the mean time George Evans and Don Harvey had combined to make the score read 44-42. Thompson made good use of two gratuitous tosses to ease the strain.

Three minutes remained and Sid Held snuck in under the basket to convert an opposition mistake into two points for the Scarlet squad. Hartman Goetze clinched the affair with a long swisher as Thompson dropped in a free toss for fun.

time, the Huskers stalled and did a good job of it, preventing the guests to get near their own basket.

Held captured scoring honors once again with six buckets and four free throws for 16 points. Don Harvey was the outstanding offensive man for the opposition, sinking 13 points of which 11 were in the last period. He gained runner-up honors.

Livingston is Standout.

But for all around performances, Les Livingston drew the little brass ring. He contributed six points on offense and was a demon on defense. His interceptions and floor leadership sparked the victorious Huskers in their second half rejuvenation.

George Evans turned in a creditable game at guard both on the scoring end and the defensive end for Coach George Edwards Tigers. The Huskers will entertain Dr. Phog Allen's touted Kansas U team here next Saturday night.

A New Era—

Ever since Kansas State abandoned their wrestling schedule, there has been no conference wrestling tournament in sight... On Friday and Saturday of last week, Coach Jerry Adam took his grapplers to one of the biggest non-conference meets in the mid-west... The results of this meet were not too discouraging... It looks like a new era perhaps, but now there will be no conference meet in which to exhibit the new edition.

Best in the Midwest—

At the meet were the elite of the midwest as far as wrestling is concerned Oklahoma A. & M. perennial national champs, Minnesota, Duquesne, Minnesota, Iowa State, Iowa Teachers, Cornell and Michigan were all present at the weighing in period Nebraska, although falling far short of winning the team title did contribute some good wrestling.

The Coppel Brothers—

Newt Coppel, a junior with plenty of wrestling talent, was the sole winner for the Huskers as he came through five matches without a loss finally decisioning Roy Reppert of Iowa State to win the unofficial 145 pound title... His brother, Ed, came in for his share of the glory as he won three out of four matches in the 155 pound division... A sophomore, Ed is expected to show plenty when the actual season gets under way... His sole loss was to an Oklahoma A. & M. national champion and that was a close match.

the right places to help his mates keep in the game and his defensive work was tight.

Also, Herb Jackman—

Another Husker that turned in a good account of himself was Herb Jackman, 240 pound roly-poly heavyweight... With the aid of one default, he rolled up three victories and bowed in defeat once... He lost to Man Mountain, Butch Levy, of Minnesota football fame... Levy is also a national champion in the heavyweight division... For the laughs out of wrestling, it certainly appears that the heavies have the advantage... They seem to get the most bounces per fall.

Pro Tennis Stars—

Announcement was made by the athletic department Saturday that an all-star tennis show would be on the books for Husker sport fans... Jan. 27 will be the night... On the docket will be Don Budge and Fred Perry, the professionals of some time and the two new pros, Frankie Kovacs and Bobby Riggs... Until their turn to the pro ranks, the former were the seeded number one and two amateurs.

Intramurals Speed Along, In Semifinals

First semester activity in the Jack Best trophy race will come to an end this week with the play-off of the finals of water polo and badminton. Finalists will be decided in the semifinal playoffs tonight at the Coliseum. The finals in both sports will be Thursday evening.

Leading the race for the water polo cup are the ATOs, defending champions. The Alpha Taus will be fighting for their third straight trophy.

The first semifinal match in water polo will pit the SAEs against the Alpha Sigs at 8:20 p. m. tonight in the Coliseum pool. The ATOs pair off with the Phi Deltas in the other bracket at 8:40 p. m. The winners will meet in the finals and the losers for third place Thursday night.

Badminton is the new sport to the interfraternity set-up. Strongest contenders in the field are the DUs, lead by tennis star Harry Ankeny. The Betas rank as strong contenders, with the SAE's and the Kappa Sigs' strength judged only by their showings in the league races. The Betas are leading in the as yet unfinished tennis tournament.

Pairings for the semifinals in badminton find the Betas battling the SAEs and the DUs against the Kappa Sigs. As in water polo, the finals and consolation playoffs will be Thursday evening.

Powerful KU Basket Team Tests Tigers

Missouri Is Host Club To Lawrence Quintet as Big Six Fight Warms

Special to Nebraskan.
LAWRENCE, Kas.—Another chapter in one of the nation's oldest basketball rivalries will be written Wednesday at Columbia when the Kansas Jayhawks and the Missouri Tigers clash on the court for the 104th time.

Back in 1907 the two schools met on the court for the first time. Since then their meetings have been frequent and the records show that Kansas has triumphed 65 times, with Missouri the winner on 39 occasions.

Jays Hold Indian Sign.
Victorious in both of their games with the Tigers last year, the Jayhawks are favored to down Missouri again Wednesday. Kansas has played only three games to date this winter and has won them all.

A convincing 54-32 victory over Oklahoma started the Jayhawks on their drive toward another Big Six championship. Eight times in the last eleven seasons, Dr. F. C. Allen's cagers have won or tied for the conference title.

Charlie Black Storms.
Missouri's tall men, Roy Storm, 6 foot 5 inch junior, and Ross Burns, 6 foot 6 inch sophomore, will have their work cut out for them in endeavoring to stop Charlie Black, Kansas' brilliant 6 foot 4 inch forward.

Black, a 190 pound sophomore, proved too much for the Oklahoma defense, stuffing in 10 field goals and 5 free throws for 25 points. He also had been high point man against Denver.

A good pivot shot man, Black is a terror for the defense to attempt to cover. His pivot when he fakes a shot covers so much territory that it pulls his guard completely out of position. If the guard does not follow him when he starts his fake, he carries it thru for a shot. The big boy's rebound work was a feature of the Oklahoma game.

John "Thin Man" Buescher, center, and Ralph Miller, senior forward, carry most of the remainder of the burden on offense.
