Sassy Items

Monday again, . . . weekend and its ever-varied excitement at an abrupt end . . . back at the dirt-digging schedule and back-breaking scholastic efforts. . . . The Kappa Sigs had their house-party, and may we add, what a house-party! Forced to omit the more gruesome details. Part of the decorations, chickens in a crate, were captured and recaptured. The first time they were given their freedom was in Bill Robinson's car. Chickens in the front seat. Chickens in the back seat. Next they made an untimely appearance at the Phi Delt house late Saturday night. They were found under beds, in a closet and roosting in rooms. Palmer Murphy was awakened early Sunday morning by a dutiful rooster perched on his bed. When Kappa Sigs took over the band during intermission: those displaying talent were Pickles Hines at the piano, Bill Robinson swinging on the clarinet, Bob Sinkey on the trumpet, and Jack Clark and Bob Gillespie alternating on the drums. We might mention Theta Dorothy Theissen's disgust at the performance, (Bill Robinson's performance) and her demand to be taken home immediately.

Not Out of Mind.

Surprise for Beta "Bush" Dalgner! At last his name in print to be linked with that of Janet Gibson, Gamma Phi, for whom he's shown an unusually lively interest. It's rumored he looks each day in this column for his name. Keep reading it, Bush, we'll surprise you again. . . . Steve Davis, Beta of last year, is returning to the campus Sunday for a short visit before leaving for the Philippines. . . . Nancy Haycock, Pi Phi, seems an awfully good reason for his visit. . . . Gene Schroeder, Phi Gam, has sent a jeweled sweetheart pin out to Denver for Halcyon Johnson, a student at Colorado's Woman's College. . . . Who says "out of sight out of mind."

. . . A regular deal, but not steady is that of Jerry Kathol, Delt, and Myrdene Bueller, Alpha Chi. What a combination: the football idol of hundreds of coeds plus the ever popular and always dated pledge. . . . Many more such combinations, and the campus eligibles will decrease. . . . Saturday night found the Sigma Kappas with much and varied excitement in the form of a house party and a candy passing for Helen Higgins, now teaching school and Harold Mizner, hailing from Wisconsin. . . .

Without a turkey, without ice cream, without silverware, without Pres Buddy Goldstein these were the conditions at the Zeta Beta Tau house last night when the pledges sneaked to Omaha with actives close on their heels. . . . Rumor says it was a tie in the race to see who got the dates previously lined up in Omaha by the pledges. . . . Pheasant dinners are being staged all over the campus in numerous houses. . . . Tom Galleher, Max Wilson, John Burnham are responsible for the fowl at the Delt house . . . while Chet Bowers, Dwight Holloway and Charles Hauppman are the successful hunters at the Phi Psi house. . . . Phi Gams held their annual Pig Dinner Saturday night. . . . get them to tell you about the mode of transportation of their alumni from Omaha and the inevitable result. . . .

'Gentleman George.'

And how does everyone like the Betas' newest—Gentleman George. We understand there are only 35 of such dogs in the country, does that indicate rarity or unpopularity? . . . Flash! We have a direct quotation from Fay Parker, Delt, that Helen Gagela, AOPi, is plenty okay. We couldn't contact Helen to find out her reaction. . . . Chicken at Hap's was preferred by the Alpha Phi pledges last night rather than their usual Monday night dinner. Their punishment will be recorded later. . . . Wanda Crumbaugh, Alpha Chi, will spend a happy week with Fletcher Conn, Sig Alph, who was on leave from the army. Too bad those furloughs can't last longer. . . . Congratulations to the five new Tri Delt, namely Wauneta Fisher, Mary McKenna, Maryon Dooley, Olive Sorenson and Frances Bodinson. . . . Who said Alpha Chi Mary Thorley was deep in a hometown romance? It seems to us that Sigma Chi Bill McKerney is doing all right in that territory judging from their frequent appearances together. . . . Palladians are limping all over the campus after their wild roller skating party at Capitol Beach last Friday. Harold Alexis especially had difficulty in deciding just when to turn the corners. . . .

Chalk one up for the DU house-mother for calmness in the line of fire. For interpretation of this cryptic statement, just ask Agnes Fox, Alpha Chi pledge, and Dee DePutron how nice and warm said housemother's car was last Sunday night. . . .

federal government should regulate by law all labor unions," the term regulate is interpreted to mean at least: 1. requiring incorporation of unions; 2. fixing legal responsibility for unlawful acts of unions and unlawful acts of members during strikes, picketing and other union activities; or 3. regulating the use of union funds.

UN Opinion . . .

More pessimistic than the average campus, students at Nebraska, almost 88 percent of them, feared that the United States could not stay out of the war.

Giving as their reason the necessity of immediately speeding up our defense effort, 25 percent of Nebraska students interviewed, almost double those throughout the country, voted in favor of declaring war immediately. The majority, 63 percent, however, voted to stay out and supply the allies while 12 percent refused to offer an opinion.

The poll on this campus was conducted as a part of the Student Opinion Surveys of America and was computed in the national averages. Interviews were held with a sample of the campus as suggested by national headquarters. Cross-sections worked out by Joe Belden included a representative of the various classes, the various colleges, men and women, and NYA and non-NYA workers.

Culver-Stockton college, Canton, Mo., is campaigning for $150,000 for construction of a library building.

Pledges Get Revenge as . . .

Tri Delt Seniors, Pajamas, Bedlinen Sneak to Omaha

Even if Delta Delta Delta seniors, who copied the traditional freshman stunt of sneaking last night to Omaha, did manage to get into a locked house early this morning, they would have had a better chance of finding bedclothes, including pajamas and sheets in Omaha than in their own house.

Tri Delt pledges went into action at dinner time yesterday when they discovered that all seniors had disappeared, and they didn't stop until they had strung seniors' sheets and pajamas across 16th street to the Phi Delta Theta house, and had received permission from the AWS to lock the seniors out of the house when they returned.

To make the stunt complete, the evening bus to Omaha was too big for the bedclothes barrier, and half of the sheets and pajamas hung from the back of the bus as it sped down 16th toward Omaha.

Jean Reed Weds FBI Employee At Buffalo, N. Y.

Jean Reed was married to Don Moore at St. Marys on the Hill, Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 23. The couple are honeymooning in New York City and are staying at the Hotel Astor. They will make their home in Buffalo.

Mrs. Moore was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and attended school here last year. Moore was a member of Kappa Sigma and a law student two years ago. He is now employed by the FBI.
