

Unions Exchange Ideas

The DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

2-408

Vol. 41, No. 53

Lincoln, Nebraska

Sunday, December 7, 1941

Delegates Have Full Two Day Program

One hundred and nineteen delegates from some 54 university and college student unions registered at the University of Nebraska Friday morning for the national convention of the Association of College Unions for which the Nebraska Union acted as host Friday and Saturday.

Walter Heidman, jr., director of the Union at Wesleyan University, Middleton, Conn., was named president of the association for the coming year. Representatives of the universities of Illinois, Minnesota and Cincinnati offered to act as hosts for next year's convention.

James E. Lawrence, editor of the Lincoln Star, welcomed the convention to Lincoln at a 10:30 brunch Friday, following which tours of the Union building and the state capitol were conducted.

Three seminars were on the Friday afternoon program. Harvey Stenson, program consultant at the Minnesota Union, and Warren G. Messer, director of McKenzie Union at Wayne University, led a discussion of "Guidance and Personnel in the Union." Presiding was Foster Coffin, director of Willard Straight hall at Cornell university.

Operating Headaches.

Vernon Kretschmer, director of the Illini Union at the University of Illinois, was chairman of a session on "Operating Headaches." Morton Margolin, first vice president of the Nebraska Union's board of managers, and Keith Spalding of the University of Kansas lead the student meeting on "Union Student Administration."

At 4:30 a coffee hour was held (See CONVENTION, page 2)

Military Ball Reveals Harriet Talbot As 1941 Honorary Colonel of ROTC

Presentation Ceremony Uses Colorful 'V' for Victory Theme

"V" stood for Talbot Friday night at the coliseum as Harriet Talbot, in a spectacular presentation ceremony, was revealed as honorary colonel of the UN ROTC unit at the annual Military Ball which opened the social formal season with a galaxy of formal gowns, top hats and lovely flowers.

Chosen by the students in the fall election, Miss Talbot faced the entire ROTC officers corps and almost 3,000 other cadets, dancers, and spectators who watched her appear in the doorway of the red, white and blue presentation set that gradually came up to reveal a large door of modern design flanked with shafts of lights on either side and silhouettes of a spread eagle.

Above the doorway was a blue field studded with lighted stars, and two bars of neon lights moved dramatically outward from the door to form a huge V bounded in red neon with the Morse code . . . — making the border. At this moment the doorway opened and as the new honorary colonel stepped through the points of the

(See BALL, page 2)

King of Hearts Filings Close Tomorrow at 5

"Filings for King of Hearts will close tomorrow at 5 p. m. and candidates may file in John K. Selleck's office until then," Miriam Rubnitz, Mortar Board member, announced today. "There will be no cards up anyone's sleeve and all candidates will be given a fair deal. So don't be a jack, what the deuce! Shuffle out, boys, and file before it's too late. Who knows? You may be a king."

All university women will vote for their choice for King of Hearts Thursday in Ellen Smith from 8:30 to 5:30 p. m.

Those who have their tickets Thursday will receive masks when they vote. Those who buy their tickets later will get their masks when they arrive at the "Black Masque Ball" Friday night.

Dancers will unmask just before the presentation of the most eligible bachelor, Russ Morgan and his orchestra will play for the ball.

Bradford Speaks At Ag College Christmas Fest

Opening with the traditional candle-lighting ceremony and carols sung by the ag college chorus, a Christmas party for ag students will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 17 in the student activities building on ag campus.

Dr. H. E. Bradford, chairman of the ag department of vocational education, will give a short address during the program which is in charge of the ag exec board. One of the party features will be the chorus' singing several selections from the Messiah. The party is open to the public.

Students Take All Tickets For Union Carols Program

University Singers will present their third annual Union-sponsored Christmas carol program this afternoon. Tickets for reserved seats have all been distributed and only standing room in the hall remains. The program will be presented at 2 and again at 4 p. m.

Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook, director of University Singers, will lead the group in unusual carols from many countries of the world. Copies of all the songs included will be printed on the programs.

Wearing red robes and carrying lighted candles, the Singers will sit between two lighted Christmas trees on benches draped in green. A star of Bethlehem will shine on the stage backdrop and candle light will flicker on each side of the singers.

