More initiates and more congratulations... This time to the Sigma Kappa house which initiated Ethel Mae Lewis, Rosella Olson, Lotis Starjohn, Mary Jane Rittermaier and Maryln Hall... Belated congratulations with our sincere apologies to the DU house for their new initiates, namely Kenry Newhouse, Bud Wehrman and Bill Kittrell... The Deits held formal pledging Sunday and attended church in a body... We trust all remained attentive and wide awake... Farm House Don Wieloge wishes for just one free evening in which nothing has been scheduled when he can pass the cigars he purchased weeks ago to bind forever his pin to Esther Manion

Kiss the Girls Goodbye?

"I want to kiss the girls goodbye," exclaimed Kappa Sig Rex Weaver when he found he was to join Uncle Sam's ranks of forgotten men... We wonder just how many girls Rex will favor with the attention... A few people seen so regularly in the Corn Crib that they're almost taken for fixtures... Maurice Dingweld with Tri Delt Ruth Denney... Jerry Buller, Alpha Chi, and Phi Gam Fritz Wolfe... and finally, Bill McKearney, Sigma Chi—Well, we can't seem to recall all the names of those girls he is seen so regularly with.

Up to the Phi Rho party Saturday night will go Tri Delt Mary Brande and Milt Anderson, Sigma Chi from Northwestern, and also Tri Delt Alice Blackstone with Ed Panner... Should we issue a warning against such necessary evils as parties on the Omaha campus? Better we should keep still and let them discover it themselves... Around the campus and, frequently, are Jeanne Bovard and Kappa Sig Pickles Heines... Soaked with water at the dorm and we heard rightly were the four Sigma Chi serenaders giving out with a few tuneful (?) ditties.

ATOs Monopolize Phones.

Appeals to ATOs Bob Sandberg and Ed Butler to telephone all their girls at all the sororities in the afternoon and stop monopolizing the phone the entire evening... A diamond for the left hand of Alpha Phi Billie Bryan is on its way with Hugh Startzer, a fugitive from the air corps... Don't miss Sig Eps Bill Irwin and Charley Dickey summing up the coed pretties in the grill... No convalescence for Delt Jerry Kathol, not as long as Murrdene Buller, Alpha Chi, is waiting for him... He stepped out of the hospital and right into the grill for a coke with her.

Here's hoping Sig Ep Clint Jurgensen can ward off temptation and decide to stay away from the Sig Ep Saturday morning breakfast, since his true love Alpha Chi alum Faye Irwin of Omaha will be unable to come down... Clarence Schmadeke of the Farm House is contemplating, but seri-

No Books Friday For Engineers! Why? Free Food

If you haven't eaten for the last week because you're a mechanical engineer and have been studying, here's your chance to get back into the eating habit.

Friday evening from 5:15 to 7 there will be a free chili supper for all mechanical engineers, sponsored by Pi Tau Sigma, honorary mechanical engineering fraternity. After you have consumed your four or five bowls of chili, entertainment will be provided.

All mechanical engineers are asked not to be at the M E building before 5:15 with the presumption that they can get a head start at eating the free chili because the gratis supper will not be served until the stated time.

Death of Alum Postpones Phi Gam's Party

The houseparty planned for Saturday night by the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity has been postponed indefinitely out of respect to Dr. Elmer Hansen, prominent alumni, whose death occurred Tuesday night.

As Purple Legionnaire of this Nebraska chapter, Dr. Hanson acted as alumni arvisor and was in close contact with the present fraternity members.

Alpha Almquist Goes to Belgian Congo—Almost

Miss Alpha Almquist, UN grad, thought she was going to the Belgian Congo recently, but at the last minute her plans were halted.

Miss Almquist had planned to take charge of a nurses training school at Karawa. She has been night supervisor of a Denver hospital.

Action at Last . . .

House Parties Predominate Weekend Events on Campus . . . Friday, Saturday

Nine house parties with an abundance of new and different themes will provide plenty of entertainment for students this weekend.

Delta Gammas will decorate their house with comic strips and entertain Dagwoods, Raven Sher-mans and Dick Tracys on Saturday night. On the same evening the DU's will feature two bands playing at their own Coconut Grove and the Fiji's will be shipwrecked at their closed party.

Another closed party is the annual SAE clambake and the SAM party. Kappa Kappa Gamma's theme is the Garden of Eden and Chi Omega will revert to the days of cowboys and Indians. Alpha Sigma Phi will give a husking wagon as a door prize at their barn party.

Friday night Phi Kappa Psi goes western and ACBC hold its annual fall party.

Calendar

Saturday.

Delta Gamma house party, chapter house, 9 to 12.

Delta Upsilon closed house party, chapter house, 9 to 12.

Kappa Kappa Gamma house party, chapter house, 9 to 12.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon closed house party, chapter house, 9 to 12.

Chi Omega house party, at chapter house, 9 to 12.

Sigma Phi Epsilon annual breakfast dance, chapter house, 7 a. m.

For Versatility, Union Has No Equal

Building Center of Many Activities

By Lloydene Kershaw.

For versatility in the use made of its facilities, the Student Union, center of social life, has no equal on the campus. Tho it sounds like an overwhelming figure, 60,000 students flock thru the doors every month and are assimilated with a minimum of chaos and congestion.

Activities carried on in the building range from such utilitarian tasks as scrubbing vegetables and peeling potatoes in the peeling room in the basement to the monumental (theoretically, at least) matters settled in the fourth floor chambers of the Mortar Boards and Innocents, from which the ordinary student is barred.

Much in demand in the Union are rooms in which various campus organizations can hold meetings. At the present time all club room space is filled and many organizations are on the waiting list.

Last year's Cornhusker office has been vacated by the yearbook scribes and is now combination headquarters for the Commuters' club, for the benefit of those who bring their lunches to school; the Bundles for Britain department, which is the incentive for those coeds seen wandering up and down the halls plying knittin needles, and the Hobby Shop.

Ranking high in popularity with students is the Book Nook, leisure reading spot, which is distinguished by the radio program, Book Nook News, aired weekly from that spot over a local station.

Ballroom for Crowds over 200.

Undoubtedly the most versatile room in the building is the ballroom, where convocations, concerts, lectures, various meetings siring to go... We can't say which one called first, or rather who will be the lucky gal.

All's well that prints well. for guests, matinee dances, dancing classes and weekend dances are held. For crowds over 200, the ballroom is the place.

The appellation "faculty lounge" is somewhat deceptive for this room takes care of not only the faculty but also coffee hour groups, small forums or receptions and bridge parties. It is here that convo celebrities and lecture guests relinquish their roles as public speakers and chat informally with students and faculty members.

Filled to capacity this week are the XYZ rooms which are headquarters for the Religion and Life meetings.

For large receptions like the chancellor's reception early in the fall, the main floor lounge is used. At Christmas and Easter time special organ programs originate there also.

Even hour dances are held in the Union by various co-op houses on Friday and Saturday nights.
