

Louis Fischer Discusses Bolshevism At First Union Convocation Tuesday

"Is This the End of Bolshevism?" Expert Foreign Correspondent Louis Fischer will discuss the topic at the first Union convocation of the year Tuesday at 11 a. m. in the ballroom.

Special European correspondent for the "Nation" magazine for the past 16 years, Fischer is an experienced war observer. He covered the civil war in Spain and the outbreak of the second World war.

For 14 years the reporter has lived in Russia. He once talked with U.S.S.R. Dictator Joseph Stalin for about six hours, and he knows a number of other high soviet officials. Fischer's two sons, George, 17, and Victor, 16, were born in Russia and their current stay in the United States is their first visit to their own country.

Author of the "Soviets in World Affairs," Fischer is now engaged in writing a book covering the highlights of his European experiences. He has contributed to the Baltimore Sun and many foreign magazines.

At 3 p. m. in Union parlors Y and Z the correspondent will appear in an open forum. He will answer questions about the present world crisis. Fischer will be a guest at a luncheon Tuesday noon sponsored by the school of journalism.

In constant touch with the leading officials and diplomats, Fischer promises to comment on latest developments in Europe. His talk is expected to reflect not only his wide experience as a war correspondent and political observer but also current facts from his exclusive sources of information.

Colgate university teachers have been urged to increase emphasis on daily recitations and preparation to "calm the feeling of uneasiness" resulting from conscription and world conditions.

At Massachusetts State . . .

Senior Women Advise Fresh On Dating; Insert Warnings . . . About Behavior

By Associated Collegiate Press. Freshmen co-eds at Massachusetts State College have been advised to "wear a girdle unless you're a veritable sylph—the day of the hip-swinging siren is gone."

A booklet of advice published by Isgon, senior honor society, and written by Kay Tully of Southbridge and Mary Donahue of Newburyport, advises not only how to dress but how to act.

On "dating," a major portion of the booklet, the advice is to "hold on to your kisses 'til you find somebody you really want to give them to."

"Don't forget that the boys talk about girls . . . and if you 'neck' with one man, all his 'brothers' will know it soon."

Other warnings include:

"Don't be possessive. It is the easiest way to lose a good date."

"Don't drink more than two if you drink at all. You can still be sociable without drinking."

"Don't be too choosy at first. Some fellows can introduce you to some good future dates if you're smart."

"And girls—Don't believe an eighth of what you hear."

The Salemite estimates that each student in Salem college pays approximately $1.25 for each hour spent in class.

THE CLOTHES LINE

Much Ado About Something

with people dashing hither and you to take in such beeg events as the Mizzou game, Ak-Sar-Ben coronation and dance, Mr. Artie Shaw at the Turnpike, plus the usual run of unusual house parties. Spike the punchy conglomeration with the hundreds of school teachers who have hit the campus and if you don't score a home run, you just ain't battin' in the right league.

On the side, peep if you will, at the neat new duds that are appearing over the campus on these frosty morns. You'll see everything from corduroys to cardigans, to covert coats, from skirts to sweaters and sweaters to slacks. And to turn to the vernacular, "all plenty salty, too."

Congratulations Seniors

a bit early perhaps for such an extension, but here's something for you and you and you that can't wait. When you are selecting your pose for the yearbook think of your family and friends. One of those photos NOW gives them that one chance to remember you as you are at one of the most interesting periods of your life.

And already special considerations are being made for you seniors with this tip top courtesy from Rudge's photo studio: 13 beautiful school Sepias for only $9.95. Regularly $24.95, here's what you get in this super offer—twelve 5x7 inch pictures, each in a folder and one large 8x10 inch photograph. As if that isn't enough, you'll find them all done in the beautiful, flattering, School Sepia finish.

And remember, one and all, if you haven't had that photo snapped, the time has come for all good men, and women, to come to the aid of the yearbook. Your cooperation will go far to make it a success.

How About This

story that stalks around involving Beta Johnny Edwards, Chi O Helen Smethers, and Alpha Phi Barby Jones. Until tiny facts began to loom huge on the horizon we thought his deal with the Husker mentor's daughter was a steady one. But now whispers in the dark tell of his spending all the time with Miss Smethers at the hour dance, plus a secret and sly trip to Beatrice last summer for a visit with the lassie. All of which is as easily said as done.

