Such jewelry as we've never heard of until now! Looks like all the fellows on the campus will be meeting monthly installments for a long time... More diamonds take us to the Alpha Xi house where we find Irene Courtney sporting one from Norman Johnson and also Kathryn Smith has the big from Kep Harding ATO... The Alpha Xis also got a Delta Sig pin thrown in—from Jack Knicely to Betty Klingel... And another diamond in the Phi Mu house, that of Kay Donovan from former Theta Xi Frank Little... More diamonds in the Kappa Delt house—those of June Morrison from Kappa Sig Hub Ogden and Ellen Wilkins is now flashing her left hand with a lovely stone from Lee Kloistmeyer, AGR... And another one of the prized stones is being worn by Lorraine Grant, Tri Delt, from Dick Faytinger, Sig Chi... To Betty Anne Clarke, AOP, with love from Sig Ep prexy, Ed Steckley was another Christmas diamond... Along with the engagement rings come wedding bells... New Year's Eve found Farm House Norm Davis and Marjorie White taking the final vows... Mary Luikhart took the short trip to Texas to see Delt Dick Boyer and came back wishing it weren't so awfully far away! Farm House Milo Hunt came back to Nebraska for Christmas and left his pin with Marion Hunt and left his pin with Marion Hunt

Way Down South.

Texas claimed another girl over the holidays—Alpha Chi June Stover visited Leslie Stewart, New Year's evening in Monterey, Mexico... Another pin (ah, romance!) Mary Bonebright, AOP, has the DU pin of Don Shaneyfelt... Another Farm House pin is caught in the campus whirl and resides with Joan Ferris, Kappa Delt, from Merle Reynoldson... Remember that pin-hanging at the Pi Phi house? Isn't it irony that Phi Delt Phil Reed had to hang fraternity father Nels Butterworth's pin when he optioned Jeanie Porter... Nels went steady with Jean years before she discovered Phil and now Nels' pin, via Phil, is guarding that arrow... Alpha Phi Nancy Halligan took a Beta pin from Bill Sweeney... It's not the first time she's had one, either, but now she and Bill are double-dating last year's donor, Tom Woods... Kappa Mary Beeson's much disturbed over reports that she has a Beta Sig pin, when the real thing down at Park school in St. Louis has parted with his wings just for her... Sigma Phi Epsilon announces the pledging of Kenneth Barta of DeWitt... Congrats... And all's well that prints well...

Any Bonds Today? . . . Women Forsake Traditional Buds for National Defense

Defense stamps and bonds will soon replace the good old fashioned corsage, at least in the case of the two organizations having their annual formals this Friday.

Doing their bit for defense, the Alpha Chi Omegas have requested their dates to send no corsages but to use that money in buying defense stamps.

According to Miss Esther Ostlund, dorm social director, the girls there will give their flower money to the Red Cross. "We wondered what we could do as a unit for defense and since we are too large a group to knit, we de-

Dixieland Band Plays at Union Affair Friday

The Student Union will open its post-holiday dance season with the appearance Friday night of an orchestra new to the university, Harry Collins and his ten piece band.

Dubbed "Dixieland" swingsters, the organization features a brass trio and novelty numbers. Admission price is fifteen cents.

. . . At Friday's Formals

Decided to have the girls' dates donate the corsage money to the Red Cross," said Miss Ostlund. A box will be placed near the orchestra at the Lincoln hotel ballroom and escorts who wish will put their money in it.

History Magazine Features Articles on The Sioux Indian

A memorial to the Sioux Indian is featured this quarter by Nebraska History, the magazine published quarterly by the Nebraska State Historical society.

The new issue of the magazine features articles by Addison E. Sheldon, editor of the Nebraska History, the late Gutzon Borglum, Congressman Coffee, Hon. Robert G. Simmons, and many other notable Nebraskans and authorities on the Sioux Indians. The entire magazine is devoted to memorials, articles and poems written about the Sioux Indians, their government, history, and traits.

A. E. Sheldon's article, "A Memorial to the Sioux Indian," cites the importance of this great nation of Indians and also lauds the proposed memorial in honor of the Sioux nation, to be erected near the crossing of highways 19 and 20 near Chadron, Nebraska.

Sculptor Writes Memorial. The late Gutzon Borglum, sculptor of the Rushmore Memorial in the Black Hills, contributed a short memorial to the Sioux Indians and other brief articles on memorials in general and the proposed memorial for the Sioux nation.

Everett Pitt Wilson wrote the "Story of the Oglala and Brule Sioux in the Pine Ridge country of Northwest Nebraska in the Middle Seventies." His article tells the hardships, the battle with the pioneers, and their general history thru the 1870's.

Numerous articles and poems are included in this Sioux Me-
