

Vacation Begins Today, Ends Next Monday; Union Closes Wednesday Noon

Thanksgiving vacation, beginning at noon Wednesday, will end Monday when classes resume at 8 a. m.

According to a recent notice from Dean Thompson's office, students will not be granted excuses for missing classes immediately after vacation except in cases of emergency. "Distance of travel, seasonal employment, special personal convenience and the like do not," says the notice, "constitute an emergency."

Reports indicate that the weather Wednesday will be fair, and traveling conditions will be good. No change of temperature for the holiday is forecast by the weather bureau.

UN Students Represent 34 States, Nine Foreign Lands . . . and District of Columbia

The fellow next to you in class may speak Spanish fluently or talk with an "eastern" accent, but that is hardly cause for comment since students from nine foreign countries and from 34 states and the District of Columbia are registered at the university.

Foreign countries represented include: Canada, Hawaii, Honolulu, Puerto Rico, Canal Zone, Turkey, Chile and Japan.

South Dakota heads the list of states represented with 70 "Sun Shine" states enrolled. Second largest contingent hails from Colorado and numbers 49, while Wyoming is a close third with 43. Other states with a large representation include: Kansas, 34; Missouri, 27; Illinois, 20; Minnesota, 14, and New York 13.

Most of the students are close to home. Three hundred and thirty-seven Omahans greet each other on the campus every day, while 84 Grand Islanders say "hello." Beatrice students number 63, and 60 North Platters are here. Other large lists are Hastings 60; 46 from Kearney and 41 from Fremont.
