

Society

Society Editors

June Jamieson
Joann Emerson

Sassy Items

More happening around here than we thought was possible for the amount of people we saw running loose hither and yon on the campus... First of all, let us dwell on the more beautiful things of life such as new initiates, to whom we offer our congratulations... Pi Beta Phi's, Mary Jean Warburton, Josephine Weaver, Joann Emerson and Helen Kilbury... Sigma Nus, Les Sorrell, George Gilmore and Tom Moore... We might predict rather quietly that Tom "Bunky" Moore may lose that newly acquired Sigma Nu pin not so far in the future... More about the Sigma Nu house, their hayrack ride that we heard turned into an unusually quiet house party, with the guests participating in such active games as "Farmer In The Dell" and London Bridge Is Falling Down"... The climax of the evening being: popcorn balls and tall glasses of water served in the parlor... Comment: A bit unlike the Gold Rush fling!

Blackout.

Over to the ATO house party where we found the evening was spent almost in total darkness... The black-out idea got the better of the boys... It was so dark we never did find out what happened when the lights went out?... And the ATOs won't talk... Our wishes for a speedy recovery to Freddie Adams, DU, who is in the hospital, due to injuries he received in a rough game of football between pledges and actives... Boys will be boys... A steady arrangement, one of the finest combinations ever, is that of Ruthie McClintock, Theta, and Al Busch, Phi Psi...

In and Out.

In town and out of town in pretty much of a flash was Ken Ebbery, Sigma Nu, leaving a diamond behind with Pat Knuth, DG... Any girl in need of a date to the Military Ball get in touch with Chuck Mills, Sigma Chi... He gave no desired qualifications, so we conclude 'First there, first served'... There is a story going the rounds that we can't get any details on about 'Hairless Joe' Nogginshead "Calhoun of the ATO air-raid shelter.

Pins Back and Forth.

Ardis Lyman has returned the Xi Psi Phi pin of Max Correy and with no regrets... Pinned, and we're sure for good are Marge Smith, Pi Phi, and Art Pearson, ATO... Finally, and just as we predicted Mary Stephenson, Alpha Phi, and Bob Durrie, Phi Gam, managed to offer cigars and candy to their respective sisters and brothers... All's well that prints well...

Nebraskan Errs On Registration Figures Story

Error was made in the data quoted in the Nov. 5 Nebraskan, concerning the number of students enrolled in the university. Correct figures reveal that there are 3,767 men this year as against 4,201 last year. Two thousand and forty-four women entered this year while 2,251 enrolled in 1940. Registration in the arts and science college comes to 1,255 instead of the 1,374 stated November 5, and the teacher's college enrollment was 1,017.

TYPEWRITERS

For Sale For Rental
The Royal portable—the ideal machine for students.

Nebraska Typewriter Co.
150 No. 12th St. Lincoln, Nebr.
Phone 2-2167

Your Drug Store

For all your toiletries... Buy here where the prices are reasonable.

OWL PHARMACY

148 No. 14th & P 2-1068

Teachers College Students Give Costume Dinner

Costumed as children, Mother Goose characters, and the like, students majoring in elementary education met for dinner, Thursday night at Ellen Smith hall. Shirley Hoffman, who is president of Elementary Education club, presided. Following the dinner were stunts, a grand march, and a group sing. Prizes, given for the cleverest costumes, were won by: Betty Kendall, cleverest; Marge Crandall, funniest, and Helen Kenyon, prettiest.

The following committees helped serve: serving of food, Lois Christie, Patricia Purdham, Sayre Webster, Joyce Junge, Kathryn Duncan; tickets, Jean York; publicity, Patricia Anderson; stunts, Shirley Hoffman.

Faculty Gives Last in Series Of Recitals

Last in the series of four recitals by the university faculty members was given Sunday before an audience of three hundred in the Union ballroom.

Marguerite Klinker, pianist; Emanuel Wishnow, violinist; and J. Dayton Smith, tenor presented the program of classical selections.

State Registrars Hold Annual Meet November 15

The Nebraska branch of the American association of collegiate registrars will hold its 15th annual meeting at the university Saturday, Nov. 15, in the Student Union.

Approximately 25 delegates from over the state are expected to attend the meeting, which will feature the following program:
9:00 to 9:30: Registration.
9:30: Opening meeting.
9:55: Reports of 1941 national convention of A.A.C.R. held in Chicago last April. Miss Alice C. Smith, University of Omaha, Mr. E. H. Hayward, Peru State Teachers college.

10:15: Freshman testing program. Miss Virginia Zimmer, University of Nebraska, P. H. Hansen, Dana College.

