YW officials emphasized the importance of reporting progress in the drive.

About $325 has been turned in to date. However, this is far short of the $1,000 goal, and workers are asked to try to better this mark before the Wednesday meeting.

After freshmen and teachers have been asked to join the YW, entering upperclassmen and members will be asked to join or contribute in an attempt to make up for the difference between the total amount taken in so far and the goal.

Campus expenses total more than twice the amount allotted in the goal. With the campus contributing $1,000, the rest of the money needed is secured from the community chest.

Yearbook Takes Pics of Tassels

Tassels will meet in the visual education office in the west stadium Monday at 5 p. m. in uniforms to have their group pictures taken for the Cornhusker. All members must be there.