Minnesotans Due Perform At Coliseum

... This Afternoon

Dr. Ralph A. Piker and his undefeated exponents of the gymnastic sport from the University of Minnesota will attempt to make it two victories over the hapless Cornhusker gymnastics team when they invade the UN coliseum this afternoon at 4 p. m.

Leading the list of experts which the invaders will send against the Huskers, will be Newt Loken one of the foremost all-around gymnasts in present day intercollegiate competition. Loken is 1941 national horizontal bar champion and took first in Big Ten all around competition.

Loken Has Class.

It is probable that Loken will be crowned National all-around champion for the current season, in Coach Miller's opinion. The Minnesota team also has another versatile performer in Olson, a promising sophomore, who furnished Coach Charley Miller's proteges with much competition in their last meeting.

Rounding out the Minnesota squad will be such capable men as Warpena, Wilken and Berg.

In the evening the University of Minnesota team along with the Nebraska squad, will give a free demonstration as their part of the program offered by the department of physical education and athletics.

The Sports Whirl

By Bob Miller

Coaches Entertain—

When the coaches entertain, they do a good job... Tuesday, to introduce Elmer "Gus" Holm to Lincoln sports writers, the rest of the coaching staff did the honors... Holm impressed me in several ways... First he has maintained the trim of an athlete and displayed a keen interest in all phases of the sports world... He is approximately six feet in height and weighs in the 200 pound neighborhood... He has dark, somewhat curly hair and a pleasing personality... Yes, it looks like we will get on well with Nebraska's new line coach.

Biff Recalls—

In New York, Major Biff Jones is still using the word "our" in referring to Nebraska and "that team" when speaking about the West Point grid team... Biff indicated in an interview that he would be back to teach Nebraska students the art of football when the war was over... He expressed confidence in the present staff set up at Nebraska as "an effective organization."

Oklahoma Starts Early—

The Sooners have been berating the Iowa State cage quint with caustic comments of direct aim at the Ames institution... Coach Louis Menze could not quite understand the reason for the attack and so queried Bruce Drake, the Sooner coach, about it... Drake was ready with the answer and gave it to him... "We're not mad at Iowa State but we're just getting in a little practice before Kansas U. comes to town, late this month." This battle looks like a natural and if the Sooners have a pep rally before the game, other guests might appear... Turn about if fair play or something along that line.

Big Six Honor—

Kansas, while on the subject,

... Leave Tomorrow

Nebraska's wrestling team will embark Friday morning on its longest trip of the campaign—a voyage that will carry the Scarlet and Cream grapplers to Iowa State, Cornell (Iowa), Michigan U., and Michigan State.

Newt Copple and Herb Jackman, victors for the Huskers in the Iowa State loss Saturday night, will spark the team. Copple, 145-pound grappler, won his division in the Midwest Wrestling Tournament at the Iowa State gym earlier in the season.

Rest of Squad.

Other Husker grapplers certain to make the trip, according to Coach Adams, are Meyer Euoka, 121 pounds; Franklin Messerschmidt, 128 pounds; Ed Copple, 155 pounds; and Ken Miller, 136 pounds. The remaining squad member will be chosen from Nick Douvas, Ray Straska, Ken Husenmoller (all 175 pounders), and Bob Poe and Ray Straska, 165 pound warriors.

Friday night will find the Scarlet and Cream meeting Iowa State at Ames. The squad will travel to Cornell Saturday night, then branch each for Monday and Tuesday matches with Michigan University and Michigan State.

was upholding the honor of the conference on Tuesday night when they humbled the Creighton Bluejays from Omaha, 53-47... Creighton was the team that handed a hiding to the Great Lakes team that handed the spanking to Kansas U that dropped Iowa State that fell to the Great Lakes after a spirited session... Try and figure that one out.

Building Men Is Feature Of Exhibits

... At Coliseum

To get students conscious of physical education and morale building, the University of Nebraska's department of men's physical education and athletics will present free of charge a demonstration in the various phases of sports.

The demonstration will be given this evening at 7:30 at the coliseum and will feature exhibitions in gymnastics, wrestling, boxing, tennis, track and swimming. It is free to the public and will be of widespread interest due to the varied quality that it presents.

Dr. R. G. Clapp, department director, is sponsoring this exhibition in the hope that more men students will become interested in physical training and will follow it up by registering or by participating in the various sports offered.

Primarily the exhibition will be to engender new interest and all university men along with the general public are invited. Of special interest will be a gymnastic exhibition by the University of Minnesota team, Big Ten champions.

Complete Details Tomorrow. Complete details of the courses will be carried in tomorrow's issue of the Daily. The exhibitions on tap for tonight are as follows:

- Vigorous calisthenic drill—Prof. W. W. Knight.
- Class vaulting exercises on heavy gymnastic apparatus.
- Wrestling—J. J. Adam.
- Boxing—Harold Matthews.
- Gymnastic games—C. E. Miller.
- Tennis—Joe Stanton.
- Exhibition on horizontal and parallel bars, rings, side horse, and tumbling—C. E. Miller.
- Track—Ed Weir.
- Swimming—Tom Leeke.

Swim Squad Due to Splash In Foe Tanks

... This Weekend

Coach Tom Leeke waved the wand Wednesday and chose the swimmers who will take the trip to Kansas State and Oklahoma over the week-end. Leeke's squad will meet Kansas State Friday night, then journey to Oklahoma the next night.

Seeking to regain their trek down the victory trail the Husker mermen are expected to function to the limit for victory. The Leeke aquatic team dropped a 50-34 decision to Iowa State last week.

Oldfield Cracks Record.

Bright spot in the Iowa State downfall was the performance of Les Oldfield, junior splasher. Oldfield splashed over the 150-yard backstroke route in 1:44.6 to top his conference record of 1:45.5.

Oldfield and Bill Edwards are expected to lead the Huskers against Oklahoma and Kansas State. Edwards was the sole double victor against Iowa State, leading the 50 and 100 yard free stylists.

Coach Leeke and his team will leave for Kansas State Friday morning at 10:00.

Traveling squad:

- 100-yard free style—Edwards, Clements.
- 50-yard free style—Edwards, Buckley.
- 220-yard free style—Lambert, Porter.
- 400-yard free style—Lambert, Porter.
- 150-yard backstroke—Yokum, Baker, Oldfield.
- 200-yard breast stroke—Foster, Brauns.
- 400-yard relay—Oldfield, Foster, Buckley and Edwards.
- 300-yard medley relay—Oldfield, Foster, Buckley.

A. J. Olson, University of Minnesota regent, has been elected president of the National Association of Governing Boards of State Universities.
