

UN Loses Heart-breaker

Jones 'Delivers' Pitt 14-7 Win

By Bob Miller.

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Nov. 15.—We're unhappy! Delayed by a defense program of the Nebraska variety for three quarters and a half, Edgar Jones, a truly great back, finally got a chance to mail thru a "special delivery" touchdown with 15 seconds of the final period remaining, and he led his Pittsburgh mates to a 14 to 7 victory over Nebraska's Huskers here yesterday.

A crowd of 35,000, confident of a Husker victory at the half, sat stunned at the game's end, almost refusing to believe that they had seen correctly.

Band Shows Off Colorful Formations

Centering around an Armistice Day theme, the university band and Pershing Rifles, honorary military fraternity for basic ROTC students in the university, combined yesterday afternoon to provide entertainment between halves at the Husker-Pitt game.

The band marched onto the field playing "Cincinnatus" and followed this with the formation of a huge outline map of the United States into the center of which marched the color guard of the Pershing Rifles. In this formation the band, in a kneeling position, sang and played "I Am An American."

Rising, the band struck up the (See BAND'S SHOW, page 2)

That Jones Boy!

What they saw was well disguised in a Purple and Gold uniform with the number 15 on the back. The name was Edgar Jones.

For nearly the entire game the Huskers had been outrushing and outdoing every Panther on the field.

The Huskers scored in the second period on a 72 yard march down the field. Sindt and Bradley combined to take the ball down to the three yard line where, on second down, Bradley hit off his own left side for the score. Schleich converted.

Again in the third quarter, the Huskers fought down to the Panther three yard line where the latter (See HUSKERS, page 3)

Bogen Announces Cast of Uni Theatre's Play, 'Prologue to Glory'

Members of the cast of Prologue to Glory, the university theatre's forthcoming production, were announced Saturday by Paul Bogan, director, to include many veterans. Clarence Flick will play the lead as Abe Lincoln and Dorothy Filley will portray Ann Rutledge in this historical drama.

Others in the cast of 29 are Romulo Soldevilla as the floridly fluent town orator; Richard Putney as the blowhard promoter who gives Abe his start; and Bob Gelwick, Bettie Cox, Robert Black, and Max Whittaker. Holdovers from the East Lynn cast are Robert Hyde, Bill McBride, Martha Ann Reed, Charles Hohenseed and Robert Veach.

The play is really an all Nebraska production. The author, E. P. Conklen, is a Nebraska graduate. The story is about "the great emancipator" for whom the capitol city was named. The New York Daily News stated in an editorial review of the drama—"Prologue to Glory is one of the best historical plays we have ever seen."

The cast for the play follows:
 Abe Lincoln Clarence Flick
 Ann Rutledge Dorothy Filley
 Sarah Lincoln
 Martha Ann Bengston
 Tom Lincoln Darrell Peters
 Denny Jack Donley
 Denton Offut Richard Putney
 Squire Green Robert Black
 Aunt Polly Green Betty Newman
 Granny Rutledge Robert Veach
 David Rutledge Dale Burleigh

Dr. Allen Jack Hendrix
 Jack Armstrong Robert Hyde
 Henry Onstott Romulo Soldevilla
 Mrs. Hankins Bettie Cox
 Carrie Hankins
 Mabel Jean Schmer
 Judge Higgins Robert Gelwick
 Dave Vance Donald Farley
 Stranger Bill McBride
 Mentor Graham Don Bowers
 Emory Potter Richard Nash
 Matty Sparrow Lucille Miller
 Clary George Blackstone
 Hoheimer Kurt Porjes
 Vorhess Robert Aldrich
 Sattler Warren Mathis
 Mary Cameron Midge Beasley
 Lou Cameron Norma Johnson
 Jack Kelso Max Whittaker
 Connover Frank O'Neil

Dates of the play have been set for Dec. 10, 11 and 12.

The DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

z-408

Vol. 41, No. 41 Lincoln, Nebraska Sunday, November 16, 1941

Arndt Presides as Master Of Ceremonies at Kosmet Klub Fall Revue Thursday

Laughs, good music, and an entertaining show is the way Kosmet Klub members are describing their Fall Revue which will feature Prof. Karl Arndt, witty professor of economics, as the master of ceremonies, skits by ten houses and music by Johnny Cox's band. The revue will be presented Thursday night at 7 p. m. at the Nebraska theatre.

"Tickets for the show should be purchased NOW," said business manager Bert Smith, "for, we are very apt to have a sell-out, and then no more tickets will be available." Tickets may be purchased from any of the fifteen Kosmet Klub workers or their assistants, at the Kosmet Klub office in the Union, or at the boxoffice Thursday night.

The ten acts for the show go into rehearsal at the Temple University theatre tomorrow night at 7 p. m. Delta Gamma and Alpha Omicron Pi will be the first to rehearse their acts.

Judging of the show will be scientific and will be done by a machine, the Applause-O-Graph, which indicates on a circular dial the volume of claps or razzberries that go to each act. Making up in accuracy what it lacks in physical form, the instrument will record applause in a newly invented sound unit which records twenty

Lincoln Journal

claps as one and thus simplifies mathematical compilation.

The Applause-O-Graph is built (See KOSMET KLUB, page 3)

Chancellor to Entertain Senior Council at Dinner

Ag Boarding Club Wins Coll-Ag Cup Again

For the third consecutive year Ag College Boarding club won the Coll-Agri-Fun night revue. Their winning skit this year was "Bundles for Britain," a comedy concerning an imaginary meeting of the axis dictators.