Sparkling Communique

from the clothing front brings popping good news of the unique half price sale in Simon's hat department. You'll be pleasantly surprised, we know, when you see those popular corduroys sport hats that were formerly $3.00 marked down to $1.50. And they're going like the proverbial hot cakes. You'll find a large variety of novel numbers and such nationally famous brands as Dobbs, all included in the sale of the month at Simon's hat department.

Let "Our Wife"

come into your life, people, 'cause she's the number one laugh maker of the year. Packing the most uproarious comedy wallop audiences have taken in many moons, this smart comedy of marital merriment full of sparkling, gay people is one that you should tie a string around your finger for so you won't forget to get your share of the season's best fun. Deliciously delightful, scandalously funny, and shockingly hilarious, it's an all-out love triangle with a girl all curves, a woman all brains, and a man ready to yell: "Uncle!"

This rowdy, racy, riotous comedy is showing at the Varsity this week with Melvyn Douglas, Ellen Drew and Ruth Hussey. Don't miss it!

For a Pleasant Intermission

at the Turnpike, pretty Pat Woods finds that a combination of a coke, memories of sweet music, and a dressy frock from Simons can't be beat. Pat receives a lot of compliments for her velveteen 3-piece jacket dress. Simons think of everything, and they've added a contrasting jersey blouse to make this outfit complete. You can get similar smart frocks at Simons in other wools, jerseys, cashmeres and crepes . . . $12.95 to $25. . . .

Incidentally, you'll see Dee Gee Gen Harmon, who definitely knows her way around in the campus circles, wearing a smooth all gold number from Simons, stylishly unique with its unpressed pleats and attractive embroidery work which runs around the neck and down the front of the dress to the waist.

And there are many other designs which will bring joy to the hearts of particular women with the spotlight on the distinctive white wool and pastel combinations. The well dressed coed, you can be sure, is the one who shops the Simon way.

The Happiness of Married Life

isn't complete without a distinctive silverware set. For those who are thinking about marriage or who have just recently been married, Gardner's offers a striking and beautiful pattern, "King Richard," exclusive at Gardner's. Rich in design, in a herald motif, the set features the style of the English renaissance excellently carried out in beautifully carved scrolls. You'll see them as well as other distinctive patterns at Gardner's, 1220 O street.

Delta Tau Delta

Buck "Back in the Saddle Again" Jones, evidently didn't have his Theta miss roped and tied as tight as some souls thought for the lady tossed his jewelry back to him with a few regrets the other eve. All of which puts him back on the range again, riding herd on the field, and keeping a sharp eye open for another prize critter.

Nippy Fall Morns

put in a call for new hats. For a selection designed to suit your desires see Nancee, 133 S. 13th. You'll like the new Dutch corduroy bonnets which come in all colors at $1.00 each. For those fall outfits don't fail to see the dressy hats in gold and ginger brown, featured exclusively at Nancee's.

Mainstring Man

Howard Kelly is a biding time in the Grill with school marns Jo Wray and Marian Stone. Marian, ex Kappa Delt prexy, and Jo, Dee Gee bombshell of last season, are now spreading the book learnin' to the chillun at York. Kelly, who needs no introduction, is now spreading himself over the pigskin since old passer back Fred Meier moved over a notch to the guard position.

A Heated Tip

from the yearbook chiefs lets us know of something new and novel packed with plenty of punch, in the selection of this season's beauty queens. So now is the time for all good men—and women—to come to the aid of beauty. Any organized group, who purchases twenty yearbooks can sponsor their favorite eye catcher. Men order those books now and sponsor a babe. Don't let the women do all the work.

Escort Soivice Deluxe

is what the Ak-Sar-Ben court's ladies are chatting about these days. Under the old set-up, it was quite a thrill for them to have as escorts, during the pomp and ceremony, Omaha's nicest young bachelors. This year, however, in keeping with the military motif, escorts will be Creighton's R.O.T.C. officers, all of which makes us think even more that today's most promising future lies in the army. But we still worry about corned beef and beans.