10:45: Greetings from the state superintendent's office. W. A. Rosene.

11:00: Uniform entrance blanks. E. H. Hayward, Peru State Teachers college. W. H. Watson, Nebraska Central college.

11:30: Report of nominating committee; election of officers.

11:45: Display of office records and forms, in charge of Mr. Hayward and Mr. Watson.

12:00: Adjournment.

12:15: Luncheon, Parlor Y, Student Union.

Pharmacy Grads Get State Jobs

Two graduates of the college of pharmacy, Louis Ely of Hartington and Guy L. Thompson of West Point, Nebr., have recently been appointed drug inspectors for the state by the Nebraska department of health.

Member of the class of 1913, Ely is a veteran of World War I. Upon his return he became postmaster of Hartington, and in the last unicameral legislature served as assistant clerk of the senate.

Thompson has been a retail druggist in his home town and in Bremer since his graduation.

Every institution of higher learning in Wisconsin, and some in other states, have enrolled students whose first year or two of college work was taken at U. of W. extension centers in their home towns.

MICHELSON'S

Helps Students in preparing and editing essays, term papers, theses, etc.

Expert - Reasonable

Wickersham 2-6786

420 Madison Avenue, N. Y.

Program Features Chamber Music

The Phi-Mu Alpha Sinfonia harmony hour presented "Adventures in Chamber Music" Monday, Nov. 10. The selections included will be: Allegro, Handel; Scherzo, Brahms; Andante, Schubert; Italianische Serenade, Hugo Wolf; Allegro ma non troppo, Schumann; Presto, Mozart; Fuga Riccerata in Six Voices, Bach.

Boucher Attends Educators Meet In Chicago, Ill.

Chancellor C. S. Boucher attended meetings of the National Association of State Universities in Chicago Nov. 7 and 8. He is to attend meetings in the same city Nov. 10 to 12 of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities of which he is a member of the executive committee.

Also in attendance at the latter sessions will be Dean R. W. Goss of the Graduate college, Dean O. J. Ferguson of the College of Engineering, Dean W. W. Burr of the College of Agriculture, Miss Margaret Fedde, chairman of the home economics department, and W. H. Brokaw, director, H. G. Gould and Miss Mary Ellen Brown of agricultural extension.

Students Select Records For Union Music Room

... By Balloting

What records that will be added to the Union music room will this year again be determined by the students. Balloting begins Tuesday and will continue until Nov. 20.

Students will make their choice from a list of possibilities prepared by the Union music committee. Voters may select two symphonies, two long program compositions, one piano concerto and one violin concerto.

Each person may vote only once and must sign his name to the ballot. Voting will be conducted in the music room where the record list is posted.

Geology Society To Hear Speech By Eugene Reed

"The Geology of Oil Fields in Southwestern Nebraska" will be the topic of Eugene Reed's discussion when he speaks to the open house meeting of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, geology honorary, at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

Mr. Reed is the assistant director of the university's conservation and survey department. The meeting will be held in Morrill hall, room 20.

Sig Ep Mothers Hold Luncheon

Sigma Phi Epsilon Auxiliary were entertained at a 1 p. m. luncheon Monday at the chapter house. Red and blue candles with small United States flags centered the table in an Armistice Day theme.

A business meeting followed the luncheon with Mrs. E. G. Steckley presiding. A musical program was furnished by John Greene and Bob Gelwick.

Bradford Speaks At Milwaukee

Dr. Harry E. Bradford, chairman of the department of vocational education, was a speaker at the Wisconsin state teachers' association in Milwaukee Thursday, Nov. 6. The title of his address was "Our Unsolved Problems in Agricultural Education."

Teachers Prof Writes Magazine Article

Prof. Galen Saylor of teachers college has written an article entitled "Characteristics of Good In-Service Education Programs" which appears in the November issue of the Curriculum Journal.

JOHNNY MIZE
and
MORTON COOPER

St. Louis Cardinals' first baseman and pitcher. They play ball together, hunt together, and together enjoy Chesterfield—the cigarette that Satisfies.

Sportsmen pass the word along...

It's Chesterfield

Smokers take to Chesterfield like a duck takes to water...

because they're definitely Milder
Cooler-Smoking... Better-Tasting

Chesterfield's can't-be-copied blend... the right combination of the best cigarette tobaccos that grow both here and abroad... gives a man what he wants... a cigarette that's definitely Milder and that completely SATISFIES.

Everywhere... IT'S CHESTERFIELD FOR A Milder COOLER SMOKE