"Darkest Africa," 4-H club skit, and "Susie and the Seven Suckers," Farm House skit, tied for second and third. The 4-H skit was put on by women and took place in Africa featuring women cannibals eating a white captive. The Farm House skit told the story of Susie and her daughter and their experiences in the university.

Florence Hamer, manager of the student committee of the Coll-Agri-Fun board presented the silver loving cup to the winning skit master. The cup must be won three years in succession for possession and it now belongs to the Ag College Boarding club. Judges for the skits were H. C. "Doc" Hull, Joe Iverson and Miss Ruthalee Halloway.

Group Plans Closer Unity Of Students

Chancellor Boucher will entertain members of the Senior Council at a dinner at the Union Wednesday night to launch its program for this year and to assure the group of his personal interest and support.

Senior presidents of all organized groups, Mortar Boards, Innocents, and 12 members to be elected by the barbs later in the week will be invited.

The Council, which was organized last year, comprises over 100 senior class leaders and was created to organize the senior class in a spirit of loyalty to the university, to promote the greater unity of the student body, and to contribute to the general welfare of the university.

Following the dinner Wednesday, Chancellor Boucher, Alumni Secretary Ellsworth DuTeau, and Student Union Director Bill Marsh will give brief speeches.

This is the second year that the Senior Council has been in existence. Because of its success last year in unifying the senior class it was decided to continue the organization this year.

UN Red Cross Sets $1,000 As Final Goal

With the end of the drive only five days away, the Student Council Red Cross committee announced Saturday that $1,000 was its goal in the campus campaign for membership.

Mary Rosborough said Saturday (See RED CROSS, page 2)

UN Grads Attend Dental Homecoming

★ ★ ★

Elect F. W. Albrecht President

The annual dental homecoming, held last Friday and yesterday, drew almost 150 graduates from ten states. A series of dental clinics was featured in the program and a banquet was held Friday evening at the Union to which the wives were invited.

Friday morning five clinics were presented by faculty members. Dr. Ormond F. Cross presented "Mandibular Impression Technic;" Dr. Donald A. Keys, "Operative Technic;" Dr. Paul G. Ludwick, "Orthodontics;" Dr. Ferdinand Friess, "Removal of Impacted Third Molar;" and Dr. G. W. Ferguson, "Amalgam Restorations."

Friday afternoon "Clinical Practice" was demonstrated by the dental staff and students in the infirmary.

More Talks on Saturday

Saturday morning's clinics included "Practical Demonstration," Dr. Knapp; "Balancing Articulation," Dr. T. A. Trumble; "Inlay Technic," Dr. Keys; "Radiography," Dr. William I. Rotton; "An-invisible Class III Gold Foil Restoration," Dr. L. E. Myers; "Pedodontics," Dr. Ralph L. Ireland, and Drs. Griess and Ferguson repeated their Friday morning clinics.

Dr. L. O. Arnot, president of the Young Advocates Hear Sterling Mutz Tuesday

Speaking at the meeting of the Young Advocates Tuesday in SS 201 at 7:30 p. m. will be Sterling F. Mutz, official hearer for the Department of Justice in this district in regard to enforcement of the draft law.

Mutz, who was formerly the president of the Lancaster Bar association, will discuss the general problem of the conscientious objector as it concerns enforcement of the selective service act. All pre-law students are urged to attend.

alumni association, presided over Friday evening's banquet. Dr. Clyde Davis, Lincoln, founder of the dental college, was present at the banquet, as were Dr. G. A. Brubb, the second dean of the school, and Dr. B. L. Hooper, present dean.

Albrecht Alum Prexy

The Alumni association elected Dr. F. W. Albrecht president, Dr. B. H. Weeth, vice president; and re-elected Dr. R. L. Ireland, secretary-treasurer of the association for the coming year. Plans to raise sufficient funds for expanding the dental library were made the main project of the association for the following year.

At least one graduate from each class beginning with the class of 1909 attended the homecoming. Two brothers, Dr. Henry O. Weeth of Seattle, Wash., and Dr. Byron H. Weeth, New York City, traveled the longest distance to attend the meetings. Both flew, Dr. B. H. Weeth and his wife flying in their own plane.

At Flickers Show . . . Union Presents Two Mystery Thrillers Tonight in Ballroom

. . . No Place for 'Fraidy-cats'

If you're afraid of the dark, please stay away from the Union

Crete Artists Exhibit Work In UN Galleries

Morrill hall houses a state exhibit of paintings in connection with national art week, Nov. 16 to 23. Mrs. Zadie C. Booth, Doane art instructor, has a water color painting, an oil painting, a wood block and two carved pieces.

Others exhibiting are B. L. Booth, Dr. F. K. Richter, former Doane instructor, and Mrs. Bryan S. Stoffer flickers show tonight. Because from 8 p. m. until about 10, the camera in the ballroom will be revealing two of the early century's best mystery thrillers, "Tatters" and "The Cat and the Canary."

"Tatters, a Tale of the Slums," tells the story of the kidnaping of a little rich boy and it doesn't spare the terror.

Recently remade by Paulette Goddard and Bob Hope, "The Cat and the Canary," shown tonight will be the original silent version. Directed by Leni, a German famous for his camera technique, the picture is full of eerie lighting and weird camera effects.

To ease the tension of the evening, Beatrice Kay, songstress for "The Gay Nineties Review" radio (See FLICKERS, page 2)