The program will consist of:

1. Alla Trinita—Traditional.
2. Gloria Patri—Palestina.
3. Adoramus Te—Palestina.
4. Tenebrae factae sunt, Pastorale—Palestina Bach.
5. Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming—Prætorius.
6. Bethlehem—Glatz Folk Song.
7. Still Grows the Evening—Traditional Bohemian.
8. Angels O'er the Fields—French Folk Song.
9. Frøise God, Extol Him—Norwegian Mountain Song.
10. Carol of the Russian Children—From White Russia.
11. Touro-Louro-Louro—Provencal.
12. Sleep of the Child Jesus—Gevaert.
13. Noel Nouvel—Old French.
14. The First Noel—Old English.
15. The Magic Kings—Traditional French.
16. The Annunciation—Bas-Quebec.

17. Palapan—Traditional French.
18. Carol of the Doves—Polish.
19. Jesu, Thou Dear Babe Divine—Traditional Hayti.

ATO Awards Grad Student Fellowship

David H. Thompson, graduate student in political science, was awarded the $300 fellowship by the Alpha Tau Omega Foundation Fund. Thompson is a graduate assistant in the political science department.

Thompson was initiated by Gamma Theta chapter of Alpha Tau Omega on this campus in 1937 and later affiliated at the University of Michigan where he got his degree last June. The fellowship is granted annually by Alpha Tau Omega to some outstanding member who desires to do graduate work.

Working for his masters degree, Thompson intends to teach when he gets his degree. He intends to specialize in the study of governments of the western hemisphere and is partially interested in the background and governments of the Latin-American countries.

Thompson writes the "Behind the News" column for the Daily Nebraskan.

Honorary Colonel Harriet Talbot . . .

Lincoln Journal.

Union Has CPT Stand This Week

Reduced Fees Beginning Next Semester Include Insurance, Physical Exam

Aeronautical Commission of Nebraska is planning to erect a stand in the Union for the purpose of acquainting the students with the opportunities offered by the civilian pilot training course. The stand will be put up tomorrow and will continue thru Saturday, Dec. 20.

At the stand will be one of the flight instructors of Nebraska assisted by two girls dressed as airline hostesses. Bulletins and folders containing information about the CPT will be available at the stand.

O. J. Ferguson, dean of the engineering college, explaining the purpose of the stand said, "The feeling was that the men of the university do not understand clearly what the opportunities and requirements of the CPT are. Some students believe that they have to be an engineer, have credits in engineering courses, or have math-

(See CPT STAND, page 2)

Draculas Get 'It' Done

★ ★ ★
Powerhouse Rolls over Yearbookies

"It" did it. A powerful Daily Nebraskan Dracula football team rolled over the "yearbook" rookies yesterday afternoon to the tune of 43-4 before an estimated crowd of 24,000 who crowded into the stands to watch the outstanding post season game of the season . . . naturally.

With Coach "Mamma" Kerrigan pacing the length of the field egging her victorious team on to touchdown after touchdown, the underdog Cornhuskerites didn't have a chance . . . naturally.

Using a whirlwind pass and running attack, the Draculas completed 30 forward passes and ran a total of 320 yards to pile up the biggest score against the yearbookies since the inauguration of the game 15 years ago . . . naturally.

With Killer Miller and Sleazy Schlater at halfbacks and Sideslip Svoboda calling signals, the Dracula worked like a charm against Killer Huwaldt, Meaty-Matey Mattoon and Stabber Robinson of the Cornhuskerites . . . naturally.

Lay Library Cornerstone

The cornerstone of the new Don L. Love Memorial Library will be laid Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Participating in the ceremonies, which will be informal, will be Chancellor C. S. Boucher; Dr. R. A. Miller, director of university libraries; R. W. Devoe, president of the board of regents; W. E. Barkley, administrator of the Love estate; J. L. Teeters, close business associate of Mr. Love; and Frank Peterson, lawyer for the estate.

The spectators booted loudly when the Cornhuskerite line left the field saying "We won't play with those naughty Draculas. They play too rough." . . . naturally.

When "It" walked onto the field before the opening kickoff, the crowd gasped and then began a cheering session which lasted almost ten minutes. After the Cornhuskerites discovered the identity of "It" a heated conference between the two coaches, Krafty Kerrigan and Ripplin Russel followed, since Ripplin Russel hadn't thought of using "It" on her team and she realized all was lost . . . naturally.

Following the game the coaches made statements to the press. Krafty Kerrigan stated, "I knew it was in the bag." Ripplin Russel, crushed by the slaughter of her team, simply said, "Sob Sob!" and she meant it . . . naturally.