

Husker Cagers Trip Frosh in Contest

Teams Mix In Extended Scrimmage

Varsity Crew Outscores Freshmen, 61-14; Coach Drills Squad for Opener

By BOB MILLER.

Riding roughshod over a fighting frosh team yesterday afternoon in the coliseum, Coach Ad Lewandowski's varsity cagers hung on a decisive 61-14 hiding as they pepped for their opening tilt Friday evening against South Dakota.

Lew gave his charges a full game of practice with regulations governing the play all the way thru. The frosh, under the tutelage of Coach Paul Amen, were hopelessly outclassed, sinking but two baskets during the entire contest.

Entire Squad Performed.

The entire varsity squad was given an opportunity to show what they could do under fire and all of them turned in a good account of themselves. The seniors and returning lettermen carried the brunt of the battle for the first part but were followed up ably by the sophomore members.

Sid Held was the scoring leader for the entire fray with his three buckets and three extra points giving him nine points. Second honors were shared by two sophomores, Allen Artman and Bobby Bramson, who filtered three baskets apiece thru the net for six points each.

Third Place With Five.

There were three others who tied for third honors with five points each: Les Livingston, Warren Marquis and Bob Heinzelman. Mentor Lewandowski used 18 players in the 40 minute game, while in opposition Amen used 16 of his frosh in a vain attempt to stem the tide.

The freshmen were kept busy on defense most of the time and did not get much chance to show anything in the way of an offense. Baskets by Don Anderson and Fred Cassidy were separated by the half while ten free throws accounted for the rest of the scoring. Connie Healy scored two points via the free throw line to tie for top scoring honors in a doubtful sense of the word.

Coach-Pleaser.

The game proved several things to the coaches who watched the show. The first was that ball handling on the part of the varsity was spotty with occasional wild passes marring the exhibition of scoring power. Teamwork and timing showed a need for improvement with play in under the basket looking ragged at times.

But in spite of all this, "basket eyes" were improving considering the earliness in the season. The lack of height on the part of the varsity crew was well hidden due to increased speed on the part of the "short guys" on the squad.

Sodak Team Awaited.

The South Dakota team, beaten previously by Minnesota, 56-35, will invade Huskerland on Friday to inaugurate the 1941-42 cage season. On the starting lineup for the Sodaks will be Smith and Solberg at forward; Taplett and Ebert at guard and LeMaster at center.

Players getting into the struggle for the varsity are: Fitzgibbon, Thompson, Goetze, Held, Livingston, Young, Bottorff, Marquis, King, Vacanti, Hay, Gribble, Elson, Heinzelman, Artman, Bramson, Fuller and Rupp.

Frosh Players.

For the frosh cagers were: Cassidy, Snider, W. Winter, C. Healy, Bossom, Nelson, Rouner, Knudsen, Brooker, Nutzman, Leager, Nutzman, H. Winter, Hanway, Rikli, Anderson, Cutshal, Morris Fisher and Mathias Volz officiated.

The Sports Mill

A Comparative Score—
Strength of South Dakota, Husker's foes on Friday evening, can in some way be ascertained by a comparative score... Monday evening, Coach Rube Hoy's basketekers invaded the Minnesota Gopher's home court and suffered a 56-35 lacing at the host's hands. ...Previously, the Gophers had defeated Millikin, a comparatively unknown college, by a score that approximated the Sodak trouncings.

Coach Ad Lewandowski knows nothing more of the invading team. ... "All I know is that they played Minnesota Monday night and got beat," was Lew's comment... They were tough last year in the season's opener with the Huskers as they managed to win a 40-39 decision after two overtime periods. ... But there was a difference between the 1940-41 team and the present contingent.

Let's Analyze—
At the forward spots on the first team, the two Johns of the lettermen will probably get to start... Fitzgibbon and Thompson, short in stature, have a fast break and are good at working the ball in to the basket... Thompson stands 5-10 and Fitzgibbon pushes the mark up to 5-11... Goetze has the inroad for a starting berth at center due in great measure to his past experience and due to his height, 6-1... At the starting guard posts will more than likely be Held and Young... At 6-4, Held is the tallest cager out followed closely by Young at 6-3.

Speed for Height—
It looks to us like this cage team will be sacrificing speed for height... There are no 6-7 Al Randall's on hand and no 6-4½ Don Fitz's but at the same time there is speed present the like of which was not seen on last year's team... Outstanding sophomores are veering into the spotlight and it will not be a strange thing to see them pulling many games out of the proverbial bag this winter.

Bengtson Speaks To Crete Women

Dean N. A. Bengtson, head of the Junior Division, addressing a joint meeting of the Crete Business Women's League and the Association of University Women, spoke on the subject, "Latin America and Hemisphere Defense." He discussed the geographic phases of defense in middle America where interest centers on the Panama Canal. Over 100 people heard the address given in the Crete city hall Monday night.

The placement bureau of Bemidji (Minn.) State Teachers college has placed 96.4 percent of all candidates for position in the last five years.

nucleus of his team... These were Al Randall, Don Fitz, Hartman Goetze and Sid Held... This year things are a little different since Held and Goetze are returning along with seven other veterans of last season's campaigns.

Not a Good Record.
The present squad will not have to go far to match their immediate predecessors in the matter of wins... Last year the Husker cager left the maples victorious only eight times in 18 tries... They won six of their ten conference games but in games outside the conference they were forced to accept defeat—six out of eight times... This is the record that looms as the goal of this edition and we will be very much surprised if they don't turn in a much more impressive season for it may be the last one for a while.

They have the Goods—
Nine, count them, nine experienced players are on hand and are definitely shaping up... Topping the list we see Held and Goetze, of course, followed by John Fitzgibbon, John Livingston, Max Young, John Hay, Lyle King and Chuck Vacanti... The last three are minor letter winners while the first six have a major award to their credit. First team positions will definitely be taken from among these and there is a fight for the rest of the spots that are open.

G. Abel Wins Spot on ACP All-American

George Abel, ace Cornhusker guard, rated third team mention on the Intercollegiate Sport Writers' team, selected by the 83 college sport scribes, including Bob Miller for the Daily Nebraskan. The sprinting 200 pound Husker guard was teamed with Frank Whonic, Alabama's key linesman. Clarence Herndon was the only other Husker mentioned, winning honorable mention behind nine teams.

Jenkins Honored.
Crisp-tackling Darold Jenkins, Missouri's hard-fighting pivot, won unanimous approval for the first team post. The Tigers' speedy halfback, Bob Steuber, was behind Abel as the highest ranking Big Six griddler. Steuber rated a sixth team halfback post.

Seven Veterans Return to Help Tank Prospects

Seven veterans are expected to pace Coach Tom Leeke's 1941-42 aquatic squad. The Husker splashers finished second in the Big Six last year behind Iowa State in a blanket finish.

Leading the swimmers are vets Les Oldfield, backstroke record breaker; Don Hilgert, one of the loop's top sprint men; Ki Roman, backstroke; Bill Edwards, sprints; Cliff Lambert, middle distances; Tom Woods, middle distances; and Roy Foster, breast stroke. Hilgert is expecting a call from Uncle Sam's air corps.

Leeke pointed out the fact that the pool is open to university students from 3 to 6 o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday; 5 to 6 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday; 3 to 5 on Saturday; and from 11 to 1 every day except Sunday.
