

...Picked by UN Cadets, Grable Becomes Pershing 'Rifleman'

Betty Grable, whose pictures made Will Hays censor sweater art in the movies, became an honorary member in the Pershing Rifles, national organization to promote superior soldiery. University of Nebraska's commanding officer, Captain John McPhail, and National Commanding Colonel Fred Voight chose Betty for this distinction for her performance in "A Yank in the R. A. F."

Betty could easily convince any man that his country is worth fighting for and she did just that in her latest movie. Recognizing beautiful Grable's histrionic ability and her work in morale building to the men in and out of uniform, Captain McPhail and Colonel Voight felt a membership in the exclusive military organization was just the thing.

Commented McPhail, "I invited her out of courtesy to the Military Ball. She wrote me that she couldn't come because of a previous engagement. Who knows? She may stop and see me some time," he continued, very hopefully.

Colonel Voight said, when he signed the distinctive membership to the Pershing Rifles, "Bravo, Betty, and we hope your bosses put in more pictures like 'A Yank in the R. A. F.